In From the Margins, 2006-01-01 This book focuses at the margins of adult education work and civil society Rather than focusing on active participants and active participation the objective is to scrutinize the whole adult population in terms of participation and to pay special attention to those who are so easily left out of studies concerning adult education learning at work or active participation in civil society The aim of the book is to bring into the discussion the views of those who do not find attending adult education possible and who thus form a challenge for the promotion of active citizenship In the collection of articles researchers from various disciplines and with cross disciplinary interests in adult education and marginalisation meet and discuss with each other within and beyond their own disciplines

International Social Work: Themes and Perspectives Karen Lyons, 2016-12-05 This book advocates the development of international social work both as offering an important perspective on practice at local level and as a distinct form of cross border and supra national activity The author argues that the effects of globalization and regional policies on the welfare sector have implications for the users of social services and community development programmes which require all social professionals to have a better understanding of these processes and consequences and of the international networks through which they themselves might operate Some of the material used is of a comparative nature for instance in relation to the education of social professionals or their relationship with the state or the family and examples are drawn from a wide range of countries But there is also a thematic treatment of three phenomena which are seen to have significant international dimensions that is poverty migration and disasters The book considers the role of social professionals in relation to these themes and identifies greater scope for intervention in relation to a range of social problems at international levels

The history of youth work in Europe - volume 6 Howard Williamson, Tanya Basarab, Filip Coussée, 2018-08-01 A better understanding of youth work s historical links with social work can help us to shape its relationship with social work in the future This sixth publication in the History of Youth Work in Europe project based on the workshop held in Malta Connections Disconnections and Reconnections The Social Dimension of Youth Work in History and Today looks at the relationship between youth work and social work and the role youth work can play in the social inclusion of young people Contributors have reflected on concepts tools and support measures for more vulnerable and often socially excluded young people and have sought to promote a common understanding of youth work as a social practice The workshop that led to this book sought to understand where youth work has positioned itself from its origins through its development to its contemporary identity Is youth work as much a social practice as a non formal educational one Where does the balance between these two dimensions lie What are the mutually enriching dimensions of these two fields in terms of their impact on young people s lives While most agree that youth work needs to be further defined as a practice or profession in itself and that the process of shaping its identity continues in different ways in different countries it is clear that when it comes to a cross sectoral perspective and youth work s interaction with social work the picture becomes significantly more complex arguably much richer and certainly more dynamic than might have hitherto been foreseen Right-Wing

Extremism in Contemporary Germany G. Braunthal,2009-11-04 This study of the German right extremist movement looks at the three rightist political parties neo Nazi groups skinhead gangs and New Right intellectuals It poses the question whether at a time of global recession the existing democratic system is resilient enough to meet the challenges posed by the xenophobic and racist groups Beyond the National Curriculum Professor David Coulby,David Coulby,2002-01-04 The

Bhattacharyya,2015-10-29 Will austerity never end This timely and insightful book argues that austerity seeks to set the terms of political and economic life for the foreseeable future extending techniques of exclusion to ever greater sections of the population Education Pack "all different - all equal" 2021 Rui Gomes,Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia,Patricia Brander,Laure de Witte,Gavan Titley,2021-11-22 It is easy to say I have no prejudices I m not racist so it has nothing to do with me I didn t invite those refugees It is hard to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn t continue in the future The Education Pack all different all equal was originally produced in 1995 as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism antisemitism xenophobia and intolerance Soon after its publication it became a reference work for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people across Europe and beyond Translated into many languages it remains today one of the most successful and most sought after publications of the Council of Europe The usefulness of the pack stems from the variety and creativity of the methodologies proposed More than twenty years after the all different all equal campaign the role plays simulation exercises case studies and cooperative group work that it proposes remain an inspiration to many youth workers trainers teachers and other people actively involved in intercultural education European societies continue to suffer from a growth of racist hostility and intolerance towards minorities and foreigners the necessity for intercultural youth work remains undiminished and the relevance of this pack remains unquestionable Little bit has been changed in this new edition of the pack apart from an updating of references Most changes are visible and usable only in the online version which offers relevant links with other resources for human rights education which continue the legacy of the campaign equality in dignity and rights respect for broader appreciation of diversity

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

Analysing Community Work: Theory and Practice Keith Popple, 2015-04-16. Community work is a unique and important activity that has the potential to help individuals, groups and communities achieve change. This brand new update of an established and acclaimed text explores and analyses different theoretical approaches to community work. Written in a highly accessible style, this book is grounded in practice issues and tackles political and theoretical issues head-on. New to the second edition: Analysis of the work of New Labour; Consideration of Coalition government policies, for example the Big Society project and the impact of budget cuts; A new international dimension throughout the text and an important new chapter on international community work; New definitions of community explored to take into account a diverse population; Increased emphasis on community work values, skills and challenges; Updated pedagogy including end-of-chapter summaries and reflective questions; References to the latest writings in the field. Written by an established international expert, this book will be valuable for students on qualifying programmes, practitioners, policy makers and commentators, and those engaged in community work in all capacities.

Analysing Community Work provided a key text tackling issues of theory and practice in accessible ways for some two decades. This second edition builds upon the strengths of the first, updating the book to take account of the major changes that have been taking place since then, both in Britain and internationally. Popple's critical consideration of the impacts of globalization, neo-liberalism, changing technologies, increasing inequalities and increasing concerns with environmental issues will be particularly welcomed. This edition will be essential reading for those who read and appreciated the first, as well as for a new generation of readers.

Marjorie Mayo, Emeritus Professor of community development, Goldsmiths University of London, UK. Popple's book was one of the key overviews of British community work when it first appeared in 1995. In the last few years, the need for a revised and updated version has been increasingly obvious, and Popple has now obliged. The last twenty years have seen substantial changes in the political, economic and organisational context within which community work operates, and Popple has fully reflected this whilst remaining clear about its basic tenets and goals. This is a highly welcome addition to contemporary community work literature.

Gary Craig, Professor of Community Development and Social Justice, Durham University, UK.

Interpretive Social Research Gabriele Rosenthal, 2018. This volume is a clear introduction to methods of data collection and analysis in the social sciences, with a special focus on interpretive methods based on a logic of discovering hypotheses and grounded theories. The chief methods presented are participant observation, open interviews and biographical case reconstruction The special advantages of interpretive methods as against other qualitative methods are revealed by comparing them to content analysis Empirical examples show how the methods presented can be implemented in practice and concrete problems connected with conducting empirical research are discussed By presenting individual case studies the author shows how to apply the principle of openness when collecting empirical data whether through interviews or observations and she offers rules for analysis based on the principles of reconstruction and sequentiality Crossing

Borders and Shifting Boundaries Ilse Lenz, Helma Lutz, M. Morokvasic-Müller, Claudia Schöning-Kalender, Helen Schwenken, 2013-06-29 This volume introduces a gender dimension and provides new insights in the issues like nationalism and racism identity building transnational networking citizenship and democracy Special Issue: Violent Youth

Radicalisation: Perspectives and Solutions, 2020-12-21 This timely special issue looks at a current pressing societal challenge that is truly global in its existence but very local in the way it plays out in various geographical social and political contexts Terrorism and extremism are undoubtedly among the biggest problems the world is facing today and is leaving in its wake a trail of death and destruction where the human and social costs are perhaps more significant than wars fought between countries on the world stage These realities breed suspicion hatred and feelings of revenge and invariably result in a spiral of violence that seemingly has no end Not only is there a need to explore the various factors leading to violent youth radicalisation it is clear that young people need to be considered not as victims at risk but rather as responsible agents of positive change This issue focuses on violent youth radicalisation in the context of Professor Gavrielides The Youth Empowerment and Innovation Project YEIP which looked at the problem of violent youth radicalisation across seven European Countries The project sought to propose a uniquely different way of combatting violent youth radicalisation by proposing an alternative to punitive means so often favoured by governments That alternative proposed was to use Positive psychology and the Good Lives model to intervene with young people at risk of violent radicalisation focusing on positive identity and well being on the premise that young people who had a positive view of themselves would be less likely to be drawn into violent radicalisation DOI 10 13140 RG 2 2 22734 33606 ISBN 978 1 911634 22 5 Journal ISSN online 2056 2985
