Feet of Clay David Caudle, 2005 All in Little Pieces Molly's trying to sell a house to Mary but it soon becomes apparent that Mary is not there to buy The play becomes very engaging as the women talk and get to know each other It almost seems as if they're made for each other but the action twists and suddenly Molly realizes that Mary is perhaps not as stable as she seems and that in fact she's actually rather frightening The Casseroles of Far Rockaway Feet of Clay Two men sit out a rainy day in a remote mountain cabin while their wives shop in the town Vaughan has been a welcome benefactor to the down on his luck Clay since their recent meeting at a public pool But Vaughan's benevolence is motivated by something beyond his desire to help his fellow man and he just can't keep it a secret a moment longer Will Clay have the same desire If not will he at least have a price And if so can Vaughan afford to pay it To find out the answers be a fly or maybe a mosquito on the sweaty wall of that cabin and watch this Heidemann Award Finalist that Marta Barber of the Miami Herald called hilarious and well written The King and the Condemned Comedy ensues when a troop of actors refuse to perform their poorly written low budget production holding the audience captive When one audience member Daniel attempts to leave the actors force him onstage where he enters their world Here he must contend with a lustful princess a brutish guard an obnoxious clown and an egotistical king If he can defeat their characters he will go free but if he fails he will be trapped onstage with them forever My Wife's Coat Peter comes into the bedroom at his bon voyage party to get his wife's coat from the pile on the bed only to discover his mistress wearing it She wants him to stay with her but he's packing up his kids and wife and moving across country for his new promotion She asks him for one last request before she'll relinquish the coat not for sex but simply for him to lie on top of her He does so for a brief sad moment then takes the coat and leaves as she continues to lie on the pile of coats in despair The Theodore Roosevelt Rotunda The Theodore Roosevelt Rotunda The Way to Miami Donald Steele, 1999
