The Modernisation of EC Antitrust Law Rein Wesseling, 2000-10-19 In recent years European Community EC competition law has come under fire Continued criticism of all aspects of the means by which EC competition law is enforced has brought to light ineffectiveness of the present system Consequently the European Commission has responded by issuing the White Paper on Modernisation which sets out its vision on the future of EC competition law This new book takes a step back and tries to understand the current challenges to EC competition policy by examining the origins of the Community's competition law system In the first part of the book the author sketches the development of Community competition law enforcement between the European Economic Community established in 1958 and the European Union of today Taking this dynamic perspective on EC competition law the second part of the book addresses topical problems of EC competition policy the pertinent objectives the institutional framework the division of jurisdiction between the Community and Member States and decentralised enforcement of Community law Notably the author's conclusions diverge considerably from the analysis found in the Commission White Paper on Modernisation The author proposes various alternative solutions to the existing problems which arguably fit better within the overall constitutional development of the Community than the solutions offered by the Commission The book will be of interest to competition lawyers as well as to all those interested in the constitutional development of the European Community

The European Court and National Courts Anne Marie Slaughter,Alec Stone Sweet,Joseph Weiler,1998-03-01 The essays comprising this volume are the outcome of a major and unique project which looks in detail at the application of EC law by national courts and the interaction of the demands of EC law with the constraints imposed by national legal orders and especially national constitutional orders The volume comprises seven country studies which are shaped around a common research protocol These are supplemented by three cross cutting studies which draw on the country studies as well as on broader contextual research work aimed at trying to understand the role of the European Court of Justice in the round The results of this multi national research are certain to provoke widespread interest among scholars of European law international law and European politics for they offer the first systematic and rigorous attempt to assess the impact of the ECJ among the leading member states of the European Union European Labour Law Brian Bercusson,2009-07-09 This
