New Evangelization Good News To The Poor:

New Evangelization Leonardo Boff, 2006-02-03 At the 500th anniversary of the conquest of the Americas Leonardo Boff offers a telling assessment of the impact and future prospects of Christianity The anniversary has prompted intense soul searching especially in Latin America While church conservatives have called triumphalistically for a new evangelization of the continent others remembering the ongoing toll among native peoples blacks and the poor have called on the church to free itself from vestiges of its colonial past In New Evangelization Boff cuts to the heart of tensions in the church today In his first extensive treatment of Christian mission from a liberation theology perspective he deals with such topics as inculturation and the trinitarian basis of mission He offers an extensive reflection on the figure of the Virgin of Guadalupe as model of a new liberating evangelization The gospel arrived in the Americas under the sign of domination Boff argues that a new evangelization rooted in the culture of the oppressed must occur under the sign of liberation Book jacket Liberating Evangelism Stephen K. Pickard, 1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance poor example or even misinformation Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life He addresses two issues the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church In the case of the former he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism the theory and practice of the gospel discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church s evangelistic task This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community its life of worship and discipleship in the world But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God Karl Rahner, Culture and Evangelization Anthony Mellor, 2019-05-15 The situation of religious institutional diminishment in many Western countries requires new approaches to the proclamation of Christian faith As a response to these complexities Karl Rahner suggested a mystagogic approach as a future pathway for theology A mystagogical approach seeks modes of spiritual and theological conversation which engage the religious imagination and draws upon personal experiences of transcendence and religious sensibility In Karl Rahner Culture and Evangelization New Approaches in an Australian Setting Anthony Mellor develops a reflective process of contemporary mystagogia describing how different fields of engagement require different patterns of mystagogical conversation While focussing on the Australian setting these differentiate arenas of engagement are also applicable to other cultural settings and offer fresh perspectives for evangelization today Injustice and the Care of Souls, Second Edition Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen B. Montagno, 2023 Injustice and the Care of Souls Second Edition explores injustices in church and society and their impact on pastoral caregiving The book offers pastoral and spiritual caregivers broader contexts knowledge and skills to respond effectively to marginalized people and to reflect on how their own social locations affect their work

Latin American Liberation Theology David Tombs, 2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus's arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology's profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Josiah's Passover Shigeyuki Nakanose, 2004-03-10 Focusing on the celebrated story of Josiah's Passover in 2 Kings Shigeyuki Nakanose provides a dramatic demonstration of the contribution of sociological hermeneutics to contemporary Biblical exegesis This method complements historical critical exegesis by reconstructing the social systems of Biblical communities in their religious as well as their economic and political orders After introducing the sociological method and a brief consideration of historical and literary critical readings of Josiah's Passover Nakanose explicates the method of sociological analysis and its facets economic social political and ideological Turning to the text itself he shows clearly how the process of liturgical purification it describes is intimately tied to the centralization of political and commercial interests in ancient Israel He then goes on to demonstrate using the experience of Brazilian base communities what happens when this critical reading is joined with critical reflection on the reader's own social location

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands-on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism

A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald W. Musser, 1996-09-01 In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology liberation theology feminist theology and womanist theology To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology this book examines the theologies of representative theologians Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith

Religion and Political Structures John T. Ford, Robert A. Destro, Charles Richard Dechert, 2005

Effective Intercultural Evangelism W. Jay Moon, W. Bud Simon, 2021-08-24

We live in a multicultural society but many Christians hesitate to engage those of other faiths about Christianity Exploring evangelism from the perspective of four major worldviews Jay Moon and Bud Simon unpack the intercultural dynamics at hand when sharing the gospel across cultures offering contextual evangelism approaches that are relevant biblical and practical
