Race Housing And Social Excellence:

Race and Social Equity Susan T Gooden,2015-01-28 In this compelling book the author contends that social equity specifically racial equity is a nervous area of government Over the course of history this nervousness has stifled many individuals and organizations thus leading to an inability to seriously advance the reduction of racial inequities in government The author asserts that until this nervousness is effectively managed public administration social equity efforts designed to reduce racial inequities cannot realize their full potential Chapters 2 and 8 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Social Housing and Urban Renewal Paul Watt,Peer Smets,2017-08-15 Contemporary urban renewal is the subject of intense academic and policy debate regarding whether it promotes social mixing and spatial justice or instead enhances neoliberal privatization and state led gentrification This book offers a cross national perspective on contemporary urban renewal in relation to social rental housing

Crossing the Class and Color Lines Leonard S. Rubinowitz,James E. Rosenbaum,2002-04-15 Thousands of low income African Americans mostly women and children began in 1976 to move out of Chicago's notorious public housing developments to its mostly white middle class suburbs They were part of the Gautreaux program one of the largest court ordered desegregation efforts in the country's history Named for the Chicago activist Dorothy Gautreaux the program formally ended in 1998 but is destined to play a vital role in national housing policy in years to come In this book Leonard Rubinowitz and James Rosenbaum tell the story of this unique experiment in racial social and economic integration and examine the factors involved in implementing and sustaining mobility based programs Today with vouchers replacing public housing the Gautreaux success story with its strong legacy is the most valuable record of the possibilities for poor people to enhance their life chances by relocating to places where opportunities are greater Book Jacket

Understanding 'race' and ethnicity Craig, Gary,Atkin, Karl,2012-02-22 Many welfare states are now struggling to deal with the issues and tensions raised by the growth of minority ethnic populations and increasing ethnic diversity The fact that most societies in the developed world are now multicultural raises many challenges for policy and for the delivery of welfare services which most states have yet to address retreating into forms of institutional racism to deny minorities the services they need Using the UK as an exemplary case study this much needed book combines historical and theoretical approaches to the issue of race and ethnicity within welfare provision including an examination of how minorities experience welfare in a range of service settings The book inspires new ways of approaching welfare and social policy in anticipation of a society that is equal inclusive fair and just for all and will make essential reading for students researchers practitioners and policy makers

Cartographies of Race and Social Difference George J. Sefa Dei,Shukri Hilowle,2018-12-04 This book critically examines how race is constructed globally to intersect gender class sexuality language ability and religion and answers some very important questions like how does anti black racism manifest itself within various contexts Chapters in the book use the Black and White paradigm as a lens for critical race analysis examining how for example the saliency of race and Blackness shape the post colony as well as the various post colonial nations The paradigm centers Whiteness as the lens of defining what and what is different The negative portrayal of difference is anchored in the sanctity of Whiteness It is through such analysis that we can understand how historically colour has been a permanent marker of differentiation even though it has not been the only one It is through conversations and dialogue in the classroom that the book was created given the current political shift in American and the rise of Anti Blackness anti Indigeneity Islamophobia and xenophobia The book critically examines White supremacy racialization of gender post racial false narratives and other contemporary issues surrounding race
