

An illustration of two hikers, a man and a woman, seen from behind as they stand on a mountain trail. They are wearing backpacks and looking out over a vast, hazy mountain range under a dramatic, cloudy sky. The scene is rendered in a painterly style with a cool color palette of blues, greys, and muted greens.

Josephine Cox, 2012-01-19 As history threatens to repeat itself the actions of one young woman lead to tragic consequences In the first instalment of the Emma Grady trilogy Josephine Cox's Outcast is an extraordinarily powerful saga of a passionate yet impossible love Perfect for fans of Cathy Sharp and Kitty Neale On a fateful night in 1860 Thadious Grady realises too late that he has made a grave mistake In blind faith he has put himself and his daughter Emma at the mercy of his sister and her conniving husband Caleb Crowther for he has entrusted to them his entire fortune and the daughter he adores With his dying breath he pleads to see his daughter one last time but Caleb's heart is made of stone A feared Lancashire Justice Caleb Crowther is a womaniser and a gambler and now the inheritance due to Emma is as much in his hands as is the beautiful Emma Grady herself But Caleb lives in fear of the past for how did Emma's mother mysteriously die And what made Thadious and Caleb hate the river people so intensely History seems likely to repeat itself when Emma falls helplessly in love with Marlow Tanner a young bargee For Marlow and Emma it is an impossible love a love made in Heaven but which could carry them both to Hell What readers are saying about Outcast A dark and somewhat disturbing tale of intrigue mystery and romance of treacherous relatives and doomed love affairs I loved this story You can really feel the emotions of the characters and the threats they face The actions and settings are so vividly described that you could almost be in the scenes yourself One of the best books I've ever read I Will Never Trust a Man Dr. Kumdong Bindul Nostra, 2014-06-16 From the very first moment Saratu met Bindul he made her believe that she was more than any other woman he had ever seen in the world He bathed her with love bathed her bathed her and finally drowned her completely into his love Saratu loves him with the truest love of her heart As matter of fact they were head over heels in love They admired each other they adored each other they allured each other they liked each other they want each other they need each other they beseechingly desired each other and they loved each other like politicians with corruptions They declared their love for each other and not so long they stood in front of an overfilled church congregation to publicly declare their love for each other in a one in town society marriage They swam in their love and lived very very comfortable and happily in love Saratu wasn't in need of anything even sex Bindul gave her all the practical part of love the love that was made in heaven for a woman that kind of love that made her feel as though she was the only EVE with the only ADAM in this modern world and she was wholly dependable on it Like King Solomon to his wives and concubines Bindul lavished Saratu with the sweetest lovely words and praises He gave her all that she needed in life But when Saratu later discovered that her husband was still madly in love with Jimikat his primeval girlfriend things wasn't the same again for her Their loveliest sex packed marriage suffered a temporary drought of sex Saratu first run to her dear friend Dakmikat for help Despite doing everything her husband clung onto Jimikat like a tick to a cow But at the end when Bindul brought the two of them together the problem was solved and Saratu and Jimikat became very very good friends and lived very happily under the spell of Bindul
