Meanjin Vol 63 No 3:

British-Ish Ian Britain, 2004-08-26 Little White Slips Karen Hitchcock, 2009-09-01 An outstanding collection of short fiction from a bold new voice in contemporary literature The 13 stories in Karen Hitchcock's debut collection Little White Slips showcase a formidable new talent One of the most exciting recruits to the Australian Picador list in years Karen's writing is deeply personal strikingly feminine heart breakingly beautiful at times fearless and confronting and frequently hilarious Whether tackling a troubled marriage using an action figure of Sigmund Freud celebrating the apparent triumph of weight loss or coping with the stresses of balancing a career with motherhood the joys and frustrations of our lives are laid bare Hitchcock's often painfully honest observations are balanced by a wry humour and sharp wit And with stories encompassing growing up love betrayal sex marriage self image and our relationships with family friends and food there are few women and the odd man who will not recognise themselves in these tales Body and Mind Graeme Davison, Pat Jalland, Wilfrid Prest, 2009-07-15 Body and Mind pays tribute to one of Australia's most outstanding and influential historians F B Barry Smith Barry has made pioneering contributions to the political social and cultural histories of Britain and Australia and these essays range across the fields he made his own especially the interconnected histories of medicine body and ideas mind The editors bring together several generations of Barry's admirers colleagues friends and pupils including Joanna Bourke writing on war and industrial trauma Peter Edwards on the Agent Orange controversy Pat Jalland on death in the London Blitz and Phillipa Mein Smith on the idea of Australasia Body and Mind is a salute to the inestimable work and the life and times of F B Smith Remembering the Myall Creek Massacre Lyndall Ryan Jane Lydon, 2018-06-01 The 1838 Myall Creek Massacre is remembered for the brutality of the crime committed by white settlers against innocent Aboriginal men women and children but also because eleven of the twelve assassins were arrested and brought to trial Amid tremendous controversy seven were hanged Myall Creek was not the last time the colonial administration sought to apply the law equally to Aboriginal people and settlers but it was the last time perpetrators of a massacre were convicted and hanged Marking its 180th anniversary this book explores the significance of one of the most horrifying events of Australian colonialism Thoughtful and fearless it challenges us to look at our history without flinching as an act of remembrance and reconciliation

From International Relations to Relations International Philip Darby, 2015-12-22 This book brings postcolonial critique directly to bear on established ways of theorizing international relations Its primary concern is with the non European world and its relations with the North In advancing an alternative conception of relations international the book draws on alternative source material and different forms of writing It also features short stories an interview and explores the role of poetics and performance The suzerainty of the disciplinary writ is challenged on three primary grounds Firstly on its Eurocentrism which leads the discipline to pass lightly over the distinctive life experiences of most of the world's people Secondly on the discipline's failure to engage in any systematic way with other bodies of knowledge about the international

as for example international political economy postcolonialism and development Lastly it confronts the top down nature of the politics of the discipline and that seldom addresses everyday life From squatter towns to the evasions of the poor from law through to literature this work raises a number of problems for International relations It challenges a colonial mindset de centres the west and opens the field to new approaches that are far more inter disciplinary than international relations generally allows It is a provocative contribution for students and scholars of IR and Postcolonial studies alike

History Wars Doug Munro, 2021-10-21 In 1993 Manning Clark came under severe posthumous attack in the pages of Quadrant by none other than Peter Ryan who had published five of the six volumes of Clark's epic A History of Australia In applying what he called an overdue axe to a tall poppy Ryan lambasted the History as an imposition on Australian credulity and declared its author a fraud both as a historian and a person This unprecedented public assault by a publisher on his best selling author was a sensation at the time and remains lodged in the public memory In History Wars Doug Munro forensically examines the right and wrongs of Ryan's allegations concluding that Clark was more sinned against than sinning and that Ryan repeatedly misrepresented the situation More than just telling a story Munro places the Ryan Clark controversy within the context of Australia's History Wars This book is an illuminating saga of that ongoing contest James Curran University of Sydney The Ryan Clark controversy speaks to the place of Manning Clark in Australia's national imagination Had Ryan taken his axe to another historian it's unlikely that we would be still talking about it 30 years later But Clark was the author and keeper of Australia's national story however imperfect his scholarship and however blinkered that story Few if any historians in the Anglo American world have occupied the space that Clark occupied by dint of will force of personality and felicity of pen Donald Wright University of New Brunswick

The Hunter and other stories of men David Cohen, 2018-08-01 A property developer fears that a burgeoning ibis population will prevent the construction of a high rise apartment complex a bus stop outside a dementia care facility in Dusseldorf suffers its own identity crisis a young man's new job requires him to pose as a woodcutter and wave at a trainload of tourists an aging reclusive archivist becomes locked in a strange battle of wills with a courier a backpacker in Israel has a bizarre religious experience In these award winning stories David Cohen explores the oddities of human behaviour with wit affection and startling brilliance

Australia's Empire Deryck Marshall Schreuder, Stuart Ward, 2008-02-07 Australia's Empire is the first collaborative evaluation of Australia's imperial experience in more than a generation Bringing together political cultural and aboriginal understandings of the past it argues that the legacies of empire continue to influence the fabric of modern Australian society

Unholy Fury James Curran, 2015-05-01 In the early 1970s two titans of Australian and American politics Prime Minister Gough Whitlam and President Richard Nixon clashed over the end of the Vietnam war and the shape of a new Asia A relationship that had endured the heights of the Cold War veered dangerously off course and seemed headed for destruction Never before or since has the alliance sunk to such depths Drawing on sensational new evidence from once top secret American and Australian records this book portrays the bitter clash between these two leaders and their competing visions of the world As the Nixon White House went increasingly on the defensive in early 1973 reeling from the lethal drip of the Watergate revelations the first Labor prime minister in twenty three years looked to redefine ANZUS and Australia s global stance It was a heady brew and not one the Americans were used to The result was a fractured alliance and an American president enraged seemingly hell bent on tearing apart the fabric of a treaty that had become the first principle of Australian foreign policy The Devil and James McAuley

Cassandra Pybus,1999 Follows McAuley s life from his student days at Sydney Uni through the war years his conversion to Catholicism his anticommunist activities during the Cold War period and his editorship of Quadrant with revelations about CIA funding and involvement with ASIO A controversial new political biography Alan Moorehead Ann Moyal,2005 In this volume of the National Library s biography series An Australian Life Ann Moyal brilliantly illuminates the passion and creative energy which drove Alan Moorehead s life and work Moorehead was one of Australia s most adventurous and celebrated writers and his work remains a vitally important part of our literature George Seddon George

Seddon,2019-10-14 One of Australia s most revered environmental scholars and its most distinguished landscape essayist George Seddon was renowned for championing a sense of place giving that phrase a uniquely Australian substance He was a connoisseur of landscapes from the rugged Snowy Mountains to the humble domestic backyard With wit and deep knowledge he radically rethought our relationship with the environment considering everything from water to mining suburbs to wilderness Seddon was an extraordinary polymath a professor of geology the history and philosophy of science and environmental science who also taught in departments of English and philosophy He broke new ground in urban planning landscape architecture and environmental conservation The highlights of his wide ranging and always illuminating work are selected here by Andrea Gaynor with a lively introduction by historian Tom Griffiths Seddon s vision has enduring significance today he made life better planners more thoughtful and landscapes more beautiful he helped us see our country from the inside He was a maverick an original In his boyish way he encouraged us to wag school from time to time to climb fences to play and to challenge what we read with what we feel hear and see Tom Griffiths George Seddon s words are beacons Tim Flannery The 1960s in Australia Shirleene Robinson,Julie Ustinoff,2012-01-17 The 1960s is one of the most heavily mythologised decades of the twentieth century More than 50 years on the era continues to capture the public s imagination The 1960s in Australia People Power and Politics recognises the complexity of social and cultural change by presenting a broad range of contributions that acknowledge an often overlooked fact that not everyone experienced the 1960s in the same way The diversity of the time is confirmed by contributions from a number of expert Australian historians who each provide an insight into Australia in the 1960s offering an understanding of the social realities of this period as well as the ebbs and flows of transnational influence This collection includes a featured contribution by prominent Australian historian Raymond Evans who provides a personal insight into the 1960s Other contributors also place the lived experience at the centre of their analysis by considering the growth of modern flats the impact of cosmopolitanism and sex and sexuality in the Sixties The book also highlights the way power was deployed and deconstructed during this era by considering the psychiatric profession the agenda of the counter culture and the role that women s magazines played in reinforcing dominant gender paradigms The complex politics of the era are also explored through the transnational impact of figures such as Anthony Crosland the impact of the Vietnam War and the multiplicity of motivations behind the anti war protest and the Aboriginal rights movement of the era The 1960s in Australia Power People and Politics is a fresh focus on a significant time in Australia s history It brings together a collection of innovative and engaging explorations into the Australian Sixties which underline the complexity of the time Knowledge Solution: Australian History Anna Clark,2019-11-05 What can we learn from recurring events across the recent history of Australia of colonisation nationalism racism fighting on foreign shores land booms industrial campaigns and culture wars Arguments about the discipline of Australian History from thinkers across the ideological and historical spectrum are distilled in these extracts and essays The Knowledge Solution Australian History is the second collection in a series that draws from the remarkable books published by Australia s oldest university press Contributors include Bain Attwood Geoffrey Blainey Michael Cannon Raffaello Carboni Manning Clark Peter Cochrane James Curran Mark Davis Alexandra Delliros Richard Evans Michele Grossman Marcia Langton Helen MacDonald Stuart Macintyre Janet McCalman Mark McKenna Lisa Palmer Ray Parkin Rachel Perkins Robert Reynolds John Rickard Kathryn Shain Peter Spearritt Peter Sutton Rebe Taylor Maureen Tehan David Unaipon Jo Wainer Stuart Ward Ellen Warne Myra Willard and Alexis Wright Rock Dogs Marcus Breen,2006-07-26 Can rock n roll and politics mix Rock Dogs looks at the impact of government music policies on the Australian music scene youth culture and national identity This insightful and timely book is a candid observant study of the legacy of the Australian Labor Party s cultura Politics After Television Arvind Rajagopal,2001-01-25 An analysis of the use of media by political and religious interest groups in India Black Words, White Page Adam Shoemaker,2004-03-01 This award winning study the first comprehensive treatment of the nature and significance of Indigenous Australian literature was based upon the author s doctoral research at the ANU Power Of Speech James Curran,2014-07-18 The subjects of this book are five fascinating prime ministers Gough Whitlam Malcolm Fraser Bob Hawke Paul Keating and John Howard and how they view Australia Until the 1960s our nation believed itself to be British Then during a decade of momentous change this concept of our national identity collapsed It was buried by the forces of cultural and political renewal by disturbing and exciting developments in Asia and by a dawning recognition that the global era of colonial power was over The result was a crisis of national meaning reflected in public debates about multiculturalism Australia s relationships with its Asian neighbours the dispossession of indigenous Australians and the nation s involvement in war In recent years our political leaders have played a conspicuous role in the controversy In The Power of Speech James Curran explores the end of the idea of British Australia and how successive prime ministers have attempted to assert personal and often competing visions of Australian nationalism in its place This highly original study of prime ministerial rhetoric exposes the sources of our most powerful leaders beliefs about Australia Being Australian Catriona Elder,2020-07-24 After a century of speculation by writers filmmakers travelers and scholars being Australian has become a recognisable shorthand for a group of national characteristics Now in an era of international terrorism being seen as un Australian has become a potent rhetorical weapon for some and a badge of honour for others Catriona Elder explores the origins meaning and effects of the many stories we tell about ourselves and how they have changed over time She outlines some of the traditional stories and their role in Australian nationalism and she shows how concepts of egalitarianism peaceful settlement and sporting prowess have been used to create a national identity Elder also investigates the cultural and social perspectives that have been used to critique dominant accounts of Australian identity including ideas of class gender sexuality ethnicity and race She shows how these critiques have been in turn queried in recent years Being Australian is an ideal introduction to studying Australia for anyone interested in understanding Australian society culture and history A clever work incisive and original At a time when Australian identities have never been more debated Elder finds an open way through the closed doors which often restrict cultural representations of Australian ness Professor Adam Shoemaker Dean of Arts ANU This is a timely and significant new analysis essential reading on issues of identity and our own anxieties about national belonging and what it means to be Australian in a globalising world Kate Darian Smith Professor of Australian Studies and History University of Melbourne Cooloola Coast Elaine Rosemary Brown,2000 For the first time a human and environmental history of this magnificent Heritage listed region The informative narrative based text covers natural history features Aboriginal occupation and the crucial impact of white settlement during the nineteenth century Illustrated by photographs and maps a must read for anyone who has visited or plans to visit this magnificent world famous region
