Predestination Controversy Gottschalk (of Orbais), 2010 The question of predestination and its nature which drew strong protests from the monks of Provence in the early fifth century against the teaching of Augustine of Hippo was initially settled by the Council of Orange in 529 But in the Carolingian renaissance in the ninth century the Benedictine monk Gottschalk of Orbais brought the teachings of the late Augustine to the forefront of theological debate and greatly disturbed the clergy and faithful with his doctrine of double predestination of some to the joy of heaven and of others to the eternal punishment of hell a doctrine that he claimed was that of Augustine and the Catholic faith The present volume provides for the first time an English translation of Gottschalk's key writings on predestination and various reactions and comments from leading theologians of the ninth century as well as a learned introduction to Gottschalk's life and controversies Publisher

American Book Publishing Record, 2000-07 The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2010-03-23 The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed However having produced such great philosophers as Anselm Peter Abelard John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Peter Lombard and the towering Thomas Aquinas it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers concepts issues institutions and events making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought Books in Series, 1876-1949: Series ,1982 Dictionary Catalogue of the Library of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, Toronto, Canada: Roc-Z.
