The Essential Greek Historians is an excellent collection of texts representing the development of historiography in the ancient Greek world. Each text is presented in an engaging and readable translation with an insightful introduction exploring the purposes behind its composition, the significance of its contribution to the growth of historiography as a literary genre, and the context in which its author thought and wrote. These texts include not only familiar favorites like Herodotus and Thucydides but also sources such as The Parian Marble and Memnon's History of Heracleia which give a broader and richer view of the ways in which Greeks engaged with history. In one economical volume, Burstein has created an indispensable introduction to the historical thought of the ancient Greeks. No student of Greek historiography should be without it. Erik Jensen, Salem State University. Includes an introduction, maps, and selections from Herodotus The Histories, Thucydides History of the Peloponnesian War, Xenophon's The Hellenica, Aristotle's The Constitution of Athens, The Parian Marble, Polybius The Histories, Memnon's History of Heracleia, Plutarch's Life of Alexander. National Role Conception and Neoclassical Realism Guangyi Pan, 2025-06-27. Despite China's alignment with Russia being one of the most significant factors shaping the international order, the dynamics of their historic relationships and more importantly the sources of China's alignment policy remain underexplored. In this book, National Role Conception and Neoclassical Realism, a synthetic exploration into the Sino-Soviet alignment, Guangyi Pan investigates this question by analysing the changes in China's national role conception from a cross-level perspective. Adding value to existing scholarly works on China's decision-making logic, he examines two critical and dramatic moments in the history of Beijing's alignment policy towards Moscow: the Sino-Soviet split in the 1960s and the normalisation in the 1980s. Based on massive historic documents and archives, he argues that the evolution of Beijing's approach to aligning with Moscow results from its changing perception of China's role in the world, platform, especially its role relationship with the Soviet Union. The fundamental logic lies in how China positions itself with the Soviet Union, long serving as a mirror reflecting Beijing's desired roles during pivotal transformations. By developing a more rigorous and coherent framework to analyse role conceptions, Guangyi Pan explores unit-level factors including leader images, elite cohesion, and political culture alongside the impact of systemic stimuli. This approach constructs the complex process of role formation, evolution, performance, and policy outcomes, offering a comprehensive understanding of China's alignment with Russia throughout modern history. Aimed primarily at scholars whose research fields include international relations theory, the Cold War history, and politics of China, National Role

Conception and Neoclassical Realism may also be of interest to foreign policymakers students and political history enthusiasts Sport, Revolution and the Beijing Olympics Grant Jarvie,Dong-Jhy Hwang,Mel Brennan,2008-05-15 The 2008 Olympic Games will be held in Beijing but many human rights activists support a boycott They liken the circumstances to previous governments that used the games to glorify their regimes most notoriously the Nazis in 1936 What has led to this perception and is it fair Sport Revolution and the Beijing Olympics is a cultural history of sport in China that challenges many such ingrained Western assumptions The authors unpick the relationship of sport to imperialism and revolution and examine its significance in both China and Taiwan at governmental and everyday levels In the process they successfully debunk harmful myths such as the prevalence of drugs in Chinese sport among women athletes and present a balanced view that is a much needed corrective to popular understanding The Slaughter of the Jews in the Ukraine in 1919 Elias Heifetz,1921
