New Era In Religious Communication:

The New Era in Religious Communication Pierre Babin, M. Iannone, 1991 Pierre Babin widely regarded as one of the most original and farweeing thinkers about religious communication in the world today here explores the deeper religious meaning of the revolution in global communication from back cover The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism Envisioning the Word Richard A. Jensen, 2005 In this one volume resource kit Jensen helps preachers use visual images creatively and responsibly How how much when what equipment use of teams relationship to exegesis different varieties of images sources all the essential topics and concerns are addressed here Jensen first discusses how vital if controversial image making has always been in Christian tradition and then demonstrates how preaching with images is both profoundly traditional and necessary to contemporary proclamation His work combines practical advice with religious reflection to enable preachers to help their congregations envision the Word anew The accompanying CD ROM contains not only the full text of the book and helpful study guide but links to the most helpful Websites and Web based sources of images Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church Warren Anthony Kappeler, 2009 Communication has become an important theme and heuristic concept in practical theology for Roman Catholics during the ecumenical age Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church explains why the moral order is given priority in Vatican teaching about communication and the reasons for Catholic social teaching to make moral judgments about these new realities Attention is given in the book to the historical context of Vatican Councils I and II The first chapter shows that behind the pilgrim Church lies an emerging vision of the threefold ecclesial offices of priest prophet and king Chapter two examines the text and context of the Second Vatican Council's pastoral decree Inter Mirifica Chapter three provides a documented history of the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Social Communication and its teachings In chapter four we return to the threefold office and examine the contribution of Pope John Paul II It includes an analysis of how the politics of the Magisterium shapes Catholic social teaching Chapter five develops major tenets of a critical analysis of the communication of the post Vatican II Church attention is given to the discursive aspects of religious authority argumentation bureaucratization and market culture Chapter six takes a step toward examining the pragmatics of contemporary Vatican teaching For Roman Catholic moral theology religious ethics is now deeply concerned with providing moral teaching and guidance on ethical questions raised by the social conditions of globalization and media communication Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church concludes that there are three basic sociological and theological aspects of the pilgrim Church. These include a ritual approach to religious communication, the generational experience of Catholics and their respective attitudes toward Church teaching, and the important link in the faith's praxis between reflexivity and forming habits of communication. Opportunities and Limitations in Religious Broadcasting Peter Elvy, 1991 Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu, 2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues, topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism.

Managing Britannia Robert Protherough, John Pick, 2016-07-06 For more than thirty years the solution to all Britain's problems has been better management. As a result, management schools dominate higher education and managers are at work everywhere, developing strategies and systems and quantifying outcomes. There are now more managers on the rail network than train drivers, yet the benefits of modern management of railways, schools, hospitals and universities are elusive. This is because management does not exist; the academic study of management science and the assumption that there are universal management skills are bogus. This book shows how modern management practices have all but destroyed politics, education, culture and religion; modern management is the cause of our national malaise. Belief in Media Mary E. Hess, 2020-07-24 Most works on media developments and Christianity approach the subject from the perspective of the implications of new media technologies for traditional Christian practices or how churches can use new media to further their goals. The common framework of analysis is a given reality of traditional institutional Christianity and how it interacts with, affects and is affected by media. Media are treated as a separate cultural reality. This book presents in an accessible form the new directions that approach the interaction of media and religion from a cultural perspective and illustrates these new directions by a number of international and intercultural case studies and explorations. Looking at how global media are constructing cultural forms, structures and processes, the authors show how these have become the life out of which individual and social meaning is created and practised. Examining how individuals create religious meaning by interacting with media of various kinds, crossing boundaries of traditional religious cultures and contemporary media cultures, this book reveals how Christian institutions are also defined in the process of living culturally within their broader media context.

Thinking in Story Richard A. Jensen, 1993 We are living on the boundary between the print and electronic era. Richard A. Jensen says that as we move into the electronic world we must seriously rethink most of what we do. This book calls us to reinvestigate preaching in our time. Well grounded in an understanding of communication cultures, this book is a rare gift. In theory and practice, Jensen helps preachers rethink what they are doing and offers a strategy for effective communication in an electronic era. Richard L. Thulin, Th. D. Dean and Professor of Preaching, Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Jensen's thinking in story thesis provides a scholarly, logical rationale for why it both feels and is so right. Jensen applies his thinking in story concept to biblical material as well. His approach helps us to see individual texts stories in light of the larger biblical story which opens up many new avenues for preaching Thomas Rogers Assistant Professor of Homiletics Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary Berkeley California These are solid prescriptions for our media saturated times calling for a shift in our very approach to proclamation Jensen is quite right in this goal that preaching needs to compel participation in the narratives of scripture not merely an understanding of them James Nieman Assistant Professor of Homiletics Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa Richard A Jensen is a trained systematic theologian having taught these subjects at Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa from 1971 1981 He is author of Telling The Story Since 1982 he has served in the communication department of the American Lutheran Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He produces the weekly radio program Lutheran Vespers and several series of television programs

Viva Vox Joshua D. Genig, 2015-03-01 In failing to take the sacramentality of the word of God seriously the preaching of the church has suffered negative consequences As a result preaching has often become at best a form of instruction or at worst an incantation of sorts rather than an integral part of deepening our relationship with Christ by functioning sacramentally to bring about divine participation with Jesus corporeal humanity in his living word In order to recover this sacramental reality this volume argues that one should consider the annunciation to Mary where with the sermon of Gabriel the corporeal Christ took up residence in the flesh of his hearer and delivered to her precisely what was contained within his own flesh the fullness of the Godhead Col 2 9 When understood as a biblical paradigm for the church it becomes clear that what happened to Mary can indeed happen to Christians of the present day Proclamation thus delivers the Christ to us
