"My Rebellious and Imperfect Eye" , 2021-10-18 My Rebellious and Imperfect Eye Observing Geoffrey Grigson acknowledges and celebrates Geoffrey Grigson 1905 1985 as an all round man as a distinctive lyrical poet as the exact observer of nature and of men in the past and in the present as a pioneering literary critic and art critic as an unrivalled anthologist as a ground breaking editor as a broadcaster as a botanist the list could be extended In an unsurpassed number of diverse areas of artistic and natural culture Grigson passionately communicated all he experienced and felt to as wide an audience as possible Therefore as the centenary of his birth comes in view it seems singularly appropriate to celebrate Geoffrey Grigson s unique contribution to the twentieth century cultural scene In a writing career spanning nearly sixty years he was unmatched by any of his contemporaries for a range which reaches from the edges of journalism into and beyond the academic world In prose and verse the nineteen contributors to this volume amongst them some of the most distinguished names in contemporary English letters would hardly claim to have covered every aspect of Grigson s genius but they do manage to touch upon most of the territory he illuminated The volume contains a full bibliography of Grigson s work and a

The History and Anatomy of Auctorial Self-Criticism in the European Middle Ages Anita Obermeier, 2023-12-28 This study outlines the history and anatomy of the European apology tradition from the sixth century BCE to 1500 for the first time The study examines the vernacular and Latin tales lyrics epics and prose compositions of Arabic English French German Greek Icelandic Italian Spanish and Welsh authors Three different strands of the apology tradition can be proposed The first and most pervasive strand features apologies to pagan deities and later to God The second most important strand contains literary apologies made to an earthly audience usually of women A third strand occurs more rarely and contains apologies for varying literary offenses that are directed to a more general audience The medieval theory of language privileges an imitation of the Christian master narrative and a hierarchical medieval view of authorship These notions express a medieval philosophical concern about language and its role and therefore the role of the author in cosmic history Despite the fact that women apologize for different purposes and reasons their examples illustrate on yet another level the antifeminist subtext inherent in the entire apology tradition Overall the apology tradition characterized by interauctoriality intertextuality and intratextuality enables self critical authors to refer not only backward but also primarily forward making the medieval apology a progressive strategy that engenders new literature This study would be relevant to all medievalists especially those interested in literature and the history of ideas
