New Essays On The Maternal Voice In The Nineteenth Century:

New Essays on the Maternal Voice in the Nineteenth Century Barbara Thaden, 1995-01-01 The Maternal Voice in Victorian Fiction Barbara Z. Thaden, 2013-10-28 This is the first full length study to focus specifically on representations of motherhood in fiction by such Victorian writers as Elizabeth Gaskell Margaret Oliphant Caroline Norton and Ellen Price Wood These authors presented an idealized view of motherhood as part of a campaign to gain social and legal status for mothering in a society in which married women were not legal entities and children born in wedlock were the inalienable property of their fathers These writers used dead mother plots which reversed New Testament parables so that the mother plays the leading role and maternal circle plots which portray adult daughters and their mothers raising children outside marriage This fiction which showed how children benefit from good mothering was instrumental in married mothers eventually obtaining equal parental rights Elizabeth Gaskell Nancy S. Weyant, 2004-04-21 A great deal has been written about Elizabeth Gaskell in the past decade and Elizabeth Gaskell An Annotated Guide to English Language Sources 1992 2001 builds upon Weyant's 1994 work which covered some 350 sources published between 1976 and 1991 This supplement identifies almost 600 new books book chapters journal articles dissertations and master and honor theses on the life and writings of Gaskell Contents include two appendixes of new editions of Gaskell's works in print and digital audio and video formats a selection of websites citations of many brief articles in the Gaskell Newsletter that are generally ignored in standard indexes numerous sources that would otherwise be difficult to locate and an author and subject index Quatri me de couverture Margaret Oliphant's Curative Gothic Literature Katerina García-Walsh, 2025-11-06 Prolific Scottish novelist Margaret Oliphant 1828 1897 remembered chiefly for her realist fiction and biting literary criticism of contemporary authors also wrote nineteen supernatural tales This monograph offers a comprehensive exploration of Oliphant's Gothic literature in the light of her religious beliefs cultural context and experiences of death and mourning as she survived her husband and all six of her children Oliphant's stories set in the afterlife depict the dead as inhabiting a new existence characterised by spiritual growth while her tales set on earth attempt contact between the mortal and immortal planes Garc a Walsh illustrates Oliphant's unique theological conception of afterliving which ultimately seeks to eradicate the divide between the living and their deceased loved ones reimagining death as a liminal passage towards God and divine self development This book thus suggests a new direction for Gothic studies by showing how Oliphant's supernatural fiction provided a means of curative writing transforming the traumatic reality of death into a source of hope The volume is suited for students researchers and academics in the disciplines of literature and history particularly the fields of nineteenth century studies Victorian studies and Gothic studies with an interest in women's writing theology and mental health trauma studies Elizabeth Gaskell Patsy Stoneman, 2016-05-16 Offering a combination of psychoanalytic and political analyses of Elizabeth Gaskell's work this title also presents direct and accomplished chapters on each of the major novels as well as the major themes in Gaskell's work Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond, 2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being Women in Literature Jerilyn Fisher, Ellen Silber, 2003-06-30 With the literary canon consisting mostly of works created by and about men the central perspective is decidedly male This unique reference offers alternate approaches to reading traditional literature as well as suggestions for expanding the canon to include more gender sensitive works Covering 96 of the most frequently taught works of fiction essays offer teachers librarians and students fresh insights into the female perspective in literature The list of titles created in consultation with educators includes classic works by male authors like Dickens Faulkner and Twain balanced with works by female authors such as Kate Chopin's The Awakening and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Also included are contemporary works by writers such as Alice Walker and Margaret Atwood that are being incorporated into the curriculum as well as those advancing a more global view such as Sandra Cisneros' House on Mango Street and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart The essays are expertly written in an accessible language that will help students gain greater awareness of gender related themes Suggestions for classroom discussions with selected works for further study are incorporated into the entries The volume is organized alphabetically by title and includes both author and subject indexes An appendix of gender related themes further enhances this volume's usefulness for curriculum applications and student research projects New Essays on Virginia Woolf Helen Wussow, 1995 Jane Austen's Emma Harold Bloom, 2010 Presents a collection of interpretations of Jane Austen's novel Emma New Essays on the Maternal Voice in the Nineteenth Century Barbara Thaden, 1995-04-01
