Described by A. Rutherford. [With Illustrations.]. Alexander RUTHERFORD,1960 The Crown Estate in Scotland Great Britain: Parliament: House of

Commons: Scottish Affairs Committee,2012-03-19 This report examines the Crown Estate Commissioner s management of the Crown property rights and interests which make up the Crown Estate in Scotland The Commissioner s operations in Scotland can be split into two categories ancient possessions responsibilities and modern activities relating to the buying selling and management of property and land The evidence identified major issues particularly in relation to the seabed and the foreshore including lack of accountability lack of communication and consultation with local communities the inappropriateness of the Commissioner s remit for its responsibilities in the marine environment the cash leakage from local economies and other adverse impacts There were no such problems in relation to the management of urban and rural estate The Commissioner s responsibilities for the seabed the foreshore and other ancient rights in Scotland should be devolved then decentralized as far as possible Devolution to Holyrood should be conditional upon agreement between the Secretary of State for Scotland and the Scottish Government on how such a scheme of subsidiarity to local authority and local community levels should be implemented This report also sets out how different arrangements could be made for each of the Scottish Crown property rights and responsibilities Further consultation should proceed on the basis of proposals set out by the Highlands and Islands local authorities which provides a clear framework on which to base discussion New Look at Scotland ,195? Scottish Ancestry Sherry Irvine,2003-06-01 The world of genealogical research has changed dramatically in the years since this book debuted In this revised second edition Sherry Irvine mixes her award winning methodology with up to date instruction on how to utilize the latest computer and internet sources for Scottish research She also broadens the scope from a guide for North Americans to a useful resource for researchers from all over the globe For family historians researching Scottish roots this book continues to be indispensable In Search of Scotland Henry Volla Morton,1930 Penelope's Experiences In Scotland Kate Douglas Wiggin,2023-11-01 Penelope s Experiences in Scotland is a charming literary adventure that transports readers to Scotland s breathtaking scenery rich traditions and endearing characters as seen through the eyes of the brave and curious protagonist Penelope This book blends travelogue aspects with comedy and astute insights to create a vivid and immersive tour of Scotland s culture and natural beauty written by Kate Douglas Wiggin who is known for her delightful and perceptive storytelling Readers are exposed to a tapestry of experiences that reflect the essence of this wonderful country as Penelope explores the rocky Highlands encounters the warmth of Scottish hospitality and unravels the mysteries of historic castles The Barnett formula Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on the Barnett Formula,2009-07-17 The Barnett Formula is the mechanism used by the United Kingdom Government to allocate more than half of total public expenditure in Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland The Formula has been used for the last thirty years to determine the annual increase in allocation the increment Each year these increments are added on to the previous year s allocation the baseline to create what is now a significant block grant of funds The Formula accounted for almost 49 billion of public spending in 2007 08 Despite the political changes within the United Kingdom the Formula has continued to be used and has never been reviewed or revised The Formula was only intended to be a short term measure and should no longer be A UK Funding Commission should be established to assess relative need in the UK s regions and advise on a new method of distributing funding to reflect those needs The baseline has never been reviewed to take account of changing population patterns this means that the grant provides funds without reference to the needs of each of the countries and regions of the UK There should be a link between the grant of funds made to each of the administrations and their actual per capita funding needs The Committee s research suggests that England and Scotland have markedly lower overall needs per head of population than Wales and Northern Ireland The Committee suggest that the UK Funding Commission undertake an assessment of relative need now and in the future and that they undertake periodic reviews as well as publish annual data about the allocation of funding between the devolved administrations
