Race For Sanctions:

Race for Sanctions Francis Njubi Nesbitt, 2004-05-11 An important contribution to the political history of this period and a must for those interested in the influence of the great pan Africanists Elliott P Skinner This study traces the evolution of the anti apartheid movement from its origins in the 1940s through the civil rights and black power eras to its maturation in the 1980s as a force that transformed U S foreign policy The movement initially met resistance and was soon repressed only to reemerge during the civil rights era when it became radicalized with the coming of the black freedom movement The book looks at three important political groups TransAfrica the black lobby for Africa and the Caribbean the Free South Africa Movement and lastly the Congressional Black Caucus and its role in passing sanctions against South Africa over President Reagan s veto It concludes with an assessment of the impact of sanctions on the release of Nelson Mandela and his eventual election as president of South Africa

Race and US Foreign Policy Mark Ledwidge, 2012-02-06 African Americans analysis of and interest in foreign affairs represents a rich and dynamic legacy and this work provides a cutting edge insight into this neglected aspect of US foreign affairs In addition to extending the parameters of US foreign policy literature to include race and ethnicity the book documents case specific analyses of the evolutionary development of the African American foreign affairs network AAFAN Whilst the examination of race in regard to the construction of US foreign policy is significant this book also provides a cross disciplinary approach which utilises historical and political science methods to paint a more realistic appraisal of US foreign policy Including analysis of original archival evidence this theoretically informed work seeks to transcend the standard mono disciplinary approach which overestimates the separation between domestic and foreign affairs The unique approach of this work will add an important dimension to a newly emerging field and will be of interest to scholars in ethnic and racial studies American politics US foreign policy and US history

Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B. Tillery, Jr., 2011-03-15 In Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B Tillery Jr considers the history of political engagement with Africa on the part of African Americans beginning with the birth of Paul Cuffe s back to Africa movement in the Federal Period to the Congressional Black Caucus struggle to reach consensus on the African Growth and Opportunity Act of 2000 In contrast to the prevailing view that pan Africanism has been the dominant ideology guiding black leaders in formulating foreign policy positions toward Africa Tillery highlights the importance of domestic politics and factors within the African American community Employing an innovative multimethod approach that combines archival research statistical modeling and interviews Tillery argues that among African American elites activists intellectuals and politicians factors internal to the community played a large role in shaping their approach to African issues and that shaping U S policy toward Africa was often secondary to winning political battles in the domestic arena At the same time Africa and its interests were important to America s black elite and Tillery s analysis reveals that many black leaders have strong attachments to the motherland Spanning two centuries of African American engagement with Africa this book shows how black leaders continuously balanced national transnational and community impulses whether distancing themselves from Marcus Garvey's back to Africa movement supporting the anticolonialism movements of the 1950s or opposing South African apartheid in the 1980s

African Americans in Global Affairs Michael L. Clemons, 2010 A long overdue introduction to the multifaceted nature of African American participation in global affairs

Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2009-04-14 The organization of the reader's guide especially the groupings of landmark cases race riots and criminology theories is impressive Other related titles lack the breadth detail and accessibility of this work Recommended for all libraries essential for comprehensive social studies collections Library Journal As seen almost daily on local and national news race historically and presently figures prominently in crime and justice reporting within the United States in the areas of hate crimes racial profiling sentencing disparities wrongful convictions felon disenfranchisement political prisoners juveniles and the death penalty and culturally specific delinquency prevention programs The Encyclopedia of Race and Crime covers issues in both historical and contemporary context with information on race and ethnicity and their impact on crime and the administration of justice These two volumes offer a greater appreciation for the similar historical experiences of varied racial and ethnic groups and illustrate how race and ethnicity has mattered and continues to matter in the administration of American criminal justice

Key Features Covers a number of broad thematic areas basic concepts and theories of criminal justice the police courts and corrections juvenile justice public policy the media organizations specific groups and populations and specific cases and biographies Addresses such topics as gender hate bias crimes immigrant experiences international and cross cultural issues race and gangs and race and law Presents experiences of all major racial and ethnic groups in the U S including Asians Blacks Latinos Native Americans and Ethnic Whites as well as religious minorities such as Muslims Includes coverage of recent incidents like the alleged rape of a black female North Carolina Central University student by white male members of the Duke University Lacrosse Team the Jena 6 incident the Tulia Texas drug arrests the Rodney King beating the O J Simpson trials in the 1990s and more recent racial profiling incidents Two appendices provide information on locating and interpreting statistical data on race and crime as well as detailed instructions on how to access statistical data on the web for such specific areas as arrests drugs gang membership hate crimes homicide trends juvenile justice prison populations racial profiling the death penalty and victimization Because the topic of race and crime is of wide interest and relevance entries in this Encyclopedia are written in an accessible style to appeal to a broad audience making it a welcome addition to academic and public libraries alike

The Politics of Race in Britain and South Africa Elizabeth Williams, 2015-03-18 The postwar government of South Africa led by H F Verwoerd implemented wide ranging racial segregation laws beginning the open policy of apartheid in one of Africa's most prosperous and internationally influential states During the apartheid era the British government faced an uneasy dilemma while repudiating apartheid laws it maintained an ambiguous stance towards the South African government As black South Africans were reduced to the status of non citizens after the 1970 Citizenship Act increasing numbers of exiles and fugitives were finding refuge in Britain which was now home to a growing anti apartheid protest movement This is the first book to examine the British support for the anti apartheid movement among its own black communities Elizabeth Williams highlights the connection between domestic anti racism struggles and the struggle in South Africa showing how black Britons who were themselves fighting racism in British society identified and expressed solidarity with black South Africans during the Apartheid years Williams further assesses the way in which Black communities in Britain viewed Margaret Thatcher s support of South Africa despite the international call for sanctions Featuring the work of acclaimed documentary photographer and civil rights activist Vanley Burke this will be an essential book for students and scholars of race British history international relations post colonial studies and South African history

Israel, Palestine and the Politics of Race Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Abigail B. Bakan, 2019-10-31 As the situation in Israel Palestine seems to become ever more intractable and protracted the need for new ways of looking at recent developments and their historical roots is more pressing than ever Bearing this in mind Yasmeen Abu Laban and Abigail B Bakan discuss the historic and contemporary dynamics in Israel Palestine and their international reverberations from the unique vantage point of race racialization racism and anti racism They therefore offer close analysis of the idea of Israel and the absence of Palestine by examining the concepts of race and identity in the region With fresh coverage of themes relating to gender Indigeneity the environment surveillance and the war on terror Israel Palestine and the Politics of Race will appeal to scholars in political science sociology and Middle East studies

Race, Gender, and Culture in International Relations Randolph B. Persaud, Alina Sajed, 2018-03-05 International relations theory has broadened out considerably since the end of the Cold War Topics and issues once deemed irrelevant to the discipline have been systematically drawn into the debate and great strides have been made in the areas of culture identity race and gender in the discipline However despite these major developments over the last two decades currently there are no comprehensive textbooks that deal with race gender and culture in IR from a postcolonial perspective This textbook fills this important gap Persaud and Sajed have drawn together an outstanding lineup of scholars with each chapter illustrating the ways these specific lenses race gender culture condition or alter our assumptions about world politics This book covers a wide range of topics including war global inequality postcolonialism nation nationalism indigeneity sexuality celebrity humanitarianism and religion follows a clear structure with each chapter situating the topic within IR reviewing the main approaches and debates surrounding the topic and illustrating the subject matter through case studies features pedagogical tools and resources in every chapter boxes to highlight major points illustrative narratives and a list of suggested readings Drawing together prominent scholars in critical International Relations this work shows why and how race gender and culture matter and will be essential reading for all students of global politics and International Relations theory Ethnicity, Race and the Prisoner Community Helena Huhta, 2024-11-22 This book draws on an in depth ethnographic study to explore the meanings and consequences of race and ethnicity in daily life within two Finnish male prisons Set within the context of Finnish immigration it provides an excellent backdrop for studying social processes in the prison environment launched by a rapid growth in the number of foreign national prisoners It builds on the sociological attempts to comprehend the nature of the prisoner community from the perspective of ethnicity and race which has gained attention since the 2000s It explores how ethnic categories are formed in the prison space prisoner hierarchy and its logics conflicts and conflict solving discrimination and prison officers and development of distinctive prisoner cultures The study captures the consequences that signifying ethnicity and race have on daily practices equality and safety in prison This book shows how ethnic and racial categories are formed in social action and further how their meanings are in a constant process of change

Race, Rights, and the Asian American Experience Angelo N Ancheta, 2006-11-16 In Race Rights and the Asian American Experience Angelo N Ancheta demonstrates how United States civil rights laws have been framed by a black white model of race that typically ignores the experiences of other groups including Asian Americans When racial discourse is limited to antagonisms between black and white Asian Americans often find themselves in a racial limbo marginalized or unrecognized as full participants Ancheta examines legal and social theories of racial discrimination ethnic differences in the Asian American population nativism citizenship language school desegregation and affirmative action In the revised edition of this influential book Ancheta also covers post 9 11 anti Asian sentiment and racial profiling He analyzes recent legal cases involving political empowerment language rights human trafficking immigrant rights and affirmative action in higher education many of which move the country farther away from the ideals of racial justice On a more positive note he reports on the progress Asian Americans have made in the corporate sector politics the military entertainment and academia A skillful mixture of legal theories court cases historical events and personal insights this revised edition brings fresh insights to U S civil rights from an Asian American perspective

Wages, Race, Skills and Space Susan Turner Meiklejohn, 2004-11-23 Susan Turner Meiklejohn's Wages Race Skills and Space Lessons from Employers in Detroit's Auto Industry is an important study of wage and employment differences between blacks and whites in an urban economy The book presents the results of a Detroit based research endeavor which sought to understand the role of employer practices geography job skills and the characteristics of workers in explaining economic disparities between black and white workers

The Supreme Court, Race, and Civil Rights Abraham L. Davis, Barbara Luck Graham, 1995-07-25 Discover the first law textbook to provide a comprehensive examination of the Supreme Court's institutional commitment to equality over a time span of more than 190 years Filling the void of literature in this area this long awaited volume incorporates information from the disciplines of law political science and history to provide the student with a thorough analysis of race and law from the perspective of politically disadvantaged groups Carefully selected cases stimulate classroom discussion and at the same time

cultivate competence in reading actual Supreme Court rulings Accessible and flexible this textbook affords professors and instructors an opportunity to pick and choose from the essays and cases for each historical period The authors instill in students a deeper appreciation of the multicultural component of ongoing struggles for equality within the American context Written specifically for undergraduate graduate and law school courses that emphasize civil rights race and the law The Supreme Court Race and Civil Rights stands alone as an outstanding textbook Race and Ethnicity in the Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems Jennifer Peck, 2018-11-07 Over the last few decades the racial and ethnic composition of the United States has changed dramatically This seismic transformation has important implications for theory research policy and public opinion perhaps most crucially around the topic of race ethnicity and our justice systems Recent national events from Ferguson to ferocious public debate about racism to media depictions of police violence have reawakened the tense question of race relations in the 21st century This edited collection of research aims to highlight contemporary issues surrounding the overrepresentation of racial and ethnic minorities throughout both the juvenile and adult criminal justice systems Our contributors cover both formal sources of social control e g police courts correction facilities and perceptions and public opinions of the relationship between race ethnicity and offending behaviors As the intellectual sphere ignites with fresh debate old questions redefined and new ones asked this publication provides innovative insight into how race and ethnicity interconnect with all aspects of criminology and criminal justice Furthermore it helps encourage directions for future research practice and public policy This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Crime and Justice

Asian Space Race: Rhetoric or Reality? Ajey Lele, 2012-10-20 This book explores the character and contours of the Asian Space Powers At present Asian states like China Japan and India are found investing in space technologies with analogous social and scientific and probably with divergent military intents Other Asian states like Israel South Korea and Malaysia are also making investments in the space arena States like Iran and North Korea are faulted for using space launches as a demonstrative tool to achieve strategic objectives This work examines this entire maze of activities to unearth where these states are making these investments to accomplish their state specific goal or are they also trying to surpass each other by engaging in competition Explaining why and how these states are making investments towards achieving their socio economic and strategic mandate this book infers that the possibility of Asian Space Race exists but is presently fairly diminutive A Global History of the Nuclear Arms Race Richard Dean Burns, Joseph M. Siracusa, 2013-04-23 Written by two preeminent authors in the field this book provides an accessible global narrative of the nuclear arms race since 1945 that focuses on the roles of key scientists military chiefs and political leaders The first book of its kind to provide a global perspective of the arms race this two volume work connects episodes worldwide involving nuclear weapons in a comprehensive narrative fashion Beginning with a discussion of the scientific research of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hiroshima decision the authors focus on five basic themes political dimensions technological developments military and diplomatic strategies and impact The history of the international nuclear arms race is examined within the context of four historical eras America s nuclear monopoly America s nuclear superiority superpower parity and the post Cold War era Information about the historical development of the independent deterrence of Britain France and China as well as the piecemeal deterrence of newcomers Israel India Pakistan and North Korea is also included as is coverage of the efforts aimed at the international control of nuclear weapons and the diplomatic architecture that underpins the global nuclear non proliferation regime

Constructing Post-Imperial Britain: Britishness, 'Race' and the Radical Left in the 1960s J. Burkett, 2013-04-11 The end of empire shaped the way the British public saw their place in the world society and the ethnic and racial boundaries of their nation Focussing on some of the most controversial organisations of the 1960s this book illuminates their central importance in constructing post imperial Britain
