Royal Monasteries In The National Heritage Of Spain:

Royal Monasteries in the National Heritage of Spain Antonio Bonet Correa,1988 Royal Tourism Phil Long,Nicola J. Palmer,2008 The relationships between tourism and royalty have received little coverage in the tourism literature This volume provides a critical exploration of the relationships between royalty and tourism past present and future from a range of disciplinary perspectives The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage Claudia Elena Stoian,2015-11-25 The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage A Contrastive Study from a Cultural Perspective presents an in depth research study in the field of online tourism promotion It focuses on the national online promotion of UNESCO World Heritage Sites on two different types of websites institutional and commercial from three countries Romania Spain and Great Britain The book analyses the way in which each country combines various modes to create a virtual brochure with a promotional message from both institutional and commercial positions In doing this it studies the organization of the websites and their webpages as well as the lexico grammatical and visual features of their promotional messages The theoretical framework used is Systemic Functional Linguistics Halliday 1985 1994 Kress and van Leeuwen 1996 2006 Halliday and Matthiessen 2004 The results are compared in relation to the types of websites and to the countries in which they were produced These are further interpreted from a cultural perspective showing that the findings can be accounted for by cultural variability in particular the dimension of context Hall 1976 1990 2000 The city trip guide for PozuelodeAlarcón(Spain) , UNESCO, Cultural Heritage, and Outstanding Universal Value Sophia Labadi,2013 This book explores the international legal framework developed by UNESCO to identify and protect world heritage and its implementation at the national level Drawing on close policy analysis of UNESCO s major documents extensive professional experience at UNESCO as well as in depth analyses of case studies from Asia Europe and Latin America Sophia Labadi offers a nuanced discussion of the constitutive role of national understandings of a universalist framework The discussion departs from considerations of the World Heritage Convention as Eurocentric and offers a more complex analysis of how official narratives relating to non European and non traditional heritage mark a subversion of a dominant and canonical European representation of heritage It engages simultaneously with a diversity of discourses across the humanities and social sciences and with related theories pertaining not only to tangible and intangible heritage conservation and archaeology but also political science social theory tourism and development studies economics cultural and gender studies In doing so it provides a critical review of many key concepts including tourism development sustainability intangible heritage and authenticity The city trip guide for Leganés(Spain) , Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas John H. Stubbs,Emily G. Makaš,2011-05-04 From such well known and long vexed sites as the Athenian Acropolis to more contemporary locales like the Space Age Modernist capital city of Bras lia the conflicting and not always neatly resolvable forces that bear upon preservation are addressed as clearly and thoughtfully as the general reader could hope for New York Review of Books an astounding feat of research compilation and synthesis Context The book delivers the first major survey concerning the conservation of cultural heritage in both Europe and the Americas Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas serves as a convenient resource for professionals students and anyone interested in the field Following the acclaimed Time Honored this book presents contemporary practice on a country by country and region by region basis facilitating comparative analysis of similarities and differences The book stresses solutions in architectural heritage protection and the contexts in which they were developed
