The African continent is home to spectacularly expressive human beings rebellious anti colonial and opposition leaders eloquent novelists political and social activists comical geniuses pensive and philosophical poets and intellectuals as well as a few raving dictators And the body of proverbial wisdom from Africa alone could fill many volumes Despite being eminently quotable Africa is not so readily quoted Stewart's Quotable Africa covers the whole of Africa north to south and east to west and includes memorable statements from hundreds of speakers including Nelson Mandela Doris Lessing Chinua Achebe Julius Nyerere Kofi Annan among others as well as biblical passages and proverbs Julia Stewart has spent over a decade collecting the 5000 plus quotes found in this book all of them either by Africans or about African subjects The Oxford Dictionary of American Quotations Hugh Rawson, Margaret Miner, 2006 With nearly 6 000 quotations arranged historically and annotated extensively you'll know not just who said what but get the full story behind the quote Follow any of the more than five hundred topics from Abolition to Zeal and you will get a nutshell history of what great and not so great Americans had to say about each one Quotations are arranged chronologically in each topic allowing the reader to trace patterns of thought over time Fully indexed by author including brief biographical sketches and keyword this is an essential reference for anyone interested in the great people and ideas of American history The Distant Mirror Joanne Brown, Nancy St. Clair, 2005-12-08 Young adult historical fiction brings the past alive through stories of adventure suspense and mystery The genre is both complex and controversial encompassing novels that range from romance and fantasy to stark historical realism The book examines the various approaches to young adult historical fiction and explores the issues that it has engendered Part One focuses on the broader issues spawned by the genre itself including its various subgenres the line between fiction and fact to what degree must an author adhere to historical accuracy time boundaries the diary format the protagonist as the outsider who is entitled to write what and literary concerns such as the relationship between accuracy and readability Part Two explores issues of contemporary interest such as race class gender the immigrant experience religion war and nationalism Thought provoking discussions of how these elements are treated in historical novels with emphasis on how current cultural values have shaped the fiction are presented Finally the question of whether novels in this genre are bound by anything other than their respective period setting is posed and it is contended that there are features common to YA historical novels that not only set the genre apart from other YA fiction but also contribute something unique to the larger genre The genesis for much classroom debate suggestions for class discussions and writing assignments as well as sample written responses of these debates from the authors classes are included Teachers librarians instructors of young adult literature courses and teen readers will find this an insightful analysis of YA historical fiction The ^AOxford Dictionary of American Quotations Hugh Rawson, Margaret Miner, 2005-12-15 With nearly 6 000 quotations arranged historically and annotated extensively you'll know not just who said what but get the full story behind the quote Follow any of the more than five hundred topics from Abolition to Zeal and you will get a nutshell history of what great and not so great Americans had to say about each one Quotations are arranged chronologically in each topic allowing the reader to trace patterns of thought over time Quotology Willis Goth Regier, 2010-10-01 Erasmus advised readers to learn quotations by heart and copy them everywhere write them in the front and back of books inscribe them on rings and cups paint them on doors and walls even on the glass of a window Emerson noted that in Europe every church is a kind of book or bible so covered is it with inscriptions and pictures In Arabic script as tall as a man the Koran is quoted on the walls and domes of mosques We quote to admire provoke commemorate dispute play and inspire Quotations signal class club clique and alma mater They animate wit relay prophecies guide meditation and accessorize fashion In Quotology Willis Goth Regier draws on world literature and contemporary events to show how vital quotations are how they are collected and organized and how deceptive they can be He probes all these aspects identifying fifty nine types of quotations including misquotations and anonymous sayings Following the logic of quotology Quotology concludes with famous last words Those Good Gertrudes Geraldine J. Clifford, 2016-03 This book explores the professional civic and personal roles of women teachers throughout American history Its themes and findings build from the mostly unpublished writings of many women Clifford studied personal history manuscripts in archives and consulted printed autobiographies diaries correspondence oral histories interviews to probe the multifaceted imagery that has surrounded teaching This work surveys a long past where schoolteaching was essentially men s work with women relegated to restricted niches such as teaching rudiments of the vernacular language to young children and socializing girls for traditional gender roles Eve's Revenge Lilian Calles Barger, 2003-03 Explores the tension women experience between their bodies and their desire for a spiritual life Women's Rights, Human Rights J. S. Peters, Andrea Wolper, 2018-05-11 This comprehensive and important volume includes contributions by activists journalists lawyers and scholars from twenty one countries The essays map the directions the movement for women s rights is taking and will take in the coming decades and the concomittant transformation of prevailing notions of rights and issues They address topics such as the rapes in former Yugoslavia and efforts to see that a War Crimes Tribunal responds domestic violence trafficking of women into the sex trade the persecution of lesbians female genital mutilation and reproductive rights Quill & Quire , 1986 Confederate Women and Yankee Men Drew Gilpin Faust, 2012-03-15 When Confederate men marched off to battle southern women struggled with the new responsibilities of directing farms and plantations providing for families and supervising increasingly restive slaves Drew Gilpin Faust offers a compelling picture of the more than half million women who belonged to the slaveholding families of the Confederacy during this period of acute crisis when every part of these women s lives became vexed and uncertain In this UNC Press Short excerpted from Mother s of Invention Women of the Slaveholding South in the American Civil War Drew Gilpin Faust explores the legendary hostility of Confederate women toward Yankee soldiers From daily acts of belligerence to murder and espionage these women struggled not only with the Yankee enemy in their midst but with the genteel ideal of white womanhood that was at odds with their wartime acts of resistance UNC Press Civil War Shorts excerpt compelling shorter narratives from selected best selling books published by the University of North Carolina Press and present them as engaging quick reads Produced exclusively in ebook format these shorts present essential concepts defining moments and concise introductions to topics They are intended to stir the imagination and encourage further exploration of the original publications from which these works are drawn

Mothers of Invention Drew Gilpin Faust, 2000-11-09 When Confederate men marched off to battle southern women struggled with the new responsibilities of directing farms and plantations providing for families and supervising increasingly restive slaves Drew Faust offers a compelling picture of the more than half million women who belonged to the slaveholding families of the Confederacy during this period of acute crisis when every part of these women's lives became vexed and uncertain

Meditations for Mothers of Toddlers Beth Wilson Saavedra, Beth Shannon Wilson, 1993-12-01 A new collection of inspirational quotes by the author of Meditations for New Mothers incorporates such themes as Growing Up Self Esteem Setting Limits Sex and Marriage Self Blame Revolving Personalities and Laughter Original
