Religion, Myth, and Folklore in the World's Epics Lauri Honko,1990 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Joseph Ravaisou, peintre du pays d'Aix, 1865-1925

fin de siècle Paris The book also features revealing extracts from the artist's correspondence and artworks from his own collection that provide essential context to the themes in his work Breathtakingly illustrated and featuring informative essays by Sjraar van Heugten Joan Greer and Ted Gott Van Gogh and the Seasons shines new light on the extraordinary creative vision of one of the world's most beloved artists
