was sacked but after appealing was appointed to command a brigade of 38th Welsh Division which he commanded with distinction in the last weeks of the war Afterward De Pree rose to Major General and was the Commandant at RMA Woolwich His son John was killed in 1942 when attempting to escape from a POW camp in Germany a story told in this book by one of the leading academics in the field which combines De Pree and Haig family papers with incisive commentary to give a multi faceted insight into both an important but obscure senior officer of the First World War and his hugely famous uncle
