Timothy Shary

New German Cinema Images Of A Generation:

New German Cinema Julia Knight, 2004 Comprising a discussion of Alice in the Cities The Bitter Tears of Petra von Kant Heimat and The American Friend Julia Knight's study examines the American dominance of German film the framework of European art cinema and how German cinema engages with contemporary German reality A Critical History of German Film Stephen Brockmann, 2010 A history of German film dealing with individual films as works of art has long been needed Existing histories tend to treat cinema as an economic rather than an aesthetic phenomenon earlier surveys that do engage with individual films do not include films of recent decades This book treats representative films from the beginnings of German film to the present Providing historical context through an introduction and interchapters preceding the treatments of each era's films the volume is suitable for semester or year long survey courses and for anyone with an interest in German cinema The films The Student of Prague The Cabinet of Dr Caligari The Last Laugh Metropolis The Blue Angel M Triumph of the Will The Great Love The Murderers Are among Us Sun Seekers Trace of Stones The Legend of Paul and Paula Sunny The Bridge Young T rless Aguirre The Wrath of God Germany in Autumn The Marriage of Maria Braun The Tin Drum Marianne and Juliane Wings of Desire Maybe Maybe Not Rossini Run Lola Run Good Bye Lenin Head On The Lives of Others Stephen Brockmann is Professor of German at Carnegie Mellon University and past President of the German Studies Association Nation and Identity in the New German Cinema Inga Scharf, 2008-06-30 This book investigates the construction of national identity in films of the New German Cinema using for the first time an explicitly cultural studies methodology Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany's as well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb, 2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade's cinema. The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change. Bringing issues of space and place to the fore, the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema, showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations. Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco to London, Paris and Berlin. Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts, the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood: The Conversation, The King of Marvin Gardens, Rocky to European art cinema: Alice in the Cities, The Passenger, Tout va bien, and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film. Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films, the book argues that the decade's cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties. Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history, the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies.

Hans-Jürgen Syberberg, the Film Director as Critical Thinker R. J. Cardullo, 2016-12-27 Hans Jürgen Syberberg is an original, the most controversial of all the New German directors and a figure who has long been at the vanguard of the resurgence of experimental filmmaking in his homeland. Syberberg's most characteristic films examine recent German history: a documentary for example about Richard Wagner's daughter-in-law who was a close friend of Hitler, The Confessions of Winifred Wagner (1975). But especially historical is his trilogy covering one hundred years of Germany's past, including most famously Hitler: A Film from Germany also known as Our Hitler (1977). In this film and other works, Syberberg unites fictional narrative and documentary footage in a style that is at once cinematic and theatrical, mystical and magical. Hans Jürgen Syberberg: the Film Director as Critical Thinker: Essays and Interviews is the first edited book in English devoted to this director's work and includes his most important English language interviews as well as some of the best English language essays on his work. In sum, this book is a significant contribution not only to the study of Syberberg's oeuvre but also to the study of German history and politics in the second half of the twentieth century. Mise-en-scène John Gibbs, 2012-08-14

Mise en scène: Film Style and Interpretation explores and elucidates constructions of this fundamental concept in thinking about film. In uncovering the history of mise en scène within film criticism and through the detailed exploration of scenes from films as Imitation of Life and Lone Star, John Gibbs makes the case for the importance of a sensitive understanding of film style and provides an introduction to the skills of close reading. This book thus celebrates film making as well as film criticism that is alive to the creative possibilities of visual style. Film Programming Peter Bosma, 2015-06-09 This study explores artistic choices in cinema exhibition, focusing on film theaters, film festivals and film archives and situating film curating issues within an international context Artistic and commercial film availability has increased overwhelmingly as a result of the digitization of the infrastructure of distribution and exhibition The film trade s conventional structures are transforming and in the digital age supply and demand can meet without the intervention of traditional gatekeepers everybody can be a film curator in a passive or active way This volume addresses three kinds of readers those who want to become film curators those who want to research the film curating phenomenon and those critical cinema visitors who seek to investigate the story behind the selection process of available films and the way to present them Film Noir Mark Bould,2005 Film Noir explores the murky world of a genre responsible for many of film s most enduring images Mark Bould discusses problems of definition and the often ambiguous nature of film noir and looks at contemporary neo noir films Iconic and enduring film noir attracted great stars Bogart Bacall Mitchum Lancaster many of the best directors of the postwar period Wilder Lang Preminger Hawks Siodmak Welles and in considering the history and continuing importance of noir from Weimar Cinema to Sin City this book is an indispensable guide to this still popular genre Teen Movies Timothy Shary,2005 Teen Movies American Youth on Screen is a detailed look at the depiction of teens on film and its impact throughout film s history Timothy Shary looks at the development of the teen movie the rebellion the romance the sex and the horror up to contemporary portrayals of ever changing youth Films studied include Rebel Without a Cause 1955 Splendor in the Grass 1961 Carrie 1976 The Breakfast Club 1985 and American Pie 1999
