Identity and Memory in Marina Lewycka's Novel "A Short History of Tractors in Ukrainian" Shanna Große, 2020-07-02 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 3.0 Saarland University Anglistik Amerikanistik und Anglophone Kulturen course Proseminar Britische Literaturen und Kulturen language English abstract This short paper intends to answer the questions how the identities of the two sisters in Marina Lewycka's novel A Short History of Tractors in Ukrainian 2005 are shaped As the novel contains various flashbacks through past telling which again influences the different characters of Vera and Nadia this paper also tries to explain to which extent a personal past memory plays a role within this process of forming their self concept This is made by the theoretical constructs and definitions of identity and memory and the thought of how these two constructs are linked meaning identity being created through memory Through analyzing selected passages from the book the theory is applied on the characters of both Nadia and Vera to find out more about their different identities and search for possible reasons in their past The concept of collective and individual memory Assmann will play an important role to give possible reasons for their different perceptions of the past which thus lead to many conflicts throughout the novel Lewycka uses memory especially Nadia's and Vera's

Translation Trouble Ivana Hostová, 2017-08-21 Besides providing a thorough overview of advances in the concept of identity in Translation Studies the book brings together a variety of approaches to identity as seen through the prism of translation Individual chapters are united by the topic and their predominantly cultural approach but they also supply dynamic impulses for the reader since their methodologies level of abstraction and subject matter differ The theoretical impulses brought together here include a call for the ecology of translational attention a proposal of transcultural and farcical translation and a rethinking of Bourdieu's habitus in terms of František Mikoš's experiential complex The book also offers first hand insights into such topics as post communist translation practices provides sociological insights into the role politics played during state socialism in the creation of fields of translated fiction and the way imported fiction was able to subvert the intentions of the state gives evidence of the struggles of small locales trying to be recognised through their literature and draws links between local theory and more widely known concepts Reimagining Israel and Palestine in Contemporary British and German Culture Isabelle Hesse, 2024-03-05 Isabelle Hesse identifies an important relational turn in British and German literature TV drama and film published and produced since the First Palestinian Intifada 1987 1993 This turn manifests itself on two levels one in representing Israeli and Palestinian histories and narratives as connected rather than separate and two by emphasising the links between the current situation in Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the roles that the United Kingdom and Germany have played historically and continue to play in the region This relational turn constitutes a significant shift in representations of Israel and Palestine in British and German culture as these depictions move beyond an engagement with the Holocaust and Jewish suffering at the expense of Palestinian suffering and indicate a willingness to represent and acknowledge British and German involvement in Israeli and Palestinian politics This book offers new ways of thinking about how Israel and Palestine are imagined and reimagined as topics of cultural and political interest in two countries that have had complicated histories with both Israel and Palestine histories which are marked by each country's memories of the Holocaust and colonialism Taking Your iPad to the Max Erica Sadun, Michael Grothaus, Steve Sande, 2010-12-31 It looks different It acts different There's no right way to hold it It responds to the touch of your fingertips It's the Internet in your lap It connects to the world yet it is as personal as a well worn book Taking Your iPad to the Max is written so that anyone from a computer savvy teenager to a 92 year old great grandmother can quickly get up to speed on Apple's latest hit As bloggers at The Unofficial Apple Weblog tuaw.com we have the happy privilege of working with Apple products every day The iPad is so different from any computer you've ever used and we realize many people could use a helping hand to feel comfortable buying and using an iPad We take you from selecting and buying an iPad to connecting it to the Internet and then demonstrate just how to use the incredible power of the iPad and all its apps to enhance your life Whether you're using your iPad to surf the Internet admire family photos listen to music watch movies or read a book we're here to guide you We show you how your iPad can be a virtual shopping mall opening the door to
