Race And Class The Dialectics Of Justice:

The Dialectics of Global Justice Bryant William Sculos, 2022-07-01 The Dialectics of Global Justice uses a novel application of negative dialectical interpretation to offer an immanent and ethical critique of prominent theories of global justice i e cosmopolitanism including how these theories manifest in political movements and policy agendas Drawing on the work of Theodor Adorno and Erich Fromm especially author Bryant William Sculos exposes the contradictory relationship between cosmopolitanism and core elements of capitalism particularly the domineering capitalistic mentality re produced by and through capitalism leading to the conclusion that cosmopolitanism on its own terms demands an alternative postcapitalistic political basis in order to make robust progress toward global justice While offering this critique Sculos also implicitly challenges the increasingly common view that cosmopolitanism today is inherently imperialistic and out of touch with the global resurgence of nationalism and anti cosmopolitan sentiment

Black Women and The Criminal Justice System Biko

Agozino,2018-12-14 First published in 1997 this book identifies the problems that face black women in the criminal justice system as the result of the articulation of unequal and oppressive class race and gender relations the research aims to be aware of all three rather than prioritising isolating or reducing one or two of these relations The focus of this research primarily on black women is based on the belief that they are marginalised in both society and criminological research Black women are poorly represented in education employment the professions commerce industry and politics while in prison their presence is highly disproportionate to their wider numbers in society The author examines the problems facing black women and compares these with those facing black men and white women to demonstrate the articulation of social relations He addresses the structural positions of black women in society their social relations and the nature of the institutional practices of the criminal justice system      Identity, Diversity and Teaching for Social Justice Juliet Perumal,2007 In recent times educational reformers have proposed ways of using education to reduce inequality overcome discriminatory values and attitudes and alleviate social problems An increasing number of language theorists and practitioners contends that in order to reduce inequality it is essential to address the personal cultural and political implications of language teaching Awareness of these factors activate the need to gain deeper insight into the personal and professional nuances of teachers lives The gap between sociolinguistic theory and educational practice points to the fact that linguists and educationists themselves carry the prejudices of particular social ideological cultural and geographical backgrounds Who teaches what to whom why and how affects curricular decisions which can thus become fraught with political allegiances in this way the non neutrality of language pedagogy is confirmed Drawing from a suite of data sources the book explores the following questions Do teachers autobiographical experiences shape their professional identities Does subscription to counter hegemonic ideologies impact teachers personal and professional positionality and authority What contributions can feminist theorising make to language teaching in socially diverse classrooms Through an exploration of these questions the book gestures towards an imperative to re think educative and pedagogic relationships and the politics of difference and dialogue in demographically diverse classrooms that subscribe to social redress agendas      Race, Class, Gender, and Justice in the United States Charles E. Reasons,Darlene J. Conley,Julius Debro,2002 Substantial introductions to the six sections of 18 readings comprise the textbook Together they introduce the three issues as interrelated instead of separate as most texts and readers treat them Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com      Postmodern Racial Dialectics Richard A. Jones,2015-12-07 Postmodern Racial Dialectics is a collection of ten essays on African American philosophy Addressing issues as disparate as why there are no graduate programs in philosophy at the more than one hundred traditionally black colleges and universities in the U S to conceptions of Black utopianism to the nature of postmodern revolutions these essays are beyond the bounds of traditional racial discourse The essays are dialectical in the sense that they are conversations between personal histories between ideologies and between changing ways that the races talk to one another The book is postmodern in that it is beyond modernity's linear logic Postmodern Racial Dialectics is also a political entreaty for African Americans to be wary of conventional ways of thinking and to begin thinking transgressively beyond narrowly prescribed conceptions from both sides of the color line Race, Nature, and the Politics of Difference Donald S. Moore, Jake Kosek, Anand Pandian, 2003-05-20 A collection of essays that show the interdependence of concepts of race and nature King and the Other America Sylvie Laurent, 2019-01-08 Shortly before his assassination Martin Luther King Jr called for a radical redistribution of economic and political power to transform the whole of society In 1967 he envisioned and designed the Poor People's Campaign an interracial effort that was carried out after his death This campaign brought together impoverished Americans of all races to demand better wages better jobs better homes and better education King and the Other America explores this overlooked and obscured episode of the late civil rights movement deepening our understanding of King's commitment to social justice and also of the long term trajectory of the civil rights movement Digging into earlier radical arguments about economic inequality across America which King drew on throughout his entire political and religious life Sylvie Laurent argues that the Poor People's Campaign was the logical culmination of King's influences and ideas which have had lasting impact on young activists and the public Fifty years later growing inequality and grinding poverty in the United States have spurred new efforts to rejuvenate the campaign This book draws the connections between King's perceptive thoughts on substantive justice and the ongoing quest for equality for all Social Justice Loretta Capeheart, Dragan Milovanovic, 2020-05-15 An eye for an eye the balance of the scales for centuries these and other traditional concepts exemplified the public's perception of justice Today popular culture including television shows like Law and Order informs the public's vision But do age old symbols portrayals in the media and existing systems truly represent justice in all of its nuanced forms or do we need to think beyond these notions The second edition of Social Justice Theories Issues and Movements responds to the need for a comprehensive introduction to these issues Theories of social justice are presented in an accessible fashion to encourage engagement of students activists and scholars with these important lines of inquiry Issues are analyzed utilizing various theories for furthering engagement in possibilities Struggles for justice from legal cases to on the ground movements are presented for historical context and to inform the way forward Responding to the Call for Educational Justice L. Mickey Fenzel, Melodie Wyttenbach, 2018-10-01 The work presented in this volume attests to the innovative and successful educational alternatives designed and implemented by Catholic religious groups to improve educational career and life outcomes for urban children adolescents and adults placed at risk These efforts have helped thousands of urban citizens break away from the chains of poverty and poor academic preparation to succeed in high school and beyond and secure a place of meaning and influence in adult society In this volume we examine the contributions of networks of schools such as Nativity Miguel and Cristo Rey schools in the U S and Canada and Fe y Alegría based in South America and operating in multiple countries as well as more local initiatives There is much to be learned from these initiatives that can improve urban education and this edited volume provides this opportunity to educators planners funders and others who are inclined to invest in effective urban education The perspectives taken in these chapters include current approaches to critical race theory faith perspectives that promote justice and the building of social capital and resilience to succeed academically despite considerable adversity associated with economic poverty The chapters included here explore educational structures that communicate high expectations for student and teacher performance and provide individualized instruction caring mentoring and support beyond graduation in order to help develop men and women of confidence skill leadership and integrity and ensure high levels of success in a world that tends to exclude them more than welcome them Praise for Responding to the Call for Educational Justice One of the most unheralded unreported and underappreciated initiatives in education are Catholic schools that are transforming the way that young people are taught If you have never heard the words Cristo Rey Nativity Miguel or Fe y Alegria prepare to be amazed and delighted by this thorough study of the great benefits these creative and exciting schools bring to us James Martin SJ Author of Jesus A Pilgrimage and The Jesuit Guide During these very troubling times within the Church and the larger society we need critical voices that are unapologetically committed to eradicating the ideologies and structures of inequality within urban education yet also speak of hope and possibility In this very timely volume Fenzel and Wyttenbach eloquently compile an insightful set of readings that courageously respond to our deep human yearning for freedom and offer us glimpses into a more just and loving world Antonia Darder PhD Leavey Endowed Chair of Ethics and Moral Leadership Loyola Marymount University Los Angeles
