LEASE CONTRACT

LEASING

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

COMMERCIAL LAW

- Under the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), transactions take various forms, subject matter is personal property, and parties include merchants and consumers
- Parties to contract of sale include seller and buyer (i.e. 2A-103(1))
- Parties to lease of goods are lessor and lessee (i.e. 2A-103(1))
- Contracts for sale of goods are regulated by UCC Article 2; contracts for lease of goods are regulated by UCC Article 2A

CONTRACT FORMATION

IMPORTANCE OF AGREEMENT

- A contract is formed when Article 2 gives legal effect to parties' agreement in fact; total legal obligation that results from parties' agreement (i.e. 2-201(1)(b))
- An agreement is the bargain in fact of parties as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances (i.e., course of dealing, course of performance, usage of trade) (i.e. 1-205, 2-208)

OFFER & ACCEPTANCE

- An offer is display of willingness to enter into a bargain made to justify another person's understanding that assent to bargain is invited and ends it
- A firm offer (an option) may be created without consideration or reliance in a writing signed by a merchant
- An acceptance may be in any reasonable method or manner unless otherwise unambiguously indicated (i.e. 2-206(1))
- Offeree may accept by promise, performance or communicating performance
- A contract is formed if offeree gives definite acceptance with different terms or if there is conduct by both parties that recognizes a contract even when writings do not agree (i.e. 2-207)
- If contract is formed, then additional or different terms may become part of agreement if offeree has expressly assented to them

EVIDENCE OF FRAGILE

- It conditions enforceability of an agreement with the presence of a writing indicating that the contract for sale has been made and signed by the offeree party (i.e. 2-201(1))
- Requirement is met even though writing does not contain all material terms or where merchant fails to object to satisfactory confirmation in writing sent by other merchant
- Other non-writing situations are included (e.g., specially manufactured goods, part performance, admission in court, reliance)
- Agreement is not enforceable beyond quantity of goods shown in writing or evidenced by performance or admission

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- Emphasis is upon agreement, not a promise or consideration (i.e. 2-204)
- Less emphasis on formalities; best evidence of agreement may be parties' conduct rather than their words
- Parties' intention to make a contract is given legal protection, even though time of contract formation cannot be determined or material terms have not been agreed upon
- If parties intended to make a contract, but a material term has not been agreed, then court will supply a reasonable term and enforce bargain

THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

OWNERSHIP CLAIMS

- When an owner seeks to replevin goods sold by a seller to a buyer, that seller can only provide the buyer with title that is within his/her power to transfer (i.e. 2-403)
- Exceptions occur when the owner has delivered goods to the seller in a transaction of purchase (later claimed to be voidable) and owner has unrecovered goods (but not power to sell) to merchant where buyer makes a purchase in ordinary course of business

SECURITY INTEREST CLAIMS

- Security interests in goods are created and perfected under Article 9
- If a secured party creates a perfected security interest in seller's goods, and seller sells them to buyer, then buyer is subject to security interest
- Buyer takes free of security interest if secured party authorized sale or buyer is a buyer in ordinary course of business and security interest was created by seller

SECURITY INTERESTS

- If seller creates a security interest by agreement or retention of title in goods sold and delivered to a buyer, enforcement are governed by Article 9
- If seller retains or regains possession of goods upon buyer's default, then he/she may have possessory security under Article 2
- Security interest is created without security agreement and perfected without filing a finance statement

SELLER'S WARRANTY OF TITLE

- Seller makes a warranty to the buyer that title conveyed is good, its transfer rightful, and goods are free of any security interest (i.e. 2-312(2))
- Buyer's damages for breach include incidental and consequential damages (i.e. 2-714(2))

THIRD PARTIES' CLAIMS

- After delivery, seller has a limited right to reclaim goods from a buyer in a credit sale where buyer was insolvent (i.e. 2-505(2))
- Reclamation power is subject to purchasers, including a secured party, who have the right to intervene before a demand is made
- A consignor of goods is protected from claims of consignee's creditors and secured parties if appropriate notice is given
- A buyer who leases named goods in seller's possession may performance, replevin or reclamation
- A purchaser of those goods from seller may prevail if retention of possession is established to a merchant and sale was in the ordinary course of business
- Seller's creditor may prevail over buyer if retention or identification was fraudulent
- Buyer in ordinary course of business may prevail over perfected security interest even though goods have been left with seller
