New Framework For Christian Belief:

Tomorrow's Faith Adrian B. Smith, 2005 Adrian Smith summarizes the differences between the old ways of Christian thinking and the new ones that will take it forward into the next century A new framework for Christian belief Adrian B. Smith, 2002 In common with all human beings as spiritual creatures Christians carry a set of beliefs about the reality which they name God which underlies existence and which is a guide through life For some the seeds of this were planted in early childhood by parents Sunday School Catechism class or early experiences of the sacred church and were thought about questioned and became more personal as these people matured For others the set of beliefs came later in life as they sought to understand what being a Christian meant Christianity Expanding Don MacGregor, 2020-10-30 All religions evolve and Christianity is evolving rapidly today Don MacGregor's book is a lucid and thoughtful guide to this process and shows how the essential core teachings of Christianity can be disentangled from unhelpful interpretations that stand in the way of a living Christian faith in the twenty first century I found this book stimulating and inspiring It is also admirably brief and clear Dr Rupert Sheldrake biologist and author of A New Science of Life Christianity Expanding Into Universal Spirituality takes us on a whistle stop tour of the areas that need updating if Christianity is to flourish in the 21st Century New science ecological concern and the need for new theology are all converging into a maelstrom of change With broad brushstrokes on a big canvas a path of personal transformation is charted drawing on the mysterious Perennial Wisdom teachings that have survived down the ages Pulling no punches Don MacGregor delves into typically taboo subjects such as reincarnation drawing a distinction between Jesus and the Christ This dynamic first volume of The Wisdom Series is an initial outline of areas that demand ongoing exploration The Moot Papers Keith Clements, 2015-02-26 The Moot was the study and discussion group set by J H Oldham 1874-1969 following the 1937 Oxford conference on Church Community and State Its purpose was to continue in an informal but serious way exploration of the relation between church and society and the realization of Christian ethics in the public sphere The Moot met twice or three times a year from 1938 to 1947 21 times in all and was convened by Oldham with the conscious intention of responding to the grave crisis that was felt to be facing western society in Britain no less than on the continent of Europe Overall some 35 people attended the Moot at one time or another but its core comprised a small number of regular members who were representative of the highest levels in theology social science and public affairs In addition to Oldham himself they included T S Eliot H A Hodges Eleonora Iredale Adolf L we Karl Mannheim Walter Moberly John Middleton Murry and Alec Vidler Other participants included Kathleen Bliss Fred Clarke Christopher Dawson H H Farmer Hector Hetherington Walter Oakshott and Gilbert Shaw while notables such as Reinhold Niebuhr Melville Channing Pearce Donald McKinnon Philip Mairet Leslie Newbiggin William Paton Frank Pakenham later Lord Longford Michael Polanyi and Oliver Tomkins made occasional guest appearances Against the background of impending and then actual war the discussions in the Moot repeatedly focused on the planned nature of modern society and therewith the roles if any within it of moral choice and the Christian community Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today's church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos Buddhist and Christian? Rose Drew, 2013-07-03 This is a detailed exploration of Buddhist Christian dual belonging engaging from both Buddhist and Christian perspectives the questions that arise and drawing on extensive interviews with well known individuals in the vanguard of this important and growing phenomenon The issue is pressing insofar the last century has witnessed a gradual but profound transformation of the West's religious landscape In today's context of diversity people are often influenced by more than one religion Multireligious identities are consequently on the rise At one end of the spectrum are those who identify themselves as fully belonging to more than one tradition One of the most prevalent combinations is Christianity and Buddhism This book addresses central and fundamental questions How is it possible to be authentically Buddhist and authentically Christian when for example God is central to Christianity yet absent from Buddhism when Christians have faith in Jesus Christ while Buddhists take refuge in the Buddha when Christians hope for heaven and Buddhists hope for nirvana and when Buddhists and Christians engage in different practices Are those who identify themselves as belonging to both traditions profoundly irrational religiously schizophrenic or perhaps just spiritually superficial Or is it possible somehow to reconcile the thought and practice of Buddhism and Christianity in such a way that one can be deeply committed to both And if it is possible will the influence of Buddhist Christians on each of these traditions be something to be regretted or celebrated Spirit Release Sue Allen, 2010-05-11 Spirit Release covers psychic attack curses witchcraft spirit attachment haunting soul rescue deliverance and exorcism This comprehensive guide has been developed over many years as course material in the College of Psychic Studies in London It looks at the symptoms of psychic attack and spiritual attachments what to do and how to prevent them Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher's theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew

Setting Jesus Free John Churcher, 2009-12-16 There is a new global spiritual movement that supports people to think outside of the traditional boxes of faith and their inherited understandings of God As part of this development this book is intended for those who are on the margins of the Christian Church

Why Christian? Douglas John Hall, 1998-01-01 In these dialogues with doubt Douglas John Hall enters into an earnest search with a young inquirer who is on the edges of Christian faith Half familiar with superficial aspects of Christianity hopeful of there being greater depth than found so far she or he is curious insistent looking for something to believe in but not ready to leap without good reason Such as person is asking Why be Christian From publisher s description
