Health Care Financing Review ,1986 Community Care Demonstrations ,1987 Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker,Karen A. Roberto,2007-12-17 How have programs for older adults evolved Who uses these resources How are they delivered And what challenges do service providers face in meeting the needs of the aging baby boom generation Community Resources for Older Adults Programs and Services in an Era of Change Third Edition answers these and other critical questions by providing a theoretical framework for understanding the forces that shape older adults likelihood to seek assistance A Systematic Comparison of Community Care Demonstrations Peter Kemper,1987

Reprint - Institute for Research on Poverty University of Wisconsin. Institute for Research on Poverty, The Heart of Long Term Care Rosalie A. Kane,Robert L. Kane,Richard C. Ladd,1998 Long term care in the United States has taken the nursing home as its benchmark but the monetary social and psychological costs of nursing home care are all too high This book challenges the current dominance of nursing homes as the principal institution of long term care It offers a series of alternative models where both services and housing can be provided in a way that allows long term consumers to enjoy dignified normal lifestyles It addresses the political and economic consequences of making this decision The authors start with the premise that long term care is designed to assist people who lack the capacity to function fully independently They argue that no disabled person of any age should be required to forsake his her humanity in exchange for care The book rejects the artificial dichotomy between social and medical care asserting that both play important roles in psychological and physical well being of long term care patients The authors consider the need for competent and compassionate medicine and discuss the methods for improving both its coordination of care and its effectiveness The book redefines the meaning of safety and protection in long term care and how this goal can be accomplished without sacrificing quality of living As the new millennium and the aging of baby boomers approaches more creative approaches to providing better long term care are required This volume outlines a useful framework for the provision of effective and humane community based programs that are both feasible and affordable It will be an invaluable guide for geriatricians public health professionals family physicians nurses and others who care for elderly patients Community-Based Systems of Long-Term Care Rick T.

Zawadski,2014-04-23 An enlightening review of the successes and failures of several federally funded community based projects that offered elderly persons an alternative to nursing home care Policymakers caregivers and students of public administration and gerontology must read this valuable book Research Activities ,1994 Medical Care Review ,1990

Handbook of Long-Term Care Administration and Policy Cynthia Massie Mara,Laura Olson,2008-03-27 Attitudes toward long term care contain a strong residue of negativity in today s society and current problems with the system augment such perceptions Unless dealt with now this will only get worse as the 85 and older crowd is the fastest growing part of the population and the first wave of Baby Boomers is approaching 60 Exploring and delineate Bridging the Family

Care Gap Joseph E. Gaugler, 2021-01-09 Bridging the Family Care Gap explores expected future shortages of family caregivers of older persons and identifies potential solutions The book examines the sustainability and availability of care management models and whether they can be effectively scaled up to meet community needs It identifies newly emerging policy initiatives at local state and federal levels The book addresses the state of family caregiving science dissemination and implementation of promising programs and supports technological innovations and other strategies to offset the family care gap This edited volume also explores lay healthcare workers as guides interpreters and advocates in healthcare systems that provide continuity of contact for family caregivers Details threats to family caregiving sociodemographic chronic disease and socioeconomic challenges Presents solutions to the caregiving gap in a systematic synthesized manner Addresses the intersection of family caregiving and technology Discusses chronic disease management to offset and reduce the need for family caregiving Describes models of caregiver support in work settings Reimagines the delivery of long term services and supports with novel initiatives

Health Care of the Elderly Marilyn D. Petersen, Diana L. White, 1989-03 The literature focusing on major barriers to health care of the elderly is critically reviewed in this book Each chapter focuses on a specific problem examining in depth the existing information on a particular area of concern Following an explicit and rigorous methodology known as information synthesis contributors examine three categories of issues elements organization and delivery services in the long term care system social support programmes for the elderly and clinical care issues and physician education
