Visions of Progress Douglas Charles Rossinow, 2008 Rossinow revisits the period between the 1880s and the 1940s when reformers and radicals worked together along a middle path between the revolutionary left and establishment liberalism He takes the story up to the present showing how the progressive connection was lost and explaining the consequences that followed History of Roman Literature from Its Earliest Period to the Augustan Age ... John

Colin Dunlop, 1827 Casting Masculinity in Spanish Film Mary T. Hartson, 2017-09-13 The rise of consumerism in the twentieth and twenty first centuries radically changed the way we perceive ourselves and the world around us And as it has throughout history the social construct of ideal masculinity both reflects and responds to that lived reality helping individuals adapt Through a close study of Spanish film of the twentieth and twenty first centuries this book investigates hegemonic or dominant masculinity in the wake of dramatic consumer changes that occurred in Spain It explores the ways in which masculine identity as represented in Spanish film positions itself in relation to desire and consumption focusing especially on representations of hegemonic masculinity from the almost 40 year dictatorship of General Francisco Franco through the transition to democracy and into the early 1990s Using psychoanalytic theory as employed primarily by Todd McGowan and Slavoj Žižek this book analyzes cinematic representations of hegemonic masculine models along with those portrayed as less favorable to understand how political social and economic changes in Spain in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries affect the process of masculine identity formation In the shift from a society of prohibition to a society of commanded enjoyment hegemonic masculinity as represented in Spanish film changes dramatically initially organizing itself around prohibition and self renunciation in the early Franco dictatorship and later with neoliberal reforms and mass media promotion of consumerist values starting in the 1950s reorienting itself around desire and enjoyment embodied for example in the sexually promiscuous fashionable young man of the 1970s Personal pleasure and the satisfaction of one's desires replace submission obedience and self abnegation leading to a reconstruction of masculine identities in a social context that appears increasingly fragmented plural and individualistic The primary innovation of this text involves the repositioning of consumerism as a fundamental force in the formation of Spanish masculinity and showing how widely disseminated masculine models serve to accommodate political social and economic demands
