communication The introduction and one further chapter probe changing conceptions on mass and interpersonal online and offline communication in research as in everyday life Three new chapters have been added to exemplify different forms of research employing multiple methods to study multiple media in multiple contexts List of contributors Klaus Bruhn Jensen Barrie Gunter Rasmus Helles Annette Hill Stig Hjarvard Peter Larsen Amanda Lotz Graham Murdock Horace Newcomb Paddy Scannell Lynn Schofield Clark Kim Christian Schröder Northern Lights, 2002 Visual Authorship Torben Kragh Grodal, Bente Larsen, Iben Thorving Laursen, 2005 Visual Authorship is a collection of essays which offers a new approach to the study of authorship The contributors point out that individual creativity is essential in the richly faceted media landscape of today The individual creativity and the role of authorship are discussed in relation to film television computer games and the Internet Theories of cognition and emotion offer new tools for the understanding of visual aesthetics they explain why works of art are created by individuals and not by discourses and ideologies Several contributors analyse in detail the works of Lars von Trier War and Media Andrew Hoskins, Ben O'Loughlin, 2010-08-23 The trinity of government military and publics has been drawn together into immediate and unpredictable relationships in a new media ecology that has ushered in new asymmetries in the waging of war and terror To help us understand these new relationships Andrew Hoskins and Ben O Loughlin here provide a timely comprehensive and highly readable survey of the field of war and media War is diffused through a complex mesh of our everyday media Paradoxically this both facilitates and contains the presence and power of enemies near and far The conventions of so called traditional warfare have been splintered by the availability and connectivity of the principal locus of war today the electronic and digital media Hoskins and O Loughlin identify and illuminate the conditions of what they term diffused war and the new challenges it raises for the actors who wage and counter warfare for their agents and mechanisms of the new media and for mass publics This book offers an invaluable review of the key literature and presents a fresh approach to the understanding of the dynamic relationships between war and media It will be welcomed by a broad range of students taking courses on war and media and related modules especially in media communication and cultural studies politics and international relations sociology journalism and security studies

Media and Development Richard Vokes, 2017-11-15 At the start of the 21st century the relationship between media and development has never felt more important Following a series of media revolutions throughout the developing world beginning with the advent of cheap transistor radio sets in the late 1960s followed by the rapid expansion of satellite television networks in the 1990s and the more recent explosion of mobile telephony social media and the internet a majority of people living in the Global South now have access to a wide variety of Information and Communications Technologies ICTs and live in media saturated environments Yet how can radio television and mobile phones be most effectively harnessed towards the goals of purposive economic social and political change Should they be seen as primarily a provider of channels through which useful information can be delivered to target populations in the hope that such information will alter those populations existing behaviours Or should they be seen as a tool for facilitating two way communication between development providers and their recipients i e as technologies for improving participatory development Or should new media environments be approached simply as sites in which people living in the developing world can define development on their own terms This timely and original book which is based on a critical reading of the relevant literatures and on the author s own extensive primary research introduces readers to all of these questions and helps them to reach their own informed positions on each It also examines the history of and current debates regarding media representations of development Drawing on case studies from all over the world including hate radio in Rwanda theatre for development in India telenovelas in Latin America mobile banking and money in Africa and GIS and humanitarianism in Haiti it will be of interest to all undergraduate and postgraduate students of media and development international development professionals and simply to anyone with an interest in how media does can or should change the world

The Mediatization of Culture and Society

Stig Hjarvard,2013 Mediatization has emerged as a key concept to reconsider old yet fundamental questions about the role and influence of media in culture and society In particular the theory of mediatization has proved fruitful for the analysis of how media spread to become intertwined with and influence other social institutions and cultural phenomena like politics play and religion This book presents a major contribution to the theoretical understanding of the mediatization of culture and society This is supplemented by in depth studies of The mediatization of politics From party press to opinion industry The mediatization of religion From the faith of the church to the enchantment of the media The mediatization of play From bricks to bytes The mediatization of habitus The social character of a new individualism Mediatization represents a new social condition in which the media have emerged as an important institution in society at the same time as they have become integrated into the very fabric of social and cultural life Making use of a broad conception of the media as technologies institutions and aesthetic forms Stig Hjarvard considers how characteristics of both old and new media come to influence human interaction social institutions and cultural imaginations

Media and the Politics of Arctic Climate Change Miyase Christensen, Annika E. Nilsson, N. Wormbs, 2013-10-31 Combining multidisciplinary perspectives and new research this volume goes beyond broad discussions of the impacts of climate change and reflects on the current and historical mediations and narratives that are part of creating this new social and scientific reality

Language in Society in Bangladesh and Beyond Shaila Sultana, Mian Md. Naushaad Kabir, Md. Zulfeqar Haider, Mohammad Moninoor Roshid, M. Obaidul Hamid, 2023-11-29 This collection presents a holistic picture of the sociolinguistic landscape in Bangladesh offering a critical understanding of language ideologies and social inequalities in the country as they connect more widely to dynamics in the Global South The book seeks to untangle the voices embedded in the language practices of a range of communities and professions in the region which have been little studied in the literature and encourage a rethinking of the relationships between language and nationality class ethnicity race and gender Highlighting perspectives from established and emerging researchers and drawing on a wide range of theoretical approaches and methodologies the volume is organized around such key themes as bilingualism and diglossia language variation across domains language and identity in literature and the interconnectedness of language identity and globalization Taken together the collection calls attention to the socially and spatially situated nature of language practices in Bangladesh and in turn the ways in which scholars in the Global South make sense of the sociolinguistic landscape at both the local and global levels This book will appeal to scholars working in sociolinguistics particularly those working on language policy language and identity language variation and in or about the Global South

Muslims Making British Media Carl Morris, 2022-11-17 Drawing on original fieldwork Carl Morris examines Muslim cultural production in Britain with a focus on the performance based entertainment industries music comedy film television and theatre It is a seminal study that charts the growing agency and involvement of British Muslims in cultural production over the last two decades Morris sets this discussion within the context of wider religious social and cultural change with important insights concerning the sociological profile religious lives and public visibility of Muslims in contemporary Britain Morris draws on theoretical considerations concerning the mediatization of religion and cosmopolitanization in a globally connected world He argues that a new generation of media savvy and internationalist Muslim cultural producers in Britain are constructing counter narratives in the public sphere and are reshaping everyday religious lives within their own communities This is having a profound impact upon areas that range from Islamic authority and religious practice to political and public debate and understandings of Muslim identity and belonging

Exploring Institutional Logics for Technology-Mediated Higher Education Neelam Dwivedi, 2019-03-19 This book articulates the complexities inherent in higher education s multi faceted response to the forces of mediatization or how institutions change when their social communication gets mediated by technology and introduces a novel perspective to comprehend them in a systematic way By drawing on archival analysis and six organizational case studies the author empirically traces the emergence of a cyber cultural institution within higher education As these case studies demonstrate this new institutional logic requires creativity individual recognition and an underlying platform powered by cyber technologies and digitization of content Using an analytical lens this cyber cultural perspective answers many questions about why faculty refuse to adopt online education why students struggle with mediated teaching and what possibly could be done to take online education to its next level

Globaliseringens udfordringer Martin Marcussen, Karsten Ronit, 2009 Mediatization of Politics F. Esser, J. Strömbäck, 2014-05-07 The first book long analysis of the mediatization of politics this volume aims to understand the transformations of the relationship between media and politics in recent decades and explores how growing media autonomy journalistic framing media populism and new media technologies affect democratic processes Nordic Noir Lothar Mikos, Lea Gamula, 2014-06-01 Mit Stig Larssons Millenium Trilogie haben skandinavische Krimis und ihre Adaptionen in Film und Fernsehen nicht nur Europa sondern den Weltmarkt und international die Herzen der Zuschauer erobert Auch in der deutschen Fernsehlandschaft haben sich die Serien aus dem skandinavischen Raum einen festen Platz gesichert Lea Gamula und Lothar Mikos zeigen die Gründe für den internationalen Erfolg skandinavischer Fernsehserien auf. Vor dem Hintergrund der internationalen Serienproduktion und ihrer Entwicklung stellen sie den skandinavischen Sonderweg vor, der trotz internationaler Orientierung seine ganz eigene nationale Identität bewahrt hat. Die Autoren geben Einblick in die spezifischen Formen der Ästhetik und der Narration sowie in die Besonderheiten des skandinavischen Marktes und die dortigen Produktionsweisen. Denn trotz internationaler Orientierung zeichnen sich skandinavische Fernsehserien durch einen besonderen eben skandinavischen Look aus, der oft auch als Nordic Noir bezeichnet wird. Außerdem stellen sie die qualitativ hochwertigen und vielprmierten Serien wie Protectors, Kommissarin Lund, Forbrydelsen, Die Brücke, Broen und Gefährliche Seilschaften Borgen vor, welche bereits großen Zuspruch eines internationalen Publikums fanden. Amerikanische Produzenten wurden aufmerksam und stellten Adaptionen der Serien für den amerikanischen Markt her. The Killing eine Adaption von Kommissarin Lund wurde in mehreren Staffeln produziert. The Bridge mit Diane Kruger in der Hauptrolle neu gedreht.
