New Frontiers Of Human Science:

New Frontiers of Human Science K. Ramakrishna Rao,V. Gowri Rammohan,2002-01-01 Koneru Ramakrishna Rao has played a leading role in advancing parapsychology in the United States India and around the world serving as president of both the Indian Academy of Applied Psychology and the U S based Parapsychological Association He founded the Journal of Indian Psychology and served as editor of the Journal of Parapsychology for nearly two decades He has authored many books including Basic Research in Parapsychology second edition 2001 39 95 and Consciousness Studies 2002 75 Thirteen essays collected here honor his contributions to the field they are written by Raos colleagues students and protgs on such topics as psychical research prayer and healing consciousness dreams and clairvoyance Also provided is a complete bibliography of Raos published writings Five Ways of Doing Qualitative Analysis Frederick J. Wertz,Kathy Charmaz,Linda M. McMullen,Ruthellen Josselson,Rosemarie Anderson,Emalinda McSpadden,2011-06-17 This unique text provides a broad introduction to qualitative analysis together with concrete demonstrations and comparisons of five major approaches Leading scholars apply their respective analytic lenses to a narrative account and interview featuring Teresa a young opera singer who experienced a career changing illness The resulting analyses vividly exemplify what each approach looks like in action The researchers then probe the similarities and differences among their approaches their distinctive purposes and strengths the role style and subjectivity of the individual researcher and the scientific and ethical complexities of conducting qualitative research Also included are the research participant s responses to each analysis of her experience A narrative account from another research participant Gail can be used by readers to practice the kinds of analysis explored in the book Human Sciences and Human Interests Mikael Klintman,2016-08-05 Within the disciplines of social economic and evolutionary science a proud ignorance can often be found of the other areas approaches This text provides a novel intellectual basis for breaking this trend Certainly Human Sciences and Human Interests aspires to open a broad debate about what scholars in the different human sciences assume imply or explicitly claim with regard to human interests Mikael Klintman draws the reader to the core of human sciences how they conceive human interests as well as how interests embedded within each discipline relate to its claims and recommendations Moreover by comparing theories as well as concrete examples of research on health and environment through the lenses of social economic and evolutionary sciences Klintman outlines an integrative framework for how human interests could be better analysed across all human sciences This fast paced and modern contribution to the field is a necessary tool for developing any human scientist s ability to address multidimensional problems within a rapidly changing society Avoiding dogmatic reasoning this interdisciplinary text offers new insights and will be especially relevant to scholars and advanced students within the aforementioned disciplines as well as those within the fields of social work social policy political science and other neighbouring disciplines The Conscious Mind and the Material World Douglas M. Stokes,2015-01-24 What makes us who we are From a scientific viewpoint any individual s existence is improbable at best Consciousness as an actuality is inarguable its nature however remains elusive This work argues the view of self as a field of pure consciousness debating the existence of a continuing self and drawing conclusions about this entity and its relation to the physical body and the physical world Beginning with an exploration of the relationship between mind and matter it discusses ostensible psi phenomena such as extra sensory perception and psychokinesis and their implications for our understanding of the mind and the cosmos Additional topics include the perennial mind body problem the role of consciousness in quantum mechanics and conversely the role of quantum mechanics in the study of consciousness the anthropic principle and evidence for Intelligent Design Quasi religious questions such as the survival of consciousness after death are also addressed

The Future of Human Space Exploration Giovanni Bignami,Andrea Sommariva,2016-06-30 For several decades it has been widely accepted that human space exploration is the exclusive domain of government agencies The cost of performing such missions estimated in multiple reports to amount to hundreds of billions dollars over decades was far beyond what private entities could afford That arrangement seems to be changing Buoyed by the success of its program to develop commercial cargo capabilities to support the International Space Station NASA is becoming increasingly open to working with the private sector in its human space exploration plans The new private public partnership will make planet hopping feasible This book analyses the move towards planet hopping which sees human outposts moving across the planetary dimensions from the Moon to Near Earth Asteroids and Mars It critically assesses the intention to exploit space resources and how successful these missions will be for humanity This insightful and accessible book will be of great interest to scholars and students of space policy and politics international studies and science and technology studies

Review of the Restructured Research and Analysis Programs of NASA's Planetary Science Division National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences,Space Studies Board,Committee on the Review of NASA's Planetary Science Division's Restructured Research and Analysis Program,2017-06-22 The Research and Analysis R laboratory research theoretical modeling and computational studies geological and astrobiological fieldwork in planetary analog environments on Earth geological mapping of planetary bodies analysis of data from Earth and space based telescopes and development of flight instruments and technology needed for future planetary science missions The primary role of the PSD R A program is to address NASA s strategic objective for planetary science and PSD s science goals Recently PSD reorganized the R A program to provide better alignment with the strategic goals for planetary sciences The major changes in the R A program involved consolidating a number of prior program elements many of which were organized by subdiscipline into a smaller number of thematic core research program elements Despite numerous efforts by PSD to communicate the rationale for the reorganization and articulate clearly the new processes there has been significant resistance from the planetary science community and concerns in some sectors regarding the major realignment of funding priorities Review of NASA s Planetary Science Division s Restructured Research and Analysis Programs examines the new R A program and determines if it appropriately aligns with the agency s strategic goals supports existing flight programs and enables future missions This report explores whether any specific research areas or subdisciplinary groups that are critical to NASA s strategic objectives for planetary science and PSD s science goals are not supported appropriately in the current program or have been inadvertently disenfranchised through the reorganization

Sexual Paradox: Complementarity, Reproductive Conflict and Human Emergence Christine Fielder,Chris King,2006 Unlocks the keys to the paradox of how sexual selection fertilized the explosion of culture and the resulting fallout in sexual dominion of man over woman and nature How sexuality generates the universe through symmetry broken complementarity The implicit conflict of interests of sexual intrigue in the prisoners dilemma and its ecstatic resolution in the cosmology of love Sexual dominance as a koan for planetary crises 560 pages containing 270 illustrations Human Development Report 1994 United Nations Development Programme,1994 Expounds a new concept of human security one that focuses on the security of people in their homes in their jobs in their communities and in their environment
