Now in their twenties, Issy is trying to hold together a life as a magazine art director while Viola is slowly destroying herself consumed with guilt over the events they unknowingly set into motion as children. When it seems that Viola might never recover, Issy returns to the town they haven't seen in a decade to face her own demons and see what answers, if any, she can find. The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven Sherman Alexie, 2013-10-15 Sherman Alexie's darkly humorous story collection weaves memory, fantasy, and stark reality to powerfully evoke life on the Spokane Indian Reservation. The twenty-four linked tales in Alexie's debut collection paint an unforgettable portrait of life on and around the Spokane Indian Reservation, a place where survival, anger, imagination, and HUD houses and generations of privation intertwine with history, passion, and myth. We follow Thomas Builds the Fire, the longwinded storyteller no one really listens to; his half-hearted nemesis Victor, the basketball star turned recovering alcoholic; and a wide cast of other vividly drawn characters on a haunting journey filled with humor and sorrow, resilience and resignation, dreams and reality. Alexie's unadulterated honesty and boundless compassion come together in a poetic vision of a world in which the gaps between past and present are not really gaps after all. The basis for the acclaimed 1998 feature film Smoke Signals, the Chicago Tribune noted The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven is for the American Indian what Richard Wright's Native Son was for the black American in 1940. The collection received a Special Citation for the PEN Hemingway Award for Best First Fiction. This ebook edition features a new prologue from the author as well as an illustrated biography and rare photos from Sherman Alexie's personal collection.

Why would a successful American physician choose to live in a twelve foot by twelve foot cabin without running water or electricity? To find out, writer and activist William Powers visited Dr. Jackie Benton in rural North Carolina. No Name Creek gurgled through Benton's permaculture farm and she stroked honeybees' wings as she shared her wildcrafter philosophy of living on a planet in crisis. Powers, just back from a decade of international aid work, then accepted Benton's offer to stay at the cabin for a season while she traveled. There, he befriended her eclectic neighbors: organic farmers, biofuel brewers, eco-developers, and discovered a sustainable but imperiled way of life. In these pages, Powers not only explores this small patch of community but draws on his international experiences with other pockets of resistance. This engrossing tale of Powers's struggle for a meaningful life with a smaller footprint proposes a paradigm shift to an elusive Soft World with clues to personal happiness and global healing.
