Mattered Dave Kehr, 2011-04-15 If you have ever wanted to dig around in the archives for that perfect Sunday afternoon DVD and first turned to a witty weekly column in the New York Times then you are already familiar with one of our nation's premier film critics. If you love movies and the writers who engage them and just happen to have followed two of the highest circulating daily papers in the country then you probably recognize the name of the intellectually dazzling writer who has been penning pieces on American and foreign films for over thirty years. And if you called the City of the Big Shoulders home in the 1970s or 1980s and relied on those trenchant incisive reviews from the Chicago Reader and the Chicago Tribune to guide your moviegoing delight then you know Dave Kehr. When Movies Mattered presents a wide ranging and illuminating selection of Kehr's criticism from the Reader most of which is reprinted here for the first time including insightful discussions of film history and his controversial Top Ten lists. Long heralded by his peers for both his deep knowledge and incisive style Kehr developed his approach to writing about film from the auteur criticism popular in the 70s. Though Kehr's criticism has never lost its intellectual edge it's still easily accessible to anyone who truly cares about movies. Never watered down and always razor sharp it goes beyond wry observations to an acute examination of the particular stylistic qualities that define the work of individual directors and determine the meaning of individual films. From current releases to important revivals from classical Hollywood to foreign fare Kehr has kept us spellbound with his insightful critical commentaries. When Movies Mattered will secure his place among our very best writers about all things cinematic. The Neuro-Image Patricia

Pisters, 2012-07-11 Arguing that today's viewers move through a character's brain instead of looking through his or her eyes or mental landscape this book approaches twenty first century globalized cinema through the concept of the neuro image. Pisters explains why this concept has emerged now and she elaborates its threefold nature through research from three domains: Deleuzian schizoanalytic philosophy, digital networked screen culture and neuroscientific research. These domains return in the book's tripartite structure. Part One on the brain as neuroscreen suggests rich connections between film theory, mental illness and cognitive neuroscience. Part Two explores neuro images from a philosophical perspective paying close attention to their ontological, epistemological and aesthetic dimensions. Political and ethical aspects of the neuro image are discussed in Part Three. Topics covered along the way include the omnipresence of surveillance, the blurring of the false and the real and the affective powers of the neo baroque and the use of neuro images in politics, historical memory and war.

Where Does it Happen? George Kouvaros, 2004 A good movie John Cassavetes has remarked will ask you questions you don't already know the answers to. And in his films Cassavetes is as good as his word. Taking up the radical question that Cassavetes's films consistently pose specifically where is the line between actor and character, fiction and reality, film and life, George Kouvaros reveals the unique and illuminating position that Cassavetes's work occupies at the intersection of filmmaking and film theory. Central to any understanding of Cassavetes's achievement is the issue of performance. Looking at the work of Gena Rowlands, Ben Gazzara and Cassavetes himself in films such as Faces, A Woman under the Influence and
