Directions will be core reading for students at all levels across the social sciences and the humanities ranging from history and cultural studies through sociology to political and policy analysis It will also be of significant interest to researchers and policy makers in a range of fields Challenging Racism in Britain and Germany Z. Layton-Henry, C. Wilpert, 2003-03-13

This collection analyses some of the factors that contribute to racism and exclusion in Britain and Germany such as citizenship laws racial violence discrimination in education and employment anti semitism and the rise of the far right

Strategies to combat racism racist violence and discrimination in Britain are described and analysed and proposals for anti discrimination legislation in Germany are considered Intercultural Europe Jagdish Gundara, Sydney Jacobs, 2019-06-11

This title was first published in 2000 The essays in this text examine interculturalism in Europe focusing on social diversity and social policy within the European Union Issues addressed include racism and social policy migrant communities in Europe ethnic diversity intercultural education and housing and segregation An Ethnic History of Europe since 1945 Panikos Panayi, 2018-10-08

The first history of Europe since 1945 which examines the continent from a mainly ethnic perspective Panikos Panayi has drawn on years of research to produce this comparative and exploratory account of the experience of ethnic minorities in post war Europe The coverage encompasses all categories of minorities including immigrants and refugees localised ethnic groupings and dispersed peoples Geographically the scope of the book ranges from the Atlantic to the Urals and the Mediterranean to the Arctic looking in particular at the Soviet Union Britain France Germany Romania Cyprus and the former Yugoslavia Immigration and Conflict in Europe Rafaela M. Dancygier, 2010-08-09

Contemporary debates give the impression that the presence of immigrants necessarily spells strife Yet as Immigration and Conflict in Europe shows the incidence of conflict involving immigrants and their descendants has varied widely across groups cities and countries The book presents a theory to account for this uneven pattern explaining why we observe clashes between immigrants and natives in some locations but not in others and why some cities experience confrontations between immigrants and state actors while others are spared from such conflicts The book addresses how economic conditions interact with electoral incentives to account for immigrant native and immigrant state conflict across groups and cities within Great Britain as well as across Germany and France It highlights the importance of national immigration regimes and local political economies in shaping immigrants economic position and political behavior demonstrating how economic and electoral forces rather than cultural differences determine patterns of conflict and calm

During the last three decades or so there has been a significant growth of extreme right voter support in Europe and elsewhere in the world The chapters in this book look at an earlier period before most of this increase Comprising eight previously published articles or book chapters and two hitherto unpublished studies this book gives extended accounts of the major extreme right political parties or movements in a number of west European countries looking both at their antecedents and also at their support and significance in the 1980s and early 1990s The countries covered in detail are France the Federal Republic of Germany old and new regions the Netherlands Belgium Switzerland and Austria During the last three decades some earlier parties of the extreme right in these west European countries have disappeared into oblivion to be superseded by replacements others have survived and flourished Given the date when most of these chapters were written they are now to be regarded as contributions to a modern history about the status and relevance of the respective parties or movements The book also includes an introductory essay that discusses issues arising from the disputed labelling terminology used to describe such parties and identifies themes that feature in the more recent literature about the subsequent and current state of the extreme right in Europe The book will be of particular interest to researchers on the contemporary politics of the extreme right in Europe as well as being a valuable resource for those teaching courses on this topic or on general political sociology

Racism Postcolonialism Europe Graham Huggan, Ian Law, 2022-04-01 Racism Postcolonialism Europe turns the postcolonial critical gaze that had previously been most likely to train itself on regions other than Europe and sometimes those perceived to be most culturally or geographically distant from Europe back on Europe itself The book argues that racism is alive and dangerously well in Europe and examines this racism through the lens of postcolonial criticism Postcolonial racism can be a racism of reaction based on the perceived threat to traditional social and cultural identities or a racism of false respect based on mainstream liberals desire to hold at arms length different cultures they are anxious not to offend Most of all postcolonial racism at least within the contemporary European context is a racism of surveillance whereby foreigners become aliens protection disguises preference and cultural difference slides into racial stigmatization all in the interests of representing the European people which is a very different entity to the European population as a whole Boasting a broad multidisciplinary approach and a range of distinguished contributors including Philomena Essed Michel Wieviorka and Griselda Pollock Racism Postcolonialism Europe will be required reading for scholars and students of race postcolonial studies sociology European history and literary and cultural studies

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

Perceptions of Islam in Europe Hakan Yilmaz, Cagla E. Aykac, 2012-04-24 For centuries the Islamic world has been represented as the other within European identity constructions an other perceived to be increasingly at odds with European forms of modernity and culture With the perceived gap between Islam and Europe widening leading scholars in this work come together to provide genuine and realistic analyses about perceptions of Islam in the West The book bridges these analyses with in depth case studies from

Britain France Germany Greece Italy the Netherlands Poland Turkey and other parts of the European Union This study goes beyond the usual dichotomies of clashes of civilizations and cultural conflict to try to understand the numerous diverse and multifaceted ways some conflictual some peaceful in which cultural exchanges have taken place historically and which continue to take place between the Muslim and non Muslim worlds
