Sagwa Treasure Hunters:

Sagwa Cynthia Benjamin, 2003-01-01 Sagwa the Chinese Siamese Cat will inspire children's spirit of adventure as they color over 30 beautiful drawings and accent them with 50 jewel stickers. Sagwa and her friends Fu Fu and Shei Hu set off to uncover the Magistrate's missing poetry scrolls. After a cave in they must rely on one and another to find their way back home. The rich Chinese culture and kid-friendly character art combine to create a truly unique coloring book with lots of pictures for children to color and activities that are fun and educational.

Amy Tan Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-01-24 In the mid 1980s Amy Tan was a successful but unhappy corporate speechwriter. By the end of the decade she was perched firmly atop the best seller lists with The Joy Luck Club with more popular novels to follow. Tan's work once pigeonholed as ethnic literature resonates with universal themes that cross cultural and ideological boundaries and prove wildly successful with readers of all stripes. Tender, sincere, complex, honest and uncompromising in its portrayal of Chinese culture and its affect on women, Amy Tan's work earned her both praise and exorciation from critics, adoration from fans and a place as one of America's most notable modern writers. This reference work introduces and summarizes Amy Tan's life, her body of literature and her characters. The main text is comprised of entries covering characters, dates, historical figures and events, allusions, motifs and themes from her works. The entries combine critical insights with generous citations from primary and secondary sources. Each entry concludes with a selected bibliography. There is also a chronology of Tan's family history and her life. Appendices provide an overlapping timeline of historical and fictional events in Tan's work, a glossary of foreign terms found in her writing and a list of related writing and research topics. An extensive bibliography and a comprehensive index accompany the text.
