Metal Finishing, 1922. Metal Industry, 1925. The Catholic Crusade Against the Movies, 1940-1975, Gregory D. Black, 1998-01-13. For more than three decades, the Catholic Church through its Legion of Decency had the power to control the content of Hollywood films. From the mid 1930s to the late 1960s, the Catholic Legion served as a moral guardian for the American public. Hollywood studios submitted their films to the Legion for a rating which varied from general approval to condemnation. This book details how a religious organization got control of Hollywood and how films like A Streetcar Named Desire, Lolita, and Tea and Sympathy were altered by the Legion to make them morally acceptable. Documenting the inner workings of the Legion, The Catholic Crusade against the Movies also examines how the changes in the movie industry and American society at large in the post-World War II era eventually conspired against the Legion's power and so led to its demise. Quigley v. In May 1891, Joe Quigley embarked on a journey north to try his luck prospecting for gold in Alaska. Although he had been wandering across America since leaving home at 15, this would be the biggest adventure and the biggest risk Quigley had ever taken. A project that began as genealogical research into a family's history, this biography traces the life of a fascinating character before, during, and after the great Klondike gold rush. Deeply researched, including quotes from Quigley and numerous photographs, this book is more than another tale of the Klondike Gold Rush. It is an intimate look at the inspiring life of a pioneer prospector who witnessed the exploration and development
