The Experience and Fear of Violence in the Public Realm Charlotte Fabiansson, 2023-05-12 This book explores violent and discriminatory values and beliefs and their interconnectedness between societal echelons Violence has a foundation and a context It comes from somewhere and is directed at someone or something and it has an ambience established through generations of social cultural political financial and religious strategies It fashions nation states hegemonic ideology and frames individual behaviours and attitudes thus creating a milieu that enables the normalisation of violence The focus is on violence infused behaviours and actions in the public realm a multifunctional environment for social and cultural activities as well as a workplace entertainment and transport hub It is a public setting sometimes demanding onerous deftness of individuals to stay safe Attitudes values and beliefs around violence harassment and discrimination in the public realm frequently occur openly without anyone noticing that a crime has been committed including by close bystanders An audience steeped in societal hegemonic social and cultural patriarchal ideology might be oblivious to harassing or discriminative behaviours and attitudes against females minority genders and ethnic minority groups The habitual nature and normalisation of these invisible crimes make them easy to dismiss Violence materialises on all societal levels the hegemonic structural macro level consisting of the society's dominating political financial social cultural and religious leaders educational and community institutions meso level and the individual agency micro level hence the nationstate's populace Societal order is underpinned by structural systemic and symbolic violence all integrated into contemporary society's cultural and social fabric thus inconspicuous social norms as ingrained through internalisation The book is written from a sociological perspective and within the risk society discourse where the risk of violence in the public domain is omnipresent Discourses of Arendt Bauman Bourdieu Marx Foucault Galtung and Beck and present day analysis underpin the discussions The agency and political leadership research emphatically show that violence and discrimination are normalised and ingrained in the contemporary milieu
