Love, Guilt, and Reparation, and Other Works, 1921-1945 Melanie Klein, 1977

Bunny Lake Is Missing Evelyn Piper, 2012-10-01 The classic novel of suspense is a headlong story of nerve wracking tension psychological validity and emotional drive Oakland Tribune Blanche Lake is not like the other mothers who come to collect their children at the local nursery school on New York's Upper East Side She lives alone has a job and has never been married It's the first day of school when this story begins and Blanche is eager to see how her daughter Bunny has fared away from home But her expectant waiting becomes a mother's most dreaded nightmare Bunny never materializes Neither teachers nor students recall the small girl and soon Blanche is engaged in a frantic search for any trace of her missing daughter And the worst part is no one believes her In this fraught and at times freakish tale of suspense Evelyn Piper takes us deep into the psyche of the 1950s to explore American fetishes fallacies and fears around motherhood and sexuality Blanche emerges as a new kind of heroine a hard boiled mom with gun in hand willing to take any risk to find her missing daughter A classic thriller a riveting revisit to the dark side of the fifties where the tension beneath the calm surface has an undertow that drags the reader into its grip Prime pulp pure pleasure Linda Fairstein author of The Bone Vault

Modernism, History and the First World War Trudi Tate, 2013-01-01 Drawing upon medical journals newspapers propaganda military histories and other writings of the day Modernism History and the First World War reads such writers as Woolf HD Ford Faulkner Kipling and Lawrence alongside fiction and memoirs of soldiers and nurses who served in the war This ground breaking blend of cultural history and close readings shows how modernism after 1914 emerges as a strange but important form of war writing and was profoundly engaged with its own troubled history

Reforming the Moral Subject Tracie Matysik, 2008 Introduction critical ethics or the subject of reform An ethics of Gesellschaft The new ethic a particularist challenge Conflicted sexualities and conflicted secularisms Global influences local responses Moral laws and impossible laws the female homosexual and the Criminal Code Social matters social democracy and the ethics of materialism Losses and unlikely legacies psychoanalysis and femininity Afterword moral citizenship or ethics beyond the law

Cross-Gendered Literary Voices R. Kim, C. Westall, 2012-05-21 This book investigates male writers use of female voices and female writers use of male voices in literature and theatre from the 1850s to the present examining where how and why such gendered crossings occur and what connections may be found between these crossings and specific psychological social historical and political contexts Theatre and Therapy Fintan Walsh, 2024-09-19 What is the relationship between theatre and therapy How has this relationship developed over time with a new contemporary focus on mental wellbeing How is therapy put on the couch by theatrical performance Theatre and Therapy explores the evolution of links between theatre and therapy by considering actor training theatre in therapeutic contexts and contemporary theatre and performance practice The book illuminates some of the connections and frictions between theatre and therapy drawing on a range of examples that includes theatre performance documentary theatre solo performance comedy method acting and dramatherapy This concise study traverses some of the changing interactions between theatre and therapy and in this revised edition takes into account shifting attitudes and approaches to theatre as a therapeutically inspired practice and tool The Formation of Pastoral Counselors Duane R. Bidwell, Joretta L. Marshall, 2012-11-12 Explore the concept of formation in pastoral counseling from a variety of perspectives Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that is radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is a practical guide for educators working to shape curricula and training programs to the shifting context in which pastoral counselors are formed for ministry service and lifelong learning This unique book examines ideas about appropriate content and processes for the formation of pastoral care professionals and looks at specialized contextual training models that form their emerging identities The book's contributors call on extensive experience in pastoral theology care and counseling to explore the essential components of formation across different contexts how those contextual realities change the delivery systems the epistemological nature of formation reasons for the limited roles that formal theological education and spiritual experience seem to play at the moment and why formation is rarely formally addressed in pastoral counseling training Topics discussed in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include the turn to formation the goals of theological education core elements of pastoral theology developing spiritual practices diversity pastoral counseling training programs race and ethnicity in the formation of pastoral counselors cultural identity intercultural contexts practical relevancy in training gender identity and sexual orientation economic disparity Models and practices examined in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include parallel charting clinician narratives group supervision Benedictine spirituality academic and clinical training at the Claremont School of Theology the model of formation at the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care VPCare and much more The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is an essential guide for pastoral counselors faculty in pastoral theological care and counseling and training directors in pastoral counseling centers

The Madness of Knowledge Steven Connor, 2021-07-21 Many human beings have considered the powers and the limits of human knowledge but few have wondered about the power that the idea of knowledge has over us Steven Connor's The Madness of Knowledge is the first book to investigate this emotional inner life of knowledge the lusts fantasies dreams and fears that the idea of knowing provokes There are in depth discussions of the imperious will to know of Freud's epistemophilia or love of knowledge and the curiously insistent links between madness magical thinking and the desire for knowledge Connor also probes secrets and revelations quarreling and the history of quizzes and general knowledge charlatanry and pretension both the violent disdain and the sanctification of the stupid as well as the emotional investment in the spaces and places of knowledge from the study to the library In an age of artificial intelligence alternative facts and mistrust of truth The Madness of Knowledge offers an opulent enlarging and sometimes unnerving psychopathology of intellectual life
