

The book cover features a photograph of a landscape. In the background, a long, low, light-colored building with several windows is visible. In the foreground, a grassy slope is covered with several large, rusted metal pipes that appear to be leaking or have been abandoned. The ground is uneven, with some bare soil and sparse vegetation. The entire image is overlaid with a faint, light-colored topographic map showing contour lines and some text labels like 'e. Węgrów' and 'CMT'.

New Ecological Order

Joshtrom Isaac Kureethadam

New Ecological Order:

The New Ecological Order Luc Ferry, 1995-08-15 Is ecology in the process of becoming the object of our contemporary passions in the same way that Fascism was in the 30s or Communism under Stalin In The New Ecological Order Luc Ferry offers a penetrating critique of the ideological root of the Deep Ecology movement spreading throughout the United States Germany and France Traditional ecological movements or democratic ecology seek to protect the environment of human societies they are pragmatic and reformist But another movement has become the refuge both of nostalgic counterrevolutionaries and of leftist illusions This is deep ecology Its followers go beyond practical critique of human greed and waste they call into question the very possibility of human coexistence with nature Ferry launches his critique by examining early European legal cases concerning the status and rights of animals including a few notorious cases where animals were brought to trial found guilty and publicly hanged He then demonstrates that German Romanticism embraced certain key ideas of the deep ecology movement concerning the protection of animals and the environment Later adopted by the Nazis many of these ideas point to a profoundly antihumanistic component of deep ecology that is compatible with totalitarianism Ferry shows how deep ecology casts aside all the gains of human autonomy since the Enlightenment Far from denying our duty in relation to nature The New Ecological Order offers a bracing caution against the dangers of environmental claims and more important against the threat to democracy contained in the deep ecology doctrine when pushed to its extreme

A New Ecological Order Ștefan Dorondel, Stelu Șerban, 2022-05-03 The rise of industrial capitalism in the nineteenth century forged a new ecological order in North American and Western European states radically transforming the environment through science and technology in the name of human progress Far less known are the dramatic environmental changes experienced by Eastern Europe in many ways a terra incognita for environmental historians and anthropologists A New Ecological Order explores from a historical and ethnographic perspective the role of state planners bureaucrats and experts engineers agricultural engineers geographers biologists foresters and architects as agents of change in the natural world of Eastern Europe from 1870 to the early twenty first century Contributors consider territories engulfed by empires from the Habsburg to the Ottoman to tsarist Russia territories belonging to disintegrating empires and countries in the Balkan Peninsula Central and Eastern Europe and Eurasia Together they follow a rhetoric of correcting nature a desire to exploit the natural environment and put its resources to work for the sake of developing the economies and infrastructures of modern states They reveal an eagerness among newly established nation states after centuries of imperial economic and political impositions to import scientific knowledge and new technologies from Western Europe that would aid in their economic development and how those imports and ideas about nature ultimately shaped local projects and policies

Ecopolitics Verena Andermatt Conley, 2006-07-13

Ecopolitics is a study of environmental awareness or non awareness in contemporary French theory Arguing that it is now impossible not to think in an ecological way Verena Andermatt Conley traces the roots of today s concern for the environment back to the intellectual climate of the late 50s and 60s The author considers key texts by influential figures such as Michael Serres Paul Virilio Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Michel de Certeau H l ne Cixous and Luce Irigaray Ecopolitics rehabilitates some ecological components of French intellectual thought of the past thirty years and reassesses French poststructural thinkers who explicitly deal with ecology in their work

 Attempts to theorize contemporary globalization rarely stray beyond variations on old themes of superordination versus global relations is needed Nelson Keith challenges the presumptions upon which Western notions of the world have rested

 Curry,2011-08-29 In this thoroughly revised and updated second edition of the highly successful Ecological Ethics Patrick Curry shows that a new and truly ecological ethic is both possible and urgently needed With this distinctive proposition in mind Curry introduces and discusses all the major concepts needed to understand the full range of ecological ethics He discusses light green or anthropocentric ethics with the examples of stewardship lifeboat ethics and social ecology the mid green or intermediate ethics of animal liberation rights and dark or deep green ecocentric ethics Particular attention is given to the Land Ethic the Gaia Hypothesis and Deep Ecology and its offshoots Deep Green Theory Left Biocentrism and the Earth

 Modern Worldview traces the conceptual sources of the present environmental degradation within the worldview of Modernity and particularly within the thought of Ren Descartes universally acclaimed as the father of modern philosophy The book demonstrates how the triple foundations of the Modern worldview in terms of an exaggerated anthropocentrism a mechanistic conception of the natural world and the metaphysical dualism between humanity and the rest of the physical world can all be largely traced back to Cartesian thought with direct ecological consequences Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau, Marnie M. Sullivan, 2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non human elements of the natural world a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America the Caribbean and Africa The discussions include fiction poetry film and pedagogy The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English
