

A close-up portrait of Sally Jessy Raphaël, a woman with short, blonde, wavy hair, wearing red-rimmed glasses and a large, ornate earring. She is resting her chin on her hand, which is adorned with a ring and a watch. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue and green. The word "SALLY" is written in large, stylized, gold-colored letters across the bottom of the portrait.

Unconventional Success David F. Swensen, 2005-08-09 The bestselling author of Pioneering Portfolio Management the definitive template for institutional fund management returns with a book that shows individual investors how to manage their financial assets In Unconventional Success investment legend David F Swensen offers incontrovertible evidence that the for profit mutual fund industry consistently fails the average investor From excessive management fees to the frequent churning of portfolios the relentless pursuit of profits by mutual fund management companies harms individual clients Perhaps most destructive of all are the hidden schemes that limit investor choice and reduce returns including pay to play product placement fees stale price trading scams soft dollar kickbacks and 12b 1 distribution charges Even if investors manage to emerge unscathed from an encounter with the profit seeking mutual fund industry individuals face the likelihood of self inflicted pain The common practice of selling losers and buying winners and doing both too often damages portfolio returns and increases tax liabilities delivering a one two punch to investor aspirations In short Nearly insurmountable hurdles confront ordinary investors Swensen s solution A contrarian investment alternative that promotes well diversified equity oriented market mimicking portfolios that reward investors who exhibit the courage to stay the course Swensen suggests implementing his nonconformist proposal with investor friendly not for profit investment companies such as Vanguard and TIAA CREF By avoiding actively managed funds and employing client oriented mutual fund managers investors create the preconditions for investment success Bottom line Unconventional Success provides the guidance and financial know how for improving the personal investor s financial future

The Talking Cure Jane M. Shattuc, 2014-04-04 The Talking Cure examines four nationally syndicated television talk shows Donahue The Oprah Winfrey Show Geraldo and Sally Jessy Raphael which are primarily devoted to feminine culture and issues Serving as one of the few public forums where working class women and those with different sexual orientations have a voice these talk shows represent American TV at its most radical Shattuc examines the tension between talk s feminist politics and the television industry who in their need to appeal to women trades on sensation stereotypes and fears in order to engender product consumption However this genre is not a one way form of social interaction The female audience complies and resists in a complex give and take and it is this relationship which The Talking Cure aims to understand and reveal
