Loved And Unloved The Girl Child In The Family:

Loved and Unloved Jasodhara Bagchi, Jaba Guha, 1997 Why does this book speak of the girl child and not of the child whether boy or girl The girl child is the endangered sex in our society She remains entrapped in a complex social process that naturalises her deprivation Her place is within the family which traditionally has been viewed as a specially nurturing and protecting institution for her Critically examining this view the authors raise vital questions on gender based discrimination within the family Thirteen case studies poignantly reveal the way discrimination occurs The authors have used the data for West Bengal compiled by the School of Women s Studies Jadavpur University as part of the national project on the girl child that was sponsored by the Indian government and carried out in twenty two women s studies centres The book surveys 600 sample households covering girls aged 7 18 years in selected rural and urban areas It offers detailed analysis of the girl child s mother and her perceptions of her children her daughters in particular Endangered Daughters Elizabeth Croll, 2002-01-04 This unique and groundbreaking book seeks to re focus gender debate onto the issue of daughter discrimination a phenomenon still hidden and unacknowledged across the world It asks the controversial question of why millions of girls do not appear to be surviving to adulthood in contemporary Asia In the first major study available of this emotive and sensitive issue Elisabeth Croll investigates the extent of discrimination against female children in Asia and shifts the focus of attention firmly from son preference to daughter discrimination This book brings together demographic data and anthropological field studies to reveal the multiple ways in which girls are disadvantaged from excessive child mortality to the withholding of health care and education on the basis of gender Focusing especially on China and India the book reveals the surprising coincidence of increasing daughter discrimination with rising economic development declining fertility and the generally improved status of women in East and South Asia Essential reading for all those interested in gender in contemporary society Family, School and Nation Nivedita Sen, 2015-07-03 This seminal work examines the concurrence of childhood rebellion and conformity in Bengali literary texts including adult texts a pertinent yet unexplored area making it a first of its kind It is a study of the voice of child protagonists across children s and adult literature in Bengali vis vis the institutions of family the education system and the nationalist movement in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries
