East and Southeast Asia 2013 Steven A. Leibo,2013-08-28 Updated annually East Southeast Asia provides just enough historical background on the evolution of Modern East Southeast Asia to help readers understand contemporary developments in this vital region Aging in a Changing World Molly George,2021-10-15 This is a story about aging in place in a world of global movement Around the world many older people have stayed still but have been profoundly impacted by the movement of others Without migrating themselves many older people now live in a far different country than the one of their memories Recently the Brexit vote and the 2016 election of Trump have re enforced prevalent stereotypes of the racist older person This book challenges simplified images of the old as racist nostalgic and resistant to change by taking a deeper more nuanced look at older people s complex relationship with the diversity and multiculturalism that has grown and developed around them Aging in a Changing World takes a look at how some older people in New Zealand have been responding to and interacting with the new multiculturalism they now encounter in their daily lives Through their unhurried micro daily interactions with immigrants they quietly emerge as agents of the very social change they are assumed to oppose Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth Richard T. Ashcroft,Mark Bevir,2019-07-12 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Multiculturalism as a distinct form of liberal democratic governance gained widespread acceptance after World War II but in recent years this consensus has been fractured Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth examines cultural diversity across the postwar Commonwealth situating modern multiculturalism in its national international and historical contexts Bringing together practitioners from across the humanities and social sciences to explore the legal political and philosophical issues involved these essays address common questions What is postwar multiculturalism Why did it come about How have social actors responded to it In addition to chapters on Australia Britain Canada and New Zealand this volume also covers India Malaysia Nigeria Singapore and Trinidad tracing the historical roots of contemporary dilemmas back to the intertwined legacies of imperialism and liberalism In so doing it demonstrates that multiculturalism has implications that stretch far beyond its current formulations in public and academic discourse

Governance and Multiculturalism Catherine Koerner, Soma Pillay, 2019-08-14 A key intervention in the growing critical literature on race this volume examines the social construction of race in contemporary Australia through the lenses of Indigenous sovereignty nationhood and whiteness Informed by insights from white Australians in rural contexts Koerner and Pillay attempt to answer how race shapes those who identify as white Australian how those who self identify thusly relate to the nation multiculturalism and Indigenous Sovereignities and how white Australians understand and experience their own racialized position and its privilege This insider perspective on the continuing construction of whiteness in Australia is analyzed and challenged through Indigenous Sovereign theoretical standpoints and voices Ultimately this investigation of the social construction of race not only extends conceptualizations of multiculturalism but also informs governance policy in the light of changing national identity

Cultural Wounding, Healing, and Emerging Ethnicities A. Kearney, 2014-11-26 Today there is new appeal in the analysis of ethnicity not merely as innate and fixed identities or fragmented and lost identities but rather as wounded and then creatively reclaimed Kearney discusses international examples of cultural wounding and healing and presents two close readings of emerging ethnicities in Australia and Brazil

Petitioning for Land Karen O'Brien, 2018-11-15 Petitioning for Land is the first book to examine the extent of First Peoples political participation through the use of petitions Interpreting petitions as a continuous form of political articulation Karen O'Brien considers petitioning for recognition of prior land ownership as a means by which to locate First Peoples petitioning for change within the broader narrative of historical and contemporary notions of justice The book follows the story of First Peoples activism and shows how they actively reform discourse to disseminate a self determined reality through the act of petitioning It discloses how through the petition First Peoples reject colonialism even whilst working within its confines In a reconfiguration of discourse they actively convey a political or moral meaning to re emerge in a self determined world Taking a socio legal and historical approach to petitioning the book questions the state domination of First Peoples and charts their political action against such control in the quest for self determination By uniquely focusing on the act of petitioning which places First Peoples aspirants centre stage O'Brien presents fresh and innovative perspectives concerning their political enterprise From early modern colonial occupation to contemporary society the hundreds of petitions that called for change are uncovered in Petitioning for Land shedding new light on the social and political dynamics that drove the petitions

Minority Rights in the Pacific Region Joshua Castellino, David Keane, 2009 Countries in the Pacific face unique challenges of survival and progress in establishing themselves and participating fully in international society Their geographic isolation from the rest of global society is compounded by complex layers of often competing national and indigenous identities among their populations built through wave upon wave of migration This has created rich diversity competing regimes and real challenges in terms of state building ethnic identity social policy cohesion and development in post colonial settings The issues studied here would be of interest to scholars from a range of different disciplines such as Law Politics Sociology and Anthropology By examining the theory and practice of minority rights law in states such as Fiji and Papua New Guinea alongside their more familiar neighbours Australia and New Zealand this book makes a unique contribution in a region often ignored in the literature

Australian Literature Graham Huggan, 2007-09-27 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English In a provocative contribution to the series Graham Huggan presents fresh readings of an outstanding sometimes deeply unsettling national literature whose writers and readers just as unmistakably belong to the wider world Australian literature is not the unique province of Australian readers and critics nor is its exclusive task to provide an internal commentary on changing national concerns Huggan's book adopts a transnational approach motivated by postcolonial interests in which contemporary ideas taken from postcolonial criticism and critical race theory are productively combined and imaginatively transformed Rejecting the fashionable view that Australia is not and never will be postcolonial Huggan argues on the contrary that Australian literature like other settler literatures requires close attention to postcolonial methods and concerns A postcolonial approach to Australian literature he suggests is more than just a case for a more inclusive nationalism it also involves a general acknowledgement of the nation's changed relationship to an increasingly globalized world As such the book helps to deprovincialize Australian literary studies Australian Literature also contributes to debates about the continuing history of racism in Australia a history in which the nation's literature has played a constitutive role as both product and producer of racial tensions and anxieties nowhere more visible than in the discourse it has produced about race both within and beyond the national context

Cinematic Settlers Janne Lahti, Rebecca

Weaver-Hightower, 2020-07-26 This anthology adds to the burgeoning field of settler colonial studies by examining settler colonial narratives in the under analyzed medium of film Cinematic Settlers discusses different cinematic genres national traditions and specific movies in order to expose related threads shared circulations of knowledge and paralleled representations Organized into thematic groupings conquest settlers natives and space the contributors explore the question of how film compares to written genres and other visual media in representing and effecting settler colonialism on a global scale Striving for inclusiveness the volume covers different eras and settler colonial situations in Australia New Zealand Taiwan Hawaii the American West Canada Latin America Russia France Algeria German Africa South Africa and even the next frontier outer space By showing how films offer layered contested and dynamic settler colonial narratives that advance and challenge settler hegemonic readings the essays enable students to better analyze and understand the complex history of diversity and colonialism in film This book is important reading for undergraduate classes on the history of empire colonialism and film

Locating Asian Australian Cultures Tseen Khoo, 2013-10-18 Locating Asian Australian Cultures is a timely and challenging interdisciplinary compilation that sets a contemporary benchmark for Asian Australian studies and its future directions In the dynamic field of diasporic Asian studies Asian Australian Studies is an emerging and contentious area While cognisant of issues and critical developments in North America Europe and Asia Asian Australian studies forges its own specific engagements with questions of identity racialization and nationalisms in a world of globalized cultures and movements This book deliberately engages with international perspectives on Asian Australian studies that offer contingent connections and address crucial questions for fields that are rapidly de nationalizing The volume focuses on Asian Australian cultural production and identity presenting work that interrogates notions of belonging and citizenship representational politics and disciplinarity in the academy The broad ranging essays examine the politics of Asian Australian art and literature as well as the area s significant interventions in disciplinary formations nationally and internationally Other essays discuss the Vietnamese War memorial in Cabramatta notions of the sacrificial Asian in contemporary films and Chinatown sites in Australia This book will be essential reading not only for researchers in Asian Australian studies but also for those with an interest in Asian diaspora and Australian studies

The Spirit of Colin McCahon Zoe Alderton, 2015-02-27 The Spirit of Colin McCahon provides a vivid historical contextualisation of New Zealand s premier modern artist clearly explaining his esoteric religious themes and symbols Via a framework of visual rhetoric this book explores the social factors that formed McCahon s religious and environmental beliefs and justifications as to why his audience often missed the intended point of spiritual his discourse or chose to ignore it The Spirit of Colin McCahon tracks the intricate process by which the artist s body of work turned from optimism to misery and explains the many communicative techniques he employed in order to arrest suspicion towards his Christian prophecy More broadly The Spirit of Colin McCahon outlines a model of analysis for the intersection of art and religion and the place of images as rhetorical devices within Antipodean culture The emerging field of religion and visual culture is important not only to students of New Zealand art history but also to a growing field of appreciation for the communicative power of images This book provides a helpful model for examining art and literature as social and religious tools and advances the importance of visual rhetoric within studies of art and social expression

Responding to Hate Crime Chakraborti, Neil, Garland, Jon, 2015-07 The policy makers that govern responses to hate crimes and the institutions that research those crimes have up to this point been separate policy makers have not taken research into consideration and researchers have conducted their studies with little reference to policies This book bridges the gap between the two by bringing together internationally renowned hate crime experts from the domains of academia policy making and activism The contributors provide new perspectives on the nature of hate crimes their victims and their perpetrators exploring a range of themes challenges and solutions that have otherwise received little attention The result is a collection of innovative ways of combating hate crime that combines cutting edge research with the latest in professional innovations while remaining accessible to a wide audience
