Saint In Europe:

Europe as a Multiple Modernity Srdjan Sremac, Martina Topić, 2014-03-17 Europe as a Multiple Modernity Multiplicity of Religious Identities and Belonging challenges the predominant modernity theory arguing that Europe can be considered as one multiple modernity In that the book presents a collection of essays showing the plurality of discourses and variety in human self reflexion on notions of religious and belonging in everyday lives Emphasis is placed on religious actors and individuals in Europe and the multiplicity of their senses of religious identification and belonging Sacred Places Europe Brad Olsen, 2007-02-01 Combining current trends academic theories and historical insights this travel guide brings both lesser known and famous European spiritual locales into perspective by explaining the significance of each sacred site The cultural relevance history and spirituality of each site including Stonehenge the Acropolis Mont Saint Michel Pompeii and Saint Peter s Basilica are explained creating a moving and artistic travel experience Each destination with selections spanning more than 15 countries throughout Europe is accompanied by easy to follow maps and directions Europe Michael Zils, 2015-07-24 No detailed description available for Europe Translating Europe in Ælfric's Lives of Saints Luisa Ostacchini, 2024-06-26 Translating Europe in lfric s Lives of Saints is the first study of the representation of European peoples places and geographies in the Lives of Saints one of early medieval England s most famed works It examines the Lives of Saints as a unified collection whose various items work cumulatively and concurrently to provide audiences with teachings far beyond the scope of an individual homily or saints life In doing so it demonstrates that lfric s European characters and settings served not merely as a convenient skeleton on which to frame his hagiographical narratives but rather lay at the heart of his didactic praxis and pedagogic aims Luisa Ostacchini systematically compares each of the 30 plus items that comprise lfric s Lives of Saints to their Latin sources and to one another to highlight previously unnoticed patterns and formulae within collection In so doing she demonstrates that lfric s interest in community was both inward and outward looking he sought on the one hand to situate England within the wider Christian world and on the other hand to promote the internal unity of the English kingdom and the reformed monastic establishment This book sheds new light on the ways that lfric wrote about the Christian world and England s place within it and further illuminates of the didactic praxis and ideology of one of the most influential and significant authors of the early medieval period Luisa Ostacchini is a college lecturer at St John s College Oxford where she teaches Old and Middle English literature A Short History of Architecture Europe Russell Sturgis, 1923 The Invention of Europe in French Literature and Film E. Ousselin, 2009-02-16 Ousselin sets out to show that Europe is essentially a literary fiction and that the ongoing movement towards European unity cannot be understood without reference to the literary works that helped bring it about Female Monasticism in Early Modern Europe Cordula van Wyhe, 2008 This volume of twelve interdisciplinary essays addresses the multifaceted nature of female religious identity in early modern Europe By dismantling the boundaries between the academic disciplines of history art history musicology and literary studies it offers new cross cultural readings essential to a more comprehensive understanding of the complexity of female spirituality in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Consisting of four sections each dealing with different parts of Europe and discussing issues of social and spiritual identity such as the formation of community and memory spiritual direction and secular patronage this compelling collection offers a significant addition to a thriving field of study

Learning and Culture in Carolingian Europe John J. Contreni, 2024-10-28 Nine of the ten essays in this collection appeared first between 1995 and 2005 Centered in the Carolingian age they explore how the seventh century Visio Baronti was read in the ninth century and how social and cultural imperatives transformed the life of scholarship schools and learning in Carolingian Europe Several essays consider the significance of numerical and scientific studies in the Carolingian curriculum including the impact of Bede's scientific works in the schools and on the thought of John Scottus Eriugena Another reconstructs Eriugena's early career in light of his Glossae divinae historiae Carolingian biblical culture is the subject of two essays including a reading of Haimo of Auxerre's commentary on Ezechiel that highlights the unfinished and unpublished commentary's critique of Carolingian society A poem in the Anthologia Latina long ascribed to Octavian the Roman emperor is restored to the monastic culture of the ninth century Finally an article on the Laon Formulary originally published in French in 1973 is here translated and revised

Domestic Devotions in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Salvador Ryan, 2020-05-28 Domestic devotion has become an increasingly important area of research in recent years with the publication of a number of significant studies on the early modern period in particular This Special Issue aims to build on these works and to expand their range both geographically and chronologically This collection focuses on lived religion and the devotional practices found in the domestic settings of late medieval and early modern Europe More particularly it investigates the degree to which the experience of personal or familial religious practice in the domestic realm intersected with the more public expression of faith in liturgical or communal settings Its broad geographical range spanning northern southern central and eastern Europe includes practices related to Christianity Judaism and Islam This Special Issue will be of interest to historians art historians medievalists early modernists historians of religion anthropologists and theologians as well as those interested in the history of material religious culture It also offers important insights into research areas such as gender studies histories of the emotions and histories of the senses
