New Directions In Religion And Aging:

New Directions in Religion and Aging, 1987 New Directions in the Study of Late Life Religiousness and Spirituality

Susan H. Mcfadden, Mark Brennan, 2014-05-01 Examine the questions of how what and why associated with religiousness and spirituality in the lives of older adults New Directions in the Study of Late Life Religiousness and Spirituality explores new ways of thinking about a topic that was once taboo but that has now attracted considerable attention from the gerontological community It examines various approaches to methodology and definition that are used in the study of religion spirituality and aging In addition it explores the ways that gerontological research can highlight the role of religion and spirituality in the lives of older adults The first section will introduce you to new ways of thinking about research methodology and data analysis that can be applied to studying the complexity of older adults religious spiritual practice and beliefs You ll learn several approaches to the study of phenomena that are both personal and also deeply embedded in community The second section addresses issues of definition exploring important questions that call for critical reflection such as What are we studying What social and psychological influences shape our thinking about definition and Do the definitions used by gerontologists match those held by older people The final section moves the study of religion spirituality and aging beyond a focus on health and mortality to examine well being more broadly in the context of the life experiences of older adults Here is a small sample of what you ll learn about in New Directions in the Study of Late Life Religiousness and Spirituality structural equation modeling a statistical method designed to capture the dynamics inherent in the passage of time feminist qualitative methods for studying spiritual resiliency in older women spirituality as a public health issue the differences between groups of older people in the way they define religion and spirituality the psychosocial implications of two types of religious orientation dwelling and seeking older women s responses to the experience of widowhood and to the question of whether their religious beliefs were affected by the experience how social context influences our decisions and our interpretations of people s religious beliefs behaviors and experiences the ways that people caring for a spouse with dementia rely on religious coping a model that delineates three different ways people relate to God in coping and a study that asks whether these types of coping produce different outcomes for caregivers how people adjust to bereavement as a function of their beliefs about an afterlife

Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services James W Ellor, F. Ellen Netting, 2012-12-06 Gain an understanding of the increased role religious congregations now play in providing social support to the elderly Religious congregations and faith based organizations FBO from the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions have worked on behalf of older adults for centuries But the initiation of President Bush s Office of Faith Based Initiatives has raised many questions from both the traditional secular and sectarian services as well as many nontraditional services found in each community Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services addresses the issues of the separation of church and state the concerns involved in developing social services in religious congregations and the larger public policy implications of this office This unique book offers perspectives from traditional and nontraditional faith based groups as well as experts in volunteerism The enactment by Congress of the Charitable Choice section of the federal welfare reform law combined with the creation of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives in the United States Department of Health and Human Services to signal a high level of interest in supporting faith based organizations Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services focuses on the specific applications of services provided by religious congregations Editors F Ellen Netting and James W Ellor conducted an in depth interview with Elizabeth Seal Scott then Director of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives an edited transcript of the interview is included in the book to help promote understanding of the development and implementation of faith based grass roots programs Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services examines the separation of church and state Baptist perspectives on faith based initiatives and religious liberty managing older volunteers faith organizations and ethnically diverse elders the heritage of religion and spirituality in the field of gerontology faith related agencies and their implications for aging services the role of religious congregations in the social service system Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services is an essential resource for anyone interested in developing programs for older adults in religious congregations for human services staffs seeking to work with faith based initiatives and for government workers in need of a better understanding of faith based services in their community Wising Up Kathy Black, Heather Murray

Elkins, 2010-04-01 Wising Up provides rituals and guidance for women as they age It helps them make the often difficult life transitions wisely and in the context of their faith communities Instead of focusing exclusively on time worn thresholds such as menopause marriage and divorce and dying the book contains affirming rituals on coming to terms with the changes in one's body learning to live with and depend on an item like a walker or a hearing aid giving up one's driver's license deciding how to give away one's household contents and being orphaned In addition to the rituals and guidelines on how to create one's own rituals the book contains a number of short stories hymns prayers quotations and poems to help ease women through the aging process Contributors Susan Beehler Teresa Berger Kathy Black Ruth Duck Heather Murray Elkins Brigitte Enzner Probst Martha Whitmore Hickman Martha Ann Kirk Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Susan Roll Deborah Sokolove Linda J Vogel and Janet Walton Aging, Spirituality, and Pastoral Care James W Ellor, 2013-05-13 How can you foster spiritual growth in older people This multidisciplinary work re-examines issues of aging with dignity and spiritual meaning Aging Spirituality and Pastoral Care A Multi National Perspective brings together chaplains pastors counselors and health care practitioners in all walks of gerontology from around the world to present a fully rounded picture of the spiritual needs and potentialities of this fast growing population It also includes a study of the spiritual awareness of nurses working in six different nursing homes as well as a model for a parish nursing practice that focuses on the aged Aging Spirituality and Pastoral Care addresses urgent issues for older people including social and spiritual isolation the wisdom of the aging the need for intimacy sexuality among older people living with dementia the spiritual dimensions of caregiving Aging,

Spirituality and Palliative Care Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2006 The period of time when a person approaches death is always difficult both for the patient and the caregiver Aging Spirituality and Palliative Care discusses best practices in aged and palliative care while addressing patients diverse spiritual needs Leading authorities presentations from the Third International Conference on Ageing and Spirituality in Adelaide Australia in 2004 explore practical sensitive spiritual approaches to help older patients deal with aging illness and approaching death Each chapter is carefully referenced and many include tables and figures that enhance understanding of research data Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry s programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn t center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries Spirituality, Religion, and Aging Holly Nelson-Becker, 2017-02-01 This highly integrative book was written for students professionals in aging religious leaders and older adults themselves Readers will gain the knowledge and skills they need to assess engage and address the spiritual and religious needs of older persons Taking a fresh approach that breaks new ground in the field the author discusses eight major world religions and covers values and ethics theories interventions health and caregiving depression and anxiety dementia and the end of life Meditations and exercises throughout the book allow readers to expand and explore their personal understanding of spirituality Referencing the latest research the book includes assessments and skill based tools designed to help practitioners enhance the mental health of older people Practical Theology for Aging Derrell R. Watkins, 2013-01-11 Learn new approaches for strengthening the religious bonds of our aging population Through Scripture studies and the personal experiences of religious leaders and congregants Practical Theology for Aging offers new concepts for ministering to our older population Each chapter looks at a different concern for the elderly and addresses it with the assurance that aging is part of God s great work From scientific models and case studies to passages from both the Old and New Testaments this volume illuminates the power of faith in keeping the elderly whole and well Practical Theology for Aging reveals several barriers to the spiritual wellness of our elders These include society s stereotypical views of frailty and incompetence in older people the lack of common support by communities of faith and the dissatisfaction of the elderly with outdated traditional answers to their concerns of aging suffering and death Each barrier can be overcome by utilizing the practical theology you will find in this book Restated throughout the volume is the message that the journey into old age does not have to be filled with dread and fear but can be seen as a path to spiritual maturity This book has practical suggestions that address God s purpose for aging why do we have to grow old sexual health for senior citizens the suffering and physical debilitation that sometimes accompany aging afflictions like dementia and Alzheimer s disease and how to minister to the unresponsive the inclusion of spirituality in rehabilitation to heal the whole person after catastrophic illness or injury preaching to senior citizens as opposed to preaching to a younger congregation so much more Practical Theology for Aging presents tips and strategies for spiritual advisement as well as traditional quotes and references reminding us to respect and honor our aging men and women Whether you are a religious leader caretaker family member or esteemed elder this book is vital for strengthening spirituality in the elderly and promoting their inclusion into the religious community

Gerontology in Theological Education Barbara P. Payne, 1989 Gerontology in Theological Education provides a wealth of useful information to those interested in planning the introduction or improvement of gerontological materials in the curriculum of theological schools The need for including aging in the professional education of the clergy is clear yet it is a relatively unmet need In response to this general lack of gerontological training in theological education this landmark volume documents a model project planned and implemented at the Gerontology Center at Georgia State University and provides suggestions for its use elsewhere Administrators and faculty will find here the results of a national study of gerontology in theological education Detailed descriptions of eight innovative programs nationwide and an extensive bibliography will also provide guidance for administrators and faculty interested in locating materials that relate to their gerontological concerns
