Low Key Politics Local Level Leadership And Change In The Middle East:

Low-key politics Richard T. Antoun, 1979 Low-Key Politics Richard T. Antoun, 1979-01-01 Study of a Jordanian village focusing on the choice of available political strategies Local Politics And Development In The Middle East Louis J. Cantori, 2019-02-26 Although development at the local level is a primary goal of most assistance schemes most development agencies and banks know little of politics at the local level in developing countries As a result assistance programs generally lack relevance to indigenous populations and are at the community level viewed as being controlled from the outside The authors of this book concentrate on how local politics influence development in the Middle East with the intent of encouraging more appropriate and thus more effective assistance programs They discuss general policy issues and the nature of center periphery relations in Middle East countries and delve into specific problems encountered in Egypt Jordan Lebanon Syria Iraq Turkey Tunisia and North Yemen showing how information about local political schemes can aid administrators of development programs in providing assistance that is acceptable and accepted at the local level The case studies provide a broad base for planning encompassing capitalist state capitalist and socialist systems in both rural and urban settings Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Local Politics and Contemporary Transformations in the Arab World M. Bouziane, C. Harders, A. Hoffmann, 2013-10-03 The contributors link innovative analytical concepts and ethnographic in depth case studies from the Arab world Based on the debates on politics from below and dynamic concepts of state all the chapters focus on informal institutions non elite actors and the dynamic and contradictory relationship between state and society Administration and Development in the Arab World Jamil Jreisat, Zaki R. Ghosheh, 2016-03-22 This book first published in 1986 examines the literature on administration human resources and development in the Arab world It emphasizes contemporary societies and their internal dynamics the least known and most critical aspects of Arabic studies Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp, 2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated

People, Land and Water in the Arab Middle East William Lancaster, Fidelity Lancaster, 2013-07-04 The result of twenty five years of research with different tribal groups in the Arabian peninsula this study focuses on ethnographic descriptions of Arab tribal societies in five regions of the peninsula with comparative material from others Having become aware of the depth in time of Arab tribal structures the authors have developed a view of Arabic tribal discourse where tribe is seen as essentially an identity that confers access to a social structure and its processes

The Middle East Today Don Peretz, 1994-04-30 In this completely updated sixth edition Peretz offers a comprehensive introduction to the history politics and contemporary life of the Middle East This is the book for those who have little or no previous academic background to the region Since its initial publication in 1963 this definitive survey has been widely acclaimed and frequently used in history and political science classes As with previous editions this volume offers a basic understanding of the forces that shape life and politics in Israel Egypt Iran Iraq Lebanon Jordan Syria Turkey Saudi Arabia and the Gulf States and is up to date through the September 1993 Israeli P L O accords

Resistance and Control in Pakistan Akbar S. Ahmed, 2004 In this extraordinary book one of the world's leading authorities on Islam explains what is happening in the Muslim world today and assesses the underlying causes

Spoils of War in the Arab East Aziz Al-Azmeh, Harout Akdedian, Haian Dukhan, 2024-01-11 Post conflict scenarios are often proposed for Arab countries that have witnessed significant changes and civil wars Yet the plans for reconciliation transitional justice and the return of the displaced often overlook the real conditions that make these recommendations impossible This book provides a critical analysis of current post conflict frameworks for Syria and Iraq Drawing on empirical research the book shows that reconciliation and reconstruction scenarios need to be considered alongside the realities on the ground It argues that Iraq and Syria exist in a condition of conflict transformation rather than of conflict termination because the extreme changes that accompanied these countries into war continue long after the conflicts end Furthermore the chapters highlight why experts should not seek solutions in culturalist terms and ancestral enmities or rely on the wartime status quo Rather they should look to the specific military political economic and socio cultural conditions that require different solutions A critical analysis of existing post conflict frameworks their applicability and their potential outcomes in Iraq and Syria the book is a vital contribution to post conflict studies It highlights the need for new approaches to reconstruction and peacebuilding in Arab countries and points to how they should be found

The Middle Eastern Village Richard Lawless, 2023-05-31 Rapid and uneven change to the fabric of rural life is widespread in modern Middle Eastern countries Modernisation usually in the Western model has often brought major improvements in agricultural technology education and public health but has also had the effect of weakening the traditional rural economy of many villages and encouraging their growing dependence on external sources of income most notably oil remittances This collection of research on the Middle Eastern village looks at the impact on rural life and environment of such factors as the mass exodus of labour to urban centres emigration immigration environmental change and the changing role of women in rural communities particularly the wives of migrant workers who have to fill a new role in the family structure State sponsored agrarian policies have weakened the power of traditional landed interests and together with labour migration have provoked new tension and inequalities in rural society The book makes clear that the pattern of change has been highly uneven and has served to heterogenise the countryside As the oil states enter a period of recession and the likelihood of substantial return migration increases rural communities will need to make further major adjustments and the book examines the tensions this new development is likely to produce First published in 1987 Religion and Politics in

Muslim Society Akbar S. Ahmed, 1983-10-28 This analysis of Muslim unrest is based on an extended case study of northwestern Pakistan Professor Ahmed examines power authority and religious status as the critical intermediary level of society that of the district or Agency which was the key unit of administration in British India Ahmed has joined his insights as anthropologist with his experience as a political agent in Waziristan to produce an innovative and detailed work The book focuses on the emergence of a mullah in Waziristan who challenges the state A religious leader's challenge of the state is not new but contemporary Muslim society's widespread concern over these conflicts reveals that the influence of religion in a traditional society undergoing modernization is greater than many scholars have assumed The author identifies three types of leaders traditional leaders usually elders representatives of the established state authority and religious functionaries From this analysis he constructs an Islamic district paradigm which he uses not only in making sense of contemporary Muslim society but also in understanding some aspects of the legacy of the colonial encounter Arab Masculinities

Konstantina Isidoros, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2022-01-04 Arab Masculinities provides a groundbreaking analysis of Arab men's lives in the precarious aftermath of the 2011 Arab uprisings It challenges received wisdoms and entrenched stereotypes about Arab men offering new understandings of masculinity across the Middle East and North Africa The 10 individual chapters of the book foreground the voices and stories of Arab men as they face economic precarity forced displacement and new challenges to marriage and family life Rich in ethnographic details they illuminate how men develop alternative strategies of affective labor how they attempt to care for themselves and their families within their local moral worlds and what it means to be a good son husband father and community member Arab Masculinities sheds light on the most private spaces of Arab men's lives offering stories that rarely enter the public realm It is a pioneering volume that reflects the urgent need for new anthropological scholarship on men and masculinities in a changing Middle East Culture and Political Change Myron Joel Aronoff, The burgeoning field of political anthropology has as its essential purpose examining the relationship between the exercise of power and the uniqueness of cultural forms Culture and Political Change emphasizes interdisciplinary semiotic and phenomenological approaches to the relationship between political change and the durability of such cultural forms as drama symbol myth ritual and religion Leading anthropologists and political scientists present case studies illuminating the complex causes and nature of political change Power and Identity Denis Sindic, Manuela

Barreto,Rui Costa-Lopes,2014-12-05 The concepts of power and identity are vital to many areas of social research In this edited collection a prominent set of contributors explore the double relationship between power and group identity focusing on two complementary lines of enquiry In what ways can the powerful dictate the identities of the powerless How can the powerless redefine their identity to challenge the powerful Each chapter is written by leading authorities in the field and investigates a particular aspect of the interplay of identity and power via a range of empirical contexts such as colonialism nationalism collective action and electoral politics The case studies include early modern Goa under Portuguese rule the tribes of modern day Jordan the use of sexual stereotyping and objectification by female activists seeking to transform social systems and a revisiting of the classic Stanford Prison Experiment The chapters include contributions from a variety of social disciplines and research methodologies and together provide a comprehensive overview of a subject at the cutting edge of social and political psychology Power and Identity will be of great interest to researchers graduates and upper level undergraduate students from across the social sciences Documenting Transnational Migration Richard T. Antoun,2005-07-01 Most studies on transnational migration either stress assimilation circulatory migration or the negative impact of migration This remarkable study which covers migrants from one Jordanian village to 17 different countries in Europe Asia and North America emphasizes the resiliency of transnational migrants after long periods of absence social encapsulation and stress and their ability to construct social networks and reinterpret traditions in such a way as to mix the old and the new in a scenario that incorporates both worlds Focusing on the humanistic aspects of the migration experience this book examines questions such as birth control women s work retention of tribal law and the changing attitudes of migrants towards themselves their families their home communities and their nation It ends with placing transnational migration from Jordan in a cross cultural perspective by comparing it with similar processes elsewhere and critically reviews a number of theoretical perspectives that have been used to explain migration Arabs in America Michael Suleiman,2010-06-29 Setting the record straight about Arab American culture Creating Consent in an Illiberal Order Jessica Watkins,2022-06-09 Explores low policing of interpersonal disputes in Jordan to show the inconspicuous methods the state uses to maintain social order The Middle East and Central Asia Dale F. Eickelman,1998 Book on impact of global and social changes in the Middle East
