

A woman with brown hair tied back, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, is shown in profile from the chest up. She has a wide-eyed, open-mouthed expression of shock or surprise, looking towards the right. In the background, a computer monitor is visible, and the setting appears to be an office or a control room with some blurred equipment and a yellow banner hanging from the ceiling.

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan,Warren Buckland,2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze's Time Image and Jean-Luc Nancy's Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline

The Productivity of Negative Emotions in Postcolonial Literature

Jean-François Vernay, Donald Wehrs, Isabelle Wentworth, 2024-11-18 This volume explores the possibilities and potentialities of negative affect in postcolonial literature and literary theory featuring work on postcolonial studies First Nations studies cognitive cultural studies cognitive historicism reader response theory postcolonial feminist studies and trauma studies The chapters of this work investigate negative affect in all its types and dimensions analyses of the structures of feeling created by socio-political forces assemblages and alliances produced by negative emotion enactive interrelationships of emotion and environment and the ethical implications of emotional response to name a few It seeks to rebrand negative emotions as productive forces which can paradoxically confer pleasure agential power and social progress through literary representation

Everybody's Family Romance Gillian Harkins, 2009 In the 1990s a boom in autobiographical novels and memoirs about incest emerged making incest one of the hottest topics to connect daytime TV talk shows the self-help industry and the literary publishing circuit In Everybody's Family Romance Gillian Harkins places this proliferation of incest literature at the center of transformations in the political and economic climate of the late twentieth century Harkins's interdisciplinary approach reveals how women's narratives about incest were co-opted by and yet retained resistant strains against the cultural logics of the neoliberal state Across chapters examining legal cases on recovered memory popular journalism and novels and memoirs by Dorothy Allison Carolivia Herron Kathryn Harrison and Sapphire Harkins demonstrates that incest narratives look backward into the past In these accounts images of incest forge links between U.S. chattel slavery and the distributive impasses of the welfare state and between decades distant childhoods and emergent memories of the present In contrast to recent claims that incest narratives eclipse broader frameworks of political and economic power Harkins argues that their emergence exposes changing structural relations between the family and the nation and in doing so transforms the analyses of American familial sexual violence

Grotesque Humor Emily James, AI, 2025-05-05 Grotesque Humor explores why we laugh at the disgusting examining the role of the grotesque and discomfort in humor across literature and performance This literary collection of essays argues that these elements aren't just for laughs they challenge social norms and provoke critical thought The book highlights how artists use the grotesque to expose hypocrisy and address difficult topics revealing humor's potential as social commentary Understanding why we find discomfort funny provides insights into our psychological boundaries The book begins by establishing the historical context of the grotesque tracing its evolution and use in comedy It introduces key concepts like abjection and transgression to explain their function within humor Analyzing literary works of satire dark comedy and absurdism the book examines how authors use unsettling imagery to create humor Moving into performance art it dissects plays and stand up routines that employ shock value and audience discomfort Ultimately Grotesque Humor argues that the strategic use of the grotesque is a powerful method of engaging with power structures and cultural values It demonstrates that humor born from the repulsive can catalyze questioning and re evaluating our perceptions elevating the study of humor to a level of serious intellectual inquiry and demonstrating its capacity to drive social and political change

On My Post

Reggie Legend, 2024-11-28 This book series centers around my personal stories and reflections captured in no particular order Though I initially avoided platforms such as Facebook and Twitter preferring smaller websites and blogs that either I my friends or other colorful collaborators created my connection with social media was inevitable Upon publishing my first book Steel Waters DUPLICATE AUTHENTICITY VOLUME I as a collection of poems I immediately knew I d need a larger platform to show the world my content What began as a business quickly became personal as I released little quips along with long rants about the inner workings of my family faith and functioning as a black man in America What I ve amassed over the years has been gathered together as recollections of a rebel who initially balked at the idea of social media altogether but has since utilized it to challenge social norms shift paradigms and advance the Kingdom of God through the power of written words Some of the topics broached in this book include the following fatherhood from a Christian black man s perspective as son who s transitioned to being a father introspective reflections coined as Mourning Mirror Talks how faith influences my every day walk and life politics and the foolishness thereof music and culture specifically from a Hip Hop perspective I don t just do this for myself though My voice in many instances is your voice My concerns are your concerns So allow my strength words and an ever present heavenly Father God to be your strength
