Suhraab Aslam Khan,1996 The Law of God Rémi Brague,2024-05-31 The law of God these words conjure an image of Moses breaking the tablets at Mount Sinai but the history of the alliance between law and divinity is so much longer and its scope so much broader than a single Judeo Christian scene can possibly suggest In his stunningly ambitious new history R mi Brague goes back three thousand years to trace this idea of divine law in the West from prehistoric religions to modern times giving new depth to today s discussions about the role of God in worldly affairs Brague masterfully describes the differing conceptions of divine law in Judaic Islamic and Christian traditions and illuminates these ideas with a wide range of philosophical political and religious sources In conclusion he addresses the recent break in the alliance between law and divinity when modern societies far from connecting the two started to think of law simply as the rule human community gives itself Exploring what this disconnection means for the contemporary world Brague powerfully expanding on the project he began with The Wisdom of the World re engages readers in a millennia long intellectual tradition ultimately arriving at a better comprehension of our own modernity Brague s sense of intellectual adventure is what makes his work genuinely exciting to read The Law of God offers a challenge that anyone concerned with today s religious struggles ought to take up Adam Kirsch New York Sun Scholars and students of contemporary world events to the extent that these may be viewed as a clash of rival fundamentalisms will have much to gain from Brague s study Ideally in that case the book seems to be both an obvious primer and launching pad for further scholarship Times Higher Education Supplement Terrorism Unjustified

Vicente Medina,2015-10-29 Vicente Medina challenges common misconceptions and excuses for extreme political violence Countering such axioms as one man s freedom fighter is another man s terrorist and the do whatever it takes attitude toward counter terrorism Medina differentiates between justified political violence and unjustifiable terrorism Surveying terrorism with both historical and contemporary examples Medina dispels the relativism and emotional responses that have been used by some to justify terrorist acts Medina draws on philosophical concepts like just war theory while adding social and political science perspectives to contextualize today s terrorism within current international law and moral attitudes

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend. Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally Linz, Stephen Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations. Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück.

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition-based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared. Contributors: Pal Ahluwalia, Timothy Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Sallie B. King, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces. Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments, polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media, and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups.

ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf

VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra

Religion, War, and Ethics Gregory M. Reichberg, Henrik Syse, 2014-05-26 This volume offers a comprehensive selection of texts from the world's major religions on the ethical dimensions of war and armed conflict Despite a considerable rise of interest in Eastern and Western religious teachings on issues of war and peace the principal texts in which these teachings are expounded have in most cases remained inaccessible to all but a handful of specialists This is especially true of traditions such as Islam Buddhism and Judaism where the key authoritative treatments are often embedded in texts e g Koranic jurisprudence religious epics or Talmudic commentary that are not overtly about matters pertaining to the ethics of war thus requiring a difficult process of interpretation and selection and for which English translations frequently do not exist Topical and timely for today's debates in the public arena and essential reading for students of religious ethics and the relationship between religion and politics this book aims to give the reader a proper knowledge of the textual traditions that inform the key struggles over issues of peace and security identity and land
