Tantric Treasures, 2004 This book provides accurate accessible translations of three classics of medieval Indian Buddhist mysticism Since their composition around 1000 CE these poems have exerted a powerful influence on spiritual life Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 10: Soundings in Tibetan Medicine, 2007-10-15 In this volume for the first time Tibetan Medicine is approached from a combination of anthropology and history These two disciplines appear to be vital to come to understand Tibetan medical knowledge and practice as being complex diverse and dynamic phenomena which reflect changing social and historical conditions at the same time while also appealing to or preserving an older canon of traditions Part One examines the impacts of various modernities in Tibet the Himalayan borderlands and the Tibetan exile including standardisation and scientization of Tibetan medicine Part Two investigates the transmission and professionalisation of medical knowledge and its role in identity construction Part Three traces connections between various body images practices and cosmologies in Tibetan societies and how mental and physical illnesses are understood Part Four critically presents new or little known histories commentarial practices textual narratives and oral sources for investigating the history of Tibetan medicine The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems Thuken Losang Chokyi Nyima, 2017-06-06 The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thuken Losang Chokyi Nyima 1737 1802 is arguably the widest ranging account of religious philosophies ever written in pre modern Tibet Like most Tibetan texts on philosophical systems this work covers the major schools of India both Buddhist and non Buddhist but then goes on to discuss in detail the entire range of Tibetan traditions as well with separate chapters on the Nyingma Kadam Kagyu Shije Sakya Jonang Geluk and Bon schools Not resting there Thuken goes on to describe the major traditions of China Confucian Daoist and the multiple varieties of Buddhist as well as those of Mongolia Khotan and even Shambhala The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is unusual too in its concern not just to describe and analyze doctrines but to trace the historical development of the various traditions The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is an eloquent and erudite presentation exploring the religious history and philosophical systems of an array of Asian Cultures and offering evidence that the serious and sympathetic study of the history of religions has not been a monopoly of Western scholarship The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems Blo-bzang-chos-kyi-nyi-ma (Thu'u-bkwan III), 2009-04 The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thuken Losang Ch ky i Nyima 1737 1802 is probably the widest ranging account of religious philosophies ever written in pre modern Tibet Thuken was a cosmopolitan Buddhist monk from Amdo Mongol by heritage Tibetan in education and equally comfortable in a central Tibetan monastery or at the imperial court in Beijing Like most texts on philosophical systems his Crystal Mirror covers the major schools of India both non Buddhist and Buddhist but then goes on to discuss in detail the entire range of Tibetan traditions as well with separate chapters on the Nyingma Kadam Kagy Shij Sakya Jonang Geluk and B n Not resting there Thuken goes on to describe the major traditions of China Confucian Daoist and Buddhist as well as those of Mongolia Khotan and Shambhala The Crystal Mirror is unusual too in its concern not just to describe and analyze doctrines but to trace the historical development of the various traditions All this makes the Crystal Mirror an eloquent erudite and informative textbook on the religious history and philosophical systems of an array of

Asian cultures and provides evidence that serious and sympathetic study of the history of religions has not been a monopoly of Western scholarship

From the Heart of Tibet Elmar R. Gruber, 2010-08-10 The story of Drikung Chetsang Rinpoche's life notes the Dalai Lama encompasses a remarkably broad range of Tibetan experience over the past fifty years This is the story of a young boy born in 1946 to inherit the role of high ranking lama When the Chinese army invaded his family escaped the country but he and the other monks in his monastery were rounded up by soldiers and sent to an indoctrination school After surviving almost two decades of the Cultural Revolution in Tibet during which time lamas and aristocrats were persecuted and jailed Chetsang Rinpoche walked out of Tibet alone and found his way to Kathmandu Nepal Eventually after living as a refugee and an immigrant he fully took on leadership of the Drikung lineage by founding the Drikung Kagyu Institute in India Since then the teachings of this lineage have spread around the world after nearly being lost

Tibetan Buddhism in Diaspora Ana Cristina O. Lopes, 2014-12-17 The imperialist ambitions of China which invaded Tibet in the late 1940s have sparked the spectacular spread of Tibetan Buddhism worldwide and especially in western countries This work is a study on the malleability of a particular Buddhist tradition on its adaptability in new contexts The book analyses the nature of the Tibetan Buddhism in the Diaspora It examines how the re-signification of Tibetan Buddhist practices and organizational structures in the present refers back to the dismantlement of the Tibetan state headed by the Dalai Lama and the fragmentation of Tibetan Buddhist religious organizations in general It includes extensive multi-sited fieldwork conducted in the United States Brazil Europe and Asia and a detailed analysis of contemporary documents relating to the global spread of Tibetan Buddhism The author demonstrates that there is a de-institutionalized and de-territorialized project of political power and religious organization which among several other consequences engenders the gradual autonomization of lamas and lineages inside the religious field of Tibetan Buddhism Thus a spectre of these previous institutions continues to exist outside their original contexts and they are continually activated in ever new settings Using a combination of two different academic traditions namely the Brazilian anthropological tradition and the American Buddhist studies tradition it investigates the process of cultural re-signification of Tibetan Buddhism in the context of its Diaspora Thus it will be a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian Religion Asian Studies and Buddhism
