princes and there are many literary texts and historical documents that address the problems of imprisonment and even enslavement Georgius of Hungary Johann Schiltberger Hans Ulrich Krafft etc Simultaneously philosophers and theologians discussed intensively the fundamental question regarding free will e g Augustine and political freedom e g John of Salisbury Moreover quite a large number of major pre modern poets spent a long time in prison where they composed some of their major works Boethius Marco Polo Charles d Orlans Thomas Malory etc This book brings to light a vast range of relevant sources that confirm the existence of this fundamental and impactful discourse on freedom imprisonment and enslavement Prof Albrecht Classen is the joint winner of The Literary Encyclopedia book prize for 2023 Literatures written in languages other than English for this book https://www.litencyc.com/book/prizes/book_prizes_2023.php LIFE, 1964-12-25 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-09-20 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Erotici The Corrector, 1922 My Brother's Keeper Jonathan Burnside, Joanna Adler, Nancy Loucks, Gerry Rose, 2013-06-17 Ten years ago there were no faith based units in prisons outside South America Today they are spreading all over the world including the United States Europe and the Commonwealth My Brother's Keeper is the first major study of a global phenomenon Exploring the roots of faith based units in South America it explains why the Prison Service of England and Wales set up the first Christian based unit in the western world in 1997 and its rapid expansion It also explains how at exactly the same time the United States introduced Christian based units and why they were complimented by interfaith and multifaith initiatives At the heart of My Brother's Keeper is an interior account of life inside four Christian based prison units in England It draws on the findings of a detailed evaluation conducted by the authors for the Home Office Prison Service and Kainos Community between 2000 and 2001 including an updated reconviction study It is an authoritative account of an innovative programme Its analysis of what works and what doesn't in faith based units around the world makes My Brother's Keeper a valuable roadmap for all who care about improving prison conditions It presents a vision of justice that is not just concerned with building more prisons but with rebuilding more prisoners It argues that by making prisons more human and punishment more humane faith based units can be of value and keep faith in prisons The New World Park
