Looking for Osman Eric Lawlor, 1993 Inspired by the romantic Orientalists of the nineteenth century Eric Lawlor went to Turkey in search of exotic splendor the fez a luxurious massage and the likes of Osman a legendary knave and con man What he found is a country in which he fez has been banned since the 1920s the baths are as brutal as police interrogations and rogues like Osman have given way to young professionals seeking Turkish entry into the European Economic Community But in the process of looking for Osman Eric Lawlor has given us a book of splendid observation and delicious humor and a Turkey in which bazaars still hum amid the newness and Mohammed s footprints are still on display As attuned to the eccentricities of his fellow Western travelers as he is to the oddities of his hosts Eric Lawlor is a wonderful guide And Looking for Osman is a pungent and poetic exploration of a country that surpasses all our notions of the exotic

Falling Off the Map Pico Iyer, 2012-02-21 The author of Video Night in Kathmandu ups the ante on himself in this sublimely evocative and acerbically funny tour through the world s loneliest and most eccentric places From Iceland to Bhutan to Argentina Iyer remains both uncannily observant and hilarious

Linguistic Politeness Across Boundaries Ar?n Bayraktaro?lu, Maria Sifianou, 2001-01-01 This volume includes 14 papers investigating politeness phenomena in Greece and Turkey the cultural cross roads of Europe Asia and the Middle East It reflects current research and provides observations of and findings in patterns of linguistic politeness in a geographical area other than the much studied English speaking ones The book appeals to professionals and students interested in a broader perspective of language use in its social context Articles in the collection are empirically rather than theoretically oriented and examine realisations of politeness in relation to social parameters The chapters have been arranged in pairs Greek Turkish treating the following related issues firstly a more general ethnographic picture of the two societies the variables of power status in classroom and other interaction solidarity in advice giving and the use of approbatory expressions service encounters and the differential use of language by males and females the use of interruptions in television talk and finally compliments
