

Exploring Racial and Ethnic Identity

Objectives/Purpose of Training:

- Identify personal and professional assumptions and biases that hinder respect for and value of racial and ethnic differences; begin to challenge and propose strategies for addressing assumptions and biases.
- Build awareness in regards to racial and ethnic diversity.
- Allow the opportunity to develop our own personal racial and ethnic identity.
- Articulate practical opportunities and strategies for incorporating racial and ethnic identity development into day to day practice with youth in care.

What it does NOT do:

- Provide explanation for the inner workings of systems which either intentionally or unintentionally perpetuate racism.
- Attempt to solve structural racism.

Racial And Ethnic Identity:

Racial and Ethnic Identity in School Practices ROSA HERNANDEZ SHEETS,1999-04 Presents work of scholars and practitioners who are exploring the interconnections of racial and ethnic identity to human development for the purpose of promoting successful pedagogical practices and services Race Or Ethnicity? Jorge J. E. Gracia,2007 What is race What is ethnicity Should we think of them as identities Can they be effectively individuated How are they related How do the relations between them influence pressing issues concerned with social identity gender racism assimilation exploitation justice the law and public policy And how are the answers to these questions affected by the Black and Latino experience in the United States From the Preface This collection of new essays explores the relation between race and ethnicity and its social and political implications Although much work has been done on the philosophy of race in the past century in the United States the concept of ethnicity has only recently awoken the interest of American philosophers and the relations between race and ethnicity remain largely unexamined The discussion is divided into two parts dealing on the one hand with the nature and the relation between race and ethnicity and on the other with the social consequences of the complex relations between them Part I explores in particular the debated topic of racial and ethnic identities Does it make sense to speak of racial and ethnic identities and especially of black and Latino identities And if it does make sense how should these identities be conceptualized and how are they related to gender Part II examines how race and ethnicity have influenced the lot of some social groups in significant ways How do racially defined institutions deal with racial assimilation How do different conceptions of race and ethnicity influence public policy and various forms of racism How can exploited racial and ethnic groups be effectively recognized And what is the role of affect in social justice as dispensed by the courts Racial and Ethnic Identity Herbert W. Harris,Howard C. Blue,Ezra E. H. Griffith,1995 Essays explaining the psychological processes leading to the development of racial and ethnic identity Mixed Race Identities P. Aspinall,M. Song,2013-07-26 This book explores the ethnic and racial options exercised by young mixed race people in Britain It reveals the diverse ways in which young people identify and experience their mixed status the complex nature of such identities and the rise of other identity strands which are now challenging race and ethnicity as dominant and salient identities Race, Ethnicity and Self Elizabeth Pathy Salett,Diane R. Koslow,1994 Educators mental health professionals Issues of Dominance in Identity Development Identity Biraciality Treatment approaches are suggested in several chapters For information or orders contact the National Multicultural Institute 300 Connecticut Ave NW Suite 438 Washington DC 20008 202 483 0700 or FAX 202 483 5233 Racial and Ethnic Identities in the Media Eleftheria Arapoglou,Yiorgos Kalogeras,Jopi Nyman,2016-07-30 This volume examines the role and representation of race and ethnicity in the media with particular emphasis on the United States It highlights contemporary work that focuses on changing meanings of racial and ethnic identity as they are represented in the media television and film digital and print media are under examination Through fourteen innovative and interdisciplinary case studies written by a team of internationally based contributors the volume identifies ways in which ethnic racial and national identities have been produced reproduced stereotyped and contested It showcases new emerging theoretical approaches in the field and pays particular attention to the role of race ethnicity and national identity along with communal and transnational allegiances in the making of identities in the media The topics of the chapters range from immigrant newspapers and gangster cinema to ethnic stand up comedy and the use of race in advertising

Race and Ethnicity Stephen Spencer, 2006-04-18 Broad ranging and comprehensive this incisive new textbook examines the shifting meanings of race and ethnicity and collates the essential concepts in one indispensable companion volume From Marxist views to post colonialism this book investigates the attendant debates issues and analyses within the context of global change Using international case studies from Australia Malaysia the Caribbean Mexico and the UK and examples of popular imagery that help to explain the more difficult elements of theory this key text focuses on everyday life issues such as ethnic conflicts and polarized states racism s and policies of multiculturalism diasporas asylum seekers and refugees mixed race and hybrid identity Incorporating summaries questions illustrations exercises and a glossary of terms this student friendly text also puts forward suggestions for further project work Broad in scope interactive and accessible this book is a key resource for undergraduate and postgraduate level students of race and ethnicity across the social sciences

Measuring Race and Ethnicity Larry E. Davis, Rafael J. Engel, 2010-10-26 Racial and ethnic issues stand at the core of social political and economic concerns in an increasingly diverse America Accordingly how individuals from the various ethnic groups regard themselves and others is a salient focus of research studies across the disciplines Measuring Race and Ethnicity gathers psychological measures of common phenomena such as racial identity acculturation and intra and intergroup relations enabling researchers to compare concepts across groups and better evaluate differences and disparities Researchers in psychology social work and public health examining cultural and race related topics will find an immediately relevant source of valid and reliable scales in Measuring Race and Ethnicity

Meaning-Making, Internalized Racism, and African American Identity Jas M. Sullivan, William E. Cross Jr., 2016-09-07 Focusing on the broad range of attitudes Black people employ to make sense of their Blackness this volume offers the latest research on racial identity The first section explores meaning making or the importance of holding one type of racial cultural identity as compared to another It looks at a wide range of topics including stereotypes spirituality appearance gender and intersectionalities masculinity and more The second section examines the different expressions of internalized racism that arise when the pressure of oppression is too great and includes such topics as identity orientations self esteem colorism and linked fate Grounded in psychology the research presented here makes the case for understanding Black identity as wide ranging in content subject to multiple interpretations and linked to both positive mental health as well as varied forms of internalized racism

Ethnic Identity and Power Yali Zou, Enrique T. Trueba, Henry T. Trueba, 1998-04-02 A stimulating comparative examination of the educational ramifications of cultural identity with implications for public policy Understanding Race, Ethnicity, and Power Elaine Pinderhughes, 1989 foreword by Alvin Pouissant 505 Introduction Culture social interaction and the human services Understanding difference Understanding ethnicity Understanding race Understanding power Assessment Treatment Afterword Beyond the cultural interface Appendix Teaching methods Notes References Index Race, Identity and Citizenship Rodolfo D. Torres, Louis F. Miron, Jonathan Xavier Inda, 1999-06-02 In recent years race and ethnicity have been the focus of theoretical political and policy debates This comprehensive and timely reader covers the range of topics that have been at the center of these debates including critical race theory multiracial feminism mixed race whiteness citizenship and globalization Contributors include Angela Davis Stuart Hall Richard Delgado Robert Miles Michael Eric Dyson Saskia Sassen Etienne Balibar Patricia Hill Collins Renato Rosaldo Stanley Aronowitz and Collette Guillaumin Ethnicity and Race Stephen Cornell, Douglas Hartmann, 1998 This cross cultural and cross national approach to ethnicity and race analyzes how race and ethnic identities are socially constructed institutionalized and maintained Throughout the authors use contemporary examples from across the world including extended case studies of ethnic identity construction in the former Yugoslavia South Africa and New Zealand The authors demonstrate why ethnic and racial boundaries over the last 30 years and contrary to earlier optimistic predictions have become stronger and more strident under the pressures of modernization mass communication and secularization The book concludes by discussing how the downward spiral of hate and separateness can be halted and even reversed Race and Identity in Hispanic America Patricia Reid-Merritt, Michael S. Rodriguez, 2023 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States We are a People Paul R. Spickard, W. Jeffrey Burroughs, 2000 As the twentieth century closes ethnicity stands out as a powerful force for binding people together in a sense of shared origins and worldview But this emphasis on a people's uniqueness can also develop into a distorted rationale for insularity inter ethnic animosity or as we have seen in this century armed conflict Ethnic identity clearly holds very real consequences for individuals and peoples yet there is not much agreement on what exactly it is or how it is formed The growing recognition that ethnicity is not fixed and inherent but elastic and constructed fuels the essays in this collection Regarding identity as a dynamic on going formative and transformative process We Are a People considers narrative the creation and maintenance of a common story as the keystone in building a sense of peoplehood Myths of origin triumph over adversity migration and so forth chart a group s history while continual additions to the larger narrative stress moving into the future as a people Still there is more to our stories as individuals and groups Most of us are aware that we take on different roles and project different aspects of ourselves depending on the situation Some individuals who have inherited multiple group affiliations from their families view themselves not as this or that but all at once So too with ethnic groups The so called hyphenated Americans are not the only people in the world to recognize or embrace their plurality This relatively recent acknowledgment of multiplicity has potentially wide implications destabilizing the limited and limiting categories inscribed in for example public policy and discourse on race relations We Are a People is a path breaking volume boldly illustrating how ethnic identity works in the real world Author note Paul Spickard is Professor and Chair of Asian American Studies at UC Santa Barbara and is author of Mixed Blood W Jeffrey Burroughs is Professor of Psychology at Brigham Young University Hawaii Critical Ethnicity Robert H. Tai, Mary L. Kenyatta, 1999 In Critical Ethnicity leading scholars from several disciplines explore the interactions of ethnicity race and education in the United States which are embedded within discussions of diversity multiculturalism and identity politics Race and Ethnicity in the Study of Motivation in Education Jessica T. DeCuir-Gunby, Paul A. Schutz, 2016-06-17 Race and Ethnicity in the Study of Motivation in Education collects work from prominent education researchers who study the interaction of race ethnicity and motivation in educational contexts Focusing on both historical and contemporary iterations of race based educational constructs this book provides a comprehensive overview of this critical topic Contributors to the volume offer analyses of issues faced by students including students educational pursuits and aspirations as well as the roles of students family and social networks in achieving educational success A timely and illuminating volume Race and Ethnicity in the Study of Motivation in Education is the definitive resource for understanding motivation issues posed by non dominant groups including African American Latino Asian Pacific Islanders and Arab American students in educational contexts Ethnicity, Race, and Nationality in Education N. Ken Shimahara, Ivan Z. Holowinsky, Sandra Tomlinson-Clarke, 2001-07 Explores contemporary issues of ethnic cultural and national identities and their influence on the social construction of identity from the perspectives of seven nations China Israel Japan South Africa Ukraine Wales the U S Theorizing About Intercultural Communication William B. Gudykunst, 2005 In Theorizing About Intercultural Communication editor William B Gudykunst brings together key theories that have shaped and influenced human intercultural communication This text provides an excellent overview of the major theories currently in use and examines how these theories will also support the foundation for future research in this area Contributors to this text include individuals who actually developed the theories covered in the book Each contributor highlights the evolution development and application of the theory to provide a thorough and contemporary view of the field Handbook of Adolescent Psychology, Volume 1 Richard M.
