Meaningful Life:

The Wisdom of a Meaningful Life John Bruna, 2016 A rich and multilayered guide that offers readers accessible wisdom and practical methods to cultivate deeper satisfaction in everyday experiences In contrast to stimulus driven pleasure contentment comes from living a life of meaning that aligns with one's values The author identifies the common traps people fall into looking for happiness that actually create stress worries and fears and offers authentic mindfulness based solutions to counteract them The increasing popularity of secular mindfulness in the United States mainstream has unfortunately produced a variety of teachings that water down and misunderstand this important philosophy and approach to living Mindfulness is often reduced to concentration exercises and a simplistic definition of being aware of the present moment In nearly all secular presentations of mindfulness it is taken out of the rich context of the Three Higher Trainings ethics concentration and wisdom of Buddhism in which it was originally taught The unique feature of this book is that it maintains the substance of the entire teaching as a program that is accessible to people of all spiritual traditions or no spiritual tradition John Bruna is a counselor mindfulness and spiritual teacher and Certified Alcohol and Substance Abuse Counselor CASAC in California In 2005 he was ordained as a Buddhist monk in the Tibetan tradition through the Gaden Shartse Monastery in India In 2012 he became a Certified Cultivating Emotional Balance Mindfulness Teacher via the Santa Barbara Institute for Consciousness Studies Currently John is the director of the Way of Compassion Foundation and cofounder of the Mindful Life Program

The Metaphysics of Death John Martin Fischer, 1993 This collection of seventeen essays deals with the metaphysical as opposed to the moral issues pertaining to death For example the authors investigate among other things the issue of what makes death a bad thing for an individual if indeed death is a bad thing This issue is more basic and abstract than such moral questions as the particular conditions under which euthanasia is justified if it is ever justified Though there are important connections between the more abstract questions addressed in this book and many contemporary moral issues such as euthanasia suicide and abortion the primary focus of this book is on metaphysical issues concerning the nature of death What is the nature of the harm or bad involved in death If it is not pain what is it and how can it be bad Who is the subject of the harm or bad if the person is no longer alive how can he be the subject of the bad An if he is not the subject who is Can one have harm with no subject When does the harm take place Can a harm take place after its subject ceases to exist If death harms a person can the harm take place before the death occurs If death can be a bad thing would immortality be a desirable alternative This family of questions helps to frame the puzzle of why and how death is bad Other subjects addressed include the Epicurean view that death is not a misfortune for the person who dies the nature of misfortune and benefit the meaningfulness and value of life and the distinction between the life of a person and the life of a living creature who is not a person There is an extensive bibliography that includes science fiction treatments of death and immortality

10 Foundations for a Meaningful Life (No Matter What's Happened) Pam Cordano Mft, 2020-01-14 IT S ONE

THING TO WANT A MEANINGFUL LIFE IT S ANOTHER TO KNOW HOW TO CREATE ONE In this personal wise and generous book Pam Cordano MFT outlines 10 Foundations anyone can follow to build a meaningful and joyful life despite loss and suffering Drawing from her personal story as the first woman in four generations not to lose a baby to authorities Pam shares insights from her beginnings as a perpetual outsider to her young adulthood as she struggled with addiction and aimlessness to her awakening at 46 years old when she finally and definitively chose life Pam was deeply moved by Viktor Frankl s Man s Search for Meaning In it he wrote It did not really matter what we expected from life but rather what life expected from us These words provided the impetus for Pam to find out what life was asking of her She devoted herself to discovering how to live a life of meaning and how to help others do the same Based on her work with cancer patients widows and adoptees this book distills the day to day methods to get unstuck and find meaning no matter what s happened AMONG PAM CORDANO S MOST VALUABLE INSIGHTS Why we can heal only when we re in Direct Experience How responsibility bolsters true freedom How to tap into the wisdom of our Future Self How to distinguish between our Coping Identity and Essence Identity Why Meaning is the only antidote to despair Fifty Pictures of Living a Meaningful Life Joel

Vos,2017-03-21 How can people live a meaningful life Most likely you are already doing it You do not need to make up an abstract theory and use obscure words like an academic in an ivory tower Meaning is about you for you by you Here and now Look around you and you will see it This book shows 50 pictures about where you could see meaning in life This is the first art book ever published on meaning in life one picture can say more than a library full of books These 50 pictures are accompanied by brief explanations questions and exercises for reflection This book makes this often serious complex topic easy visible and humorous Be prepared for laughter and tears This book is for individuals who are just curious to learn more about meaning searchers for meaning therapists researchers priests philosophers life coaches The Philosophy of Film

Noir Mark T. Conard,Robert Porfirio,2007-08-17 From The Maltese Falcon 1941 to Touch of Evil 1958 the classic film noir is easily recognizable for its unusual lighting sinister plots and feeling of paranoia For critics and fans alike these films defined an era The Philosophy of Film Noir explores philosophical themes and ideas inherent in classic noir and neo noir films establishing connections to diverse thinkers ranging from Camus to the Frankfurt School The authors each focusing on a different aspect of the genre explore the philosophical underpinnings of classic films such as The Big Sleep 1946 Out of the Past 1947 and Pulp Fiction 1994 They show how existentialism and nihilism dominate the genre as they explore profound themes in a vital area of popular culture Living Intentionally in a Distracted World Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-11

McCue, Meera Balasubramaniam, 2016-10-27 This book provides a comprehensive view of rational suicide in the elderly a group that has nearly twice the rate of suicide when chronically ill than any other demographic Its frame of reference does not endorse a single point of view about the legitimacy of rational suicide which is evolving across societies with little guidance for geriatric mental health professionals Instead it serves as a resource for both those clinicians who agree that older people may rationally commit suicide and those who believe that this wish may require further assessment and treatment The first chapters of the book provides an overview of rational suicide in the elderly examining it through history and across cultures also addressing the special case of baby boomers This book takes an ethical and philosophical look at whether suicide can truly be rational and whether the nearness of death in late life adults means that suicide should be considered differently than in younger adults Clinical criteria for rational suicide in the elderly are proposed in this book for the first time as well as a guidelines for the psychosocial profile of an older adult who wants to commit rational suicide Unlike any other book this text examines the existential psychological and psychodynamic perspectives A chapter on terminal mental illness and a consideration of suicide in that context and proposed interventions even without a diagnosable mental illness also plays a vital role in this book as these are key issues in within the question of suicide among the elderly This book is the first to consider all preventative measures including the spiritual as well as the psychotherapeutic and pharmacologic A commentary on modern society aging and rational suicide that ties all of these elements together making this the ultimate guide for addressing suicide among the elderly Rational Suicide in the Elderly is an excellent resource for all medical professionals with potentially suicidal patients including geriatricians geriatric and general psychiatrists geriatric nurses social workers and public health officials Star Trek and Philosophy Jason T. Eberl, Kevin S. Decker, 2008 Essays address philosophical aspects of the five television series and ten feature films that make up the Star Trek fictional universe Provided by publisher The Philosophy of Palliative Care Fiona Randall, R S Downie, 2006-02-23 The philosophy of palliative care has long remained undisputed by health care professionals and philosophers This unique book reviews the ethical problems inherent within care of the terminally ill It suggests a new philosophy statement that could improve clinical care and take the specialty forward Reflections on Ethics and Responsibility Zachary J. Goldberg, 2017-02-06 The original essays in this book address the influential writings of Peter A French on the nature of responsibility ethics and moral practices French s contributions to a wide spectrum of philosophical discussions have made him a dominant figure in the fields of normative ethics meta ethics applied ethics as well as legal and political philosophy Many of French s deepest insights come from identifying and exploring the scope and nature of moral responsibility and human agency as they appear in actual events real social and cultural practices as well as in literature and film This immediacy renders French s scholarship vital and accessible to a wide variety of audiences The authors recognized for their own contributions to the understanding of the nature of morality and moral practices offer new and unique positions while exploring expanding and responding to those of French The final chapter is written by French in which he provides both new philosophical insight as well as some reflection on his own work and its influence This book will appeal to philosophers as well as advanced students and researchers in the humanities social sciences law and political science Creation, Evolution and Meaning Robin Attfield, 2018-07-17 This book presents the case for belief in both creation and evolution at the same time as rejecting creationism Issues of meaning supply the context of inquiry the book defends the meaningfulness of language about God and also relates belief in both creation and evolution to the meaning of life Meaning it claims can be found in consciously adopting the role of stewards of the planetary biosphere and thus of the fruits of creation Distinctive features include a sustained case for a realist understanding of language about God a contemporary defence of some of the arguments for belief in God and in creation a sifting of different versions of Darwinism and their implications for religious belief a Darwinian account of the relation of predation and other apparent evils to creation a new presentation of the argument from the world s value to the purposiveness of evolution and discussions of whether or not meaning itself evolves and of religious and secular bases for belief in stewardship
