Race Nation Class:

Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, Immanuel Maurice Wallerstein, 1991 Race Nation Class is a key dialogue on identity and nationalism by major critics of capitalism Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, 1991 Race Nation Class Wallerstein, 1991-05-18 Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, Immanuel Wallerstein, 2020-05-05 Forty years after the defeat of Nazism and twenty years after the great wave of decolonization how is it that racism remains a growing phenomenon What are the special characteristics of contemporary racism How can it be related to class divisions and to the contradictions of the nation state And how far in turn does racism today compel us to rethink the relationship between class struggles and nationalism This book attempts to answer these fundamental questions through a remarkable dialogue between the French philosopher Etienne Balibar and the American historian and sociologist Immanuel Wallerstein Each brings to the debate the fruits of over two decades of analytical work greatly inspired respectively by Louis Althusser and Fernand Braudel Both authors challenge the commonly held notion of racism as a continuation of or throwback to the xenophobias of past societies and communities They analyze it instead as a social relation indissolubly tied to present social structures the nation state the division of labor and the division between core and periphery which are themselves constantly being reconstructed Despite their productive disagreements Balibar and Wallerstein both emphasize the modernity of racism and the need to understand its relation to contemporary capitalism and class struggle Above all their dialogue reveals the forms of present and future social conflict in a world where the crisis of the nation state is accompanied by an alarming rise of nationalism and chauvinism Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, 2011 Race, nation, class Étienne Balibar, 1991 Race, Nation, Class Étienne Balibar, 1991 Races, Nations and Classes Herbert Adolphus Miller, 1924 Thinking with Balibar Ann Laura Stoler, Stathis Gourgouris, Jacques Lezra, 2020-07-07 This volume the first sustained critical work on the French political philosopher Etienne Balibar collects essays by sixteen prominent philosophers psychoanalysts anthropologists sociologists and literary critics who each identify define and explore a central concept in Balibar's thought The result is a hybrid lexicon engagement that makes clear the depth and importance of Balibar's contribution to the most urgent topics in contemporary thought The book shows the continuing vitality of materialist thought across the humanities and social sciences and will be fundamental for understanding the philosophical bases of the contemporary left critique of globalization neoliberalism and the articulation of race racism and economic exploitation Contributors Emily Apter Etienne Balibar J M Bernstein Judith Butler Monique David M nard Hanan Elsayed Didier Fassin Stathis Gourgouris Bernard E Harcourt Jacques Lezra Patrice Maniglier Warren Montag Adi Ophir Bruce Robbins Ann Laura Stoler Gary Wilder From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski, Daphna Elfersy, 2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration

how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving Claiming Others Mark C. Jerng, 2010 The Postcolonial Age of Migration Ranabir Samaddar, 2020-05-11 This book critically examines the question of migration that appears at the intersection of global neo liberal transformation postcolonial politics and economy It analyses the specific ways in which colonial relations are produced and reproduced in global migratory flows and their consequences for labour human rights and social justice The postcolonial age of migration not only indicates a geopolitical and geo economic division of the globe between countries of the North and those of the South marked by massive and mixed population flows from the latter to the former but also the production of these relations within and among the countries of the North The book discusses issues such as transborder flows among countries of the South migratory movements of the internally displaced growing statelessness leading to forced migration border violence refugees of partitions customary and local practices of care and protection population policies and migration management both emigration and immigration the protracted nature of displacement labour flows and immigrant labour and the relationships between globalisation nationalism citizenship and migration in postcolonial regions It also traces colonial and postcolonial histories of migration and justice to bear on the present understanding of local experiences of migration as well as global social transformations while highlighting the limits of the fundamental tenets of humanitarianism protection assistance security responsibility which impact the political and economic rights of vast sections of moving populations Topical and an important intervention in contemporary global migration and refugee studies the book offers new sources interpretations and analyses in understanding postcolonial migration It will be useful to scholars and researchers of migration studies refugee studies border studies political studies political sociology international relations human rights and law human geography international politics and political economy It will also interest policymakers legal practitioners nongovernmental organisations and activists The Colonizing Trick David Kazanjian, 2003 An illuminating look at the concepts of race nation and equality in eighteenth and nineteenth century America The idea that all men are created equal is as close to a universal tenet as exists in American history In this hard hitting book David Kazanjian interrogates this tenet exploring transformative flash points in early America when the belief in equality came into contact with seemingly contrary ideas about race and nation The Colonizing Trick depicts early America as a white settler colony in the process of becoming an empire one deeply integrated with Euro American political economy imperial ventures in North America and Africa and pan American racial formations Kazanjian traces tensions between universal equality and racial or national particularity through theoretically informed critical readings of a wide range of texts the political writings of David Walker and Maria Stewart the narratives of black mariners economic treatises the personal letters of Thomas Jefferson and Phillis Wheatley Charles Brockden Brown s fiction congressional tariff debates international treaties and popular novelettes about the U S Mexico War and the Yucatan s Caste War Kazanjian shows how emergent racial and national formations do not contradict universalist egalitarianism rather they rearticulate it making equality at once restricted formal abstract and materially embodied Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France s treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy

Shakespeare through Islamic Worlds Ambereen Dadabhoy, 2024-02-29 Shakespeare through Islamic Worlds investigates the peculiar absence of Islam and Muslims from Shakespeare s canon While many of Shakespeare s plays were set in the Mediterranean a geography occupied by Muslim empires and cultures his work eschews direct engagement with the religion and its people This erasure is striking given the popularity of this topic in the plays of Shakespeare s contemporaries By exploring the limited ways in which Shakespeare uses Islamic and Muslim tropes and topoi Ambereen Dadabhoy argues that Islam and Muslim cultures function as an alternate or shadow text in his works ranging from his staged Mediterranean plays to his histories and comedies By consigning the diverse cultures of the Islamic regimes that occupied and populated the early modern Mediterranean Shakespeare constructs a Europe and Mediterranean freed from the presence of non white non European and non Christian Others which belied the reality of the world in which he lived Focusing on the Muslims at the margins of Shakespeare s works Dadabhoy reveals that Islam and its cultures informed the plots themes and intellectual investments of Shakespeare s plays She puts Islam and Muslims back into the geographies and stories from which Shakespeare had evacuated them This innovative book will be of interest to all those working on race religion global and cultural exchange within Shakespeare as well as people working on Islamic Mediterranean and Asian studies in literature and the early modern period

Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism Marcel Stoetzler, 2023-11-16 This volume provides a systematic re examination of the Frankfurt School s theory of antisemitism and employing this critical theory investigates the presence of antisemitism in 20th and 21st century politics and society Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism uncovers how critical theory differs from mainstream socialist or liberal critiques of antisemitism as it frames its rejection of antisemitism in the critique of other aspects of modern capitalist society which traditional theories leave unchallenged or critique only in passing Amongst others these include issues of identity nation race and sexuality In exploring the Frankfurt School s writings on antisemitism therefore the chapters in this book reveal connections to other pressing societal issues such as racism more broadly patriarchy statism and the societal dynamics of the ever evolving capitalist mode of production Putting the theory to practice this volume brings together interdisciplinary scholars and activists who employ critical theory to scrutinise right and left wing manifestations of antisemitism They develop in their critique of antisemitism a critique of capitalism as the authors ask why does modern capitalist society seem bound to produce antisemitism And how do we challenge it At a time when the rise of populism internationally has brought with it new strains of antisemitism this is an essential resource that demonstrates the continuing relevance of the critical theory of the Frankfurt School for the struggle against antisemitism today European Nations Miroslav

Hroch,2015-04-28 One of the world s leading theorists of nationalism offers a new synthesis In the history of modern political thought no topics have attracted as much attention as nationalism nation formation and patriotism A mass of literature has grown around these vexed issues muddying the waters and a level headed clarification is long overdue Rather than adding another theory of nationalism to this maelstrom of ideas Miroslav Hroch has created a remarkable synthesis integrating apparently competing frameworks into a coherent system that tracks the historical genesis of European nations through the sundry paths of the nation forming processes of the nineteenth century Combining a comparative perspective on nation formation with invaluable theoretical insights European Nations is essential for anyone who wants to understand the historical roots of Europe s current political crisis After Liberalism Immanuel Wallerstein,2010-09-27 In After Liberalism the distinguished historian and political scientist Immanuel Wallerstein examines the process of disintegration of our modern world system and speculates on the changes that may occur during the next few decades He explores the historical choices before us and suggests paths for reconstructing our world system on a more rational and socially equitable basis
