Salons War:

The World of the Salons Antoine Lilti, 2015 The World of the Salons is a revisionist study of the French salon of the eighteenth century arguing that it was a place governed by social hierarchy not equality connected to the world of the Court and not the fount of the Enlightenment as has traditionally been believed Paris Salons, Cafés, Studios Sisley Huddleston, 1928

French Salons Steven D. Kale, 2006-01-24 Challenging many of the conclusions of recent historiography including the depiction of salonnieres as influential power brokers French Salons offers an original penetrating and engaging analysis of elite culture and society in France before during and after the Revolution Allied War Salon, 1918

The Military Enlightenment Christy L. Pichichero, 2017-11-15 The Military Enlightenment brings to light a radically new narrative both on the Enlightenment and the French armed forces from Louis XIV to Napoleon Christy Pichichero makes a striking discovery the Geneva Conventions post traumatic stress disorder the military band of brothers and soldierly heroism all found their antecedents in the eighteenth century French armed forces Readers of The Military Enlightenment will be startled to learn of the many ways in which French military officers administrators and medical personnel advanced ideas of human and political rights military psychology and social justice

Queer Emergent Justin Perez, 2025-04-11 In Queer Emergent Justin Perez explores how advances in HIV prevention work alongside broader economic and political shifts in global health to shape queer subjectivities Drawing on ethnographic research among gay and transgender communities in urban Amazonian Peru Perez describes how queer social worlds emerge through scandalous storytelling a practice of exaggerating and embellishing stories about everyday life that transgresses social norms and hierarchies Perez shows that through such storytelling gay and transgender communities contested the assumptions of global HIV prevention's shift from the provision of costly antiretrovirals to the mitigation of social conditions like discrimination and stigma He argues that the global ambition to End AIDS by 2030 is not just a technical project oriented at ending the epidemic but also a project of sexual subjectification and ongoing social transformation By taking seriously the scandalous stories that gay and transgender Peruvians circulated as they responded to new forms of HIV prevention Perez reveals how they imagine possibilities of what could be as the effort to end AIDS continues to play out in the present

Zdatny, 2006-05-13 This history of coiffure in modern France illuminates a host of important twentieth century issues the course of fashion the travails of small business in a modern economy the complexities of labour reform the failure of the Popular Front the temptations of Paganism all accompanied by a parade of waves chignons and curls The Final Spectacle Julia Thoma, 2019-03-18 The book examines military paintings in France in the 1850s and 1860s when the genre experienced a new lease of life It recreates the paintings art historical historical and social context and considers the explosion of military subjects in their own right rather than as a consequence of war reporting The paintings entertainment value effectively communicated political agendas catering to the emerging phenomenon of mass spectatorship and giving rise to innovative compositions The book also looks at the other side of the artistic spectrum proposing that smaller formats adapted the sentimental techniques of military memoirs to focus on the soldiers experiences of warfare and to elicit a critique of war The Long and Short of It Gary Morson, 2012-04-04 Brevity may be the soul of wit but it is also much more In this exploration of the shortest literary works wise sayings proverbs witticisms sardonic observations about human nature pithy evocations of mystery terse statements regarding ultimate questions Gary Saul Morson argues passionately for the importance of these short genres not only to scholars but also to general readers We are fascinated by how brief works evoke a powerful sense of life in a few words which is why we browse quotation anthologies and love to repeat our favorites Arguing that all short genres are short in their own way Morson explores the unique form of brevity that each of them develops Apophthegms Heraclitus Lao Tzu Wittgenstein describe the universe as ultimately unknowable offering not answers but ever deeper questions Dicta Spinoza Marx Freud create the sense that unsolvable enigmas have at last been resolved Sayings from sages and sacred texts assure us that goodness is rewarded while sardonic maxims Ecclesiastes Nietzsche George Eliot uncover the self deceptions behind such comforting illusions Just as witticisms display the power of mind witlessisms William Spooner Dan Quayle the persona assumed by Mark Twain astonish with their spectacular stupidity Nothing seems further from these short works than novels and epics but the shortest genres often set the tone for longer ones which in turn contain brilliant examples of short forms Morson shows that short genres contribute important insights into the history of literature and philosophical thought Once we grasp the role of aphorisms in Herodotus Samuel Johnson Dostoevsky and even Tolstoy we see their masterpieces in an entirely new light Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser, György Mihály Vajda, 2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Compar e des Litt ratures de Langues Europ ennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumi res au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Th tre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Epoche im _berblick attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution Berlin Metropolis Emily D.
